

Fashion prerequisites to a busy coed's day...

MATCHMATES

To hold the classes attention try Jantzen's ultra-slim "Success Skirt" in a two toned tweed of 100% wool. Sizes 10 to 18.

14⁹⁸

Dyed to match the lighter tone of the skirt Jantzen's "Commuter Pull-over" a bulky knit of 68% wool, 32% vicara. Sizes small, medium, large.

14⁹⁸

Modeled by

Wendy Makepeace

University of Nebraska Representative to GOLD'S School Advisory Board, Wendy will be happy to help you select your college wardrobe.

CASUAL SUIT

Perfect anytime, anywhere, Arthur Jay's wide wale corduroy suit with striped vest in a contrasting color. Boxy jacket has a small leather collar and may be worn with or without its belt. Box pleat adds back interest. In tan or gray. Sizes 9 to 15.

29⁹⁵

Wool Sheath

For an afternoon tea or dinner dressup, Jonathan Logan's slim sophisticated wool sheath in glen plaid. There's smart new fashion in the side-wrap effect of the skirt. Sizes 7 to 15. In Red or Royal Blue.

25⁰⁰

DATE DRESS

Jonathan Logan's completely feminine after five fashion with full romantic skirt gathered beneath a cumberbund. You'll get extra duty with the double-breasted jacket that turns it into an afternoon dress. Drip dry shagbark cotton in charcoal-toned gray, green or red.

19⁹⁵

All from GOLD'S Second Floor of Fashion

Buy your entire Collegiate Wardrobe now on GOLD'S RCA Plan—NO MONEY DOWN