

Final Minute Play Earns Kansas Win

A last second pass from Quarterback Duane Morris to Fullback Homer Floyd gave Kansas a 13-7 victory over Kansas State Saturday.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game the Jayhawkers recovered a Kansas State fumble on their own 28-yard line and drove 72 yards for the winning touchdown. The Morris to Floyd aerial accounted for the final 40 yards as the clock showed only 18 seconds remaining in the final period.

The Big-Eight game was played in 45-degree weather before 26 thousand.

K-State opened the scoring in the second quarter as fullback Tony Tiro, later injured, slanted over from two yards out. Halfback Keith Wilson set up the touchdown as he returned a Kansas punt 34 yards to the 11-yard line. End Don Zadnik converted.

Kansas tied the game in the third quarter on a 73-yard pass-run combination from Morris to Fullback Don Feller. Feller gathered in Morris's pass about two yards past the line of scrimmage and outraced the K-State defenders the remaining distance. John Traylor then recovered a bad pass from center and ran for the conversion.

The two teams traded fumbles in a wild finish. Kansas finally took possession on its own 28 after the final fumble and marched to the winning score.

As the clock was ticking off the final seconds Morris desperately dropped back and hit Floyd with his pass on the fifteen-yard line. Floyd then shook loose several would-be tacklers and broke into the clear to score standing up.

Kansas State Wallops NU Freshmen 31-7

The University of Nebraska yearlings Friday were literally smothered by an unbeaten Kansas State freshmen football squad, 31-7.

The Huskers were able to pick up 21 yards via the ground while losing a total of 14 yards in their rushing attack in absorbing the loss, to provide a net yardage of only seven yards for the entire contest.

The K-State frosh got off to an early lead in the first quarter when Ron Blaylock, quarterback for the K-State club, raced 44 yards for the marker. Then, a few moments later, a break for the Huskers occurred and a touchdown was realized when a Wildcat fumble was recovered on the four yard line of Kansas by a Husker player.

The visiting team rolled up their lone touchdown when John Minnick, 6-0, 185 pounder from Cambridge, Neb., slipped around his own left end for the TD Dick Koser added the conversion to account for the Scarlet scoring.

The Nebraska lead was short-lived however, when in the second chapter the Wildcats scored when Ed Price, 6-6 end from Ft. Worth, snared a Blaylock aerial for 39 yards and a touchdown to put the Wildcats ahead to stay.

The third quarter was scoreless but in the fourth period the bubble burst with Kansas State pushing over three touchdowns for 19 points.

Fullback Ray Kovar scored on a two-yard plunge for one K-State TD in the final chapter of the game. The other two markers were accounted for when a Nebraska punt was blocked and Price recovered it in the Huskers end-zone and a one yard sneak by Dale Evans.

This was the last game for Coach Dick Monroe's freshmen squad which finished the season with a 6-2 slate. The Huskers lost earlier in the season to Iowa State, 19-33.

I-State Squelches NU Second Win Bid

A stubborn Iowa State eleven, very adverse to the idea of losing their first offensive power of the fray.

With 4:10 left to play in the third frame the Huskers finally drove to the Iowa 47 which marked the first time of the afternoon that the Huskers had entered Iowa State territory with the ball.

With Brown, Naviaux and Zaruba doing the lugging chores the Cornhuskers moved the ball to the 12 yard line of the Iowans. Brown drove to the 10 and Zaruba plunged the fifth rung on the Big Eight standings with a 13 record for conference play. Next week they return to Lincoln to face the Colorado Buffaloes and the Saturday after that entertain the Oklahoma Sooners for the seasons final fray.

Although the Iowa scoring machine knocked more than once at Nebraska's door the first two quarters, they couldn't move over the end stripe until late in the second quarter when Omahan Bob Harden gunned into the middle of the line from the one to score for the Cyclones.

One Cyclone drive was stopped by a fumble and the biggest threat was halted by a fine NU goal line stand.

The first Iowa State threat was posed early in the first quarter when they moved the pigskin to the Husker five yard line and tried, in vain, to gain the necessary yardage in four plays through the middle. When the dust cleared the Scarlet line remained intact and the Nebraskaans had the ball on their own one foot line.

The Huskers could not move the ball out of danger far enough to keep the pesky Cyclones out of scoring danger, however, for two long runs by Gene Sandage, terminating in fumbles kept the Cyclones deep in the Husker territory.

The second Cyclone tally came in the third chapter of the game when Naviaux recovered an Iowa State fumble on the Nebraska 34. The Huskers had to kick to the Iowa State 47 and the Myer's men came roaring back to set up their insurance touchdown.

The Husker line became stout again on their own 17 where they held the Iowans for three downs but on the fourth down Nichols flipped a pass to end Gale Gibson for a first down on the Husker 4. Three plays from scrimmage later the Cyclones had their second TD of the afternoon when fullback Terry Ingram drove it over on his third try.

After that the Scarlet showed

The loss moved the Huskers to the nine. Both Naviaux and Tolly tried passes but both were incomplete and the Cyclones had possession of the ball.

Later the Huskers had another scoring chance but could not produce the six-pointer.

Nebraska had the ball on the Iowa State 13 on their first down. An offside penalty put the Big Red on the 18 with first down. For four consecutive tries the Scarlet tried to pass but could not complete one and consequently lost the ball.

The only other Nebraska bid came in the fourth quarter when Nebraska drove to the 33 of Iowa State but an interception of Naviaux's pass on the 12 squelched the bid.

NU Nets Sixth Place In C-C Meet

Kansas, with a record performance by Tom Shuta, easily won the Big Eight Conference cross-country meet held in Ames, Iowa, Saturday.

Shuta covered the three mile distance in 14 minutes and 18 seconds, two seconds faster than the former record held by his Kansas teammate Jerry McNeil. McNeil was second Saturday with 15:14.

Kansas won with a low score of 26 points, well ahead of second place Colorado with 52 points. Nebraska finished sixth with 155 points.

The best Nebraska could do individually was an eighth-place finish by Bob Elwood. Elwood's time for the three mile course was 15:30.

Other Nebraska finishers: George Rojelson, 23th with 15:57; Jerry Marples, 38th with 16:29; Bill Melody, 40th with 16:36; Knolly Barnes, 44th with 16:48; Mike Fleming, 45th with 16:51; Ken Ash, 46th with 16:58.

Nebraska's chances of finishing higher were severely hampered as sophomore sensation Joe Mullins was unable to compete as a result of glandular fever.

Other placers in the top 20 included:

- 3—Jim Sanders, Missouri. 4—Brian Travis, Kansas. 5—Ned Sargent, Colorado. 6—Bernie Frakes, Colorado. 7—Garry Halmeyer, Iowa State. 8—Bob Elwood, Nebraska. 9—Barry Crawford, Kansas. 10—Don Greenlee, Kansas. 11—Jack Hughes, Colorado. 12—Mike Peake, Colorado. 13—John Darby, Iowa State. 14—Tom Harrison, Kansas. 15—Tom Rodda, Kansas. 16—Cliff Cushman, Kansas. 17—Frank Jolly, Iowa State. 18—Jim Fitzmorris, Colorado. 19—Bernie Kuhn, Oklahoma. 20—Duane Holman, Kansas State.

Oklahoma Regains Form, Snares Orange Bowl Bid

The powerful Oklahoma Sooners displayed a bit of their early season form Saturday as they tromped Missouri 39-14 to clinch an Orange Bowl appearance.

The Sooners battled Missouri to an impressive 13-7 halftime lead and then broke loose to score four touchdowns in the first half to break the game wide open.

Oklahoma drew first blood as halfback Dick Carpenter scampered 18 yards for a touchdown midway through the opening period. Dave Baker converted to make the score 7-0. A few minutes later Pasty Boyd capped the second Sooner scoring march as he tallied on a four-yarder.

Missouri made its bid for an upset in the second quarter when sophomore Phil Snowden engineered a 76-yard touchdown drive the fourth-quarter touchdowns from two yards out. The other two touchdowns were garnered by quarterback Carl Dodd and sophomore halfback Prentice Guait on plunges of two and three yards respectively.

Thomas, although scoring only one touchdown, played one of his greatest games as he was the leading ground carrier with 100 yards on 19 carries. The entire Sooner ground attack accounted for an impressive 424 yards.

Missouri fullback Hank Kuhlman tallied Missouri's final touchdown late in the game on a 32-yard draw play.

Rash tied a Missouri record of 22 consecutive conversions with his two extra points. Rash's placement after the Tiger's final touchdown was his sixteenth perfect kick of the season.

It was Oklahoma's forty-sixth game without a loss and the one-hundred-first coaching victory for Wilkinson.

in nine plays. Snowden's passing accounted for most of the yardage in this drive to move the ball to the six-inch line. From there Snowden sneaked for the six-pointer. Charlie Rash kicked the extra point and the Tigers were as close to Oklahoma as they were to be for the remainder of the game.

The Sooners rallied in the third period to score their third touchdown as Baker skirted his own left end for one yard and the touchdown. Baker again converted to make the score 20-7.

In the final period the Sooners turned the game into a rout as they put together three long touchdown drives. Clendon Thomas, Oklahoma's prime candidate for All-America honors, scored one of

Bufs Move To Easy Win Over State

The Colorado Buffaloes, smarting from their 9-6 upset loss to Missouri last week, redeemed themselves as they overpowered Colorado State Saturday, 20-0.

The statistics were even more one-sided as the Bufs rolled up 240 yards on the ground and 108 yards in the air while limiting Colorado State to only 30 yards rushing and 58 yards passing.

After a scoreless first period Colorado tallied twice in the second quarter on scoring marches of 73 and 87 yards. All-America candidate Bob Stransky accounted for the first score with a one yard plunge and wingback Eddie Dove scored the second on a power sweep around left end from the Colorado State 20.
