

Six Sophs Probable Starters

Jenning Hopes To Give Lions Good Tussle

Bill Jennings announced a tentative starting lineup for tomorrow's opener against Penn State at Memorial Stadium. Coach Jennings said the lineup may be changed depending on whether the Scarlet will kick or receive. Listed at ends are Mike Eger, a 195 pound sophomore from South Bend, Indiana, and Roland McDole, another soph who weighs in at 197 and hails from Toledo, Ohio. At tackles it will be Duane Mongerson, a 200 pound letterman from Omaha, and Allen Wellman, a Domet, South Dakota, sophomore, also 200 pounds.

Dennis Emanuel from North Bend will be the only senior starting in the line. The 205 pound converted end will hold down the left guard position. Leroy Zentic's name will appear on the program as the starting right guard, but the big junior from Rock Island, Illinois, just recovered from the flu and will not start. He will be in uniform and ready to go for limited action, however. Rich Koster a soph from Watertown, South Dakota, will take over starting chores for Zentic.

Another sophomore will open at center. Don Fricke, a 187 pound all-star from Hastings, will be the pivot.

Three Vet Backs
The backfield contains three veteran performers and a sophomore who has shown great promise. Harry Tolly from North Platte will be the quarter back and field general for the game. He will also handle punting chores. Dick McCashland, a converted center, from Geneva, will be the fullback.

Two year letterman from Lexington, Larry Naviaux, will handle right halfback duties for the third straight year.

N. U. Schedule

The schedule:
October 11, Kansas State, Home
October 18, Iowa State and Drake, Des Moines, Iowa
October 25, Colorado, Home
November 1, Missouri, Home
November 8, Big Eight Conference, Norman, Oklahoma

At left half will be 163 pound sophomore Pat Fischer from Omaha.

Good Tussle

Coach Jennings did not comment extensively on the game. He felt that he had sufficient strength and depth in his backfield. He did not say much about the line, but he said that his boys would give the Nittany Lions "a good tussle."

Tennis Meeting

Varsity and Freshman tennis players are asked to meet in room 114 in the physical education building on Monday, September 22, at 5:00 p.m. Physical examinations are also scheduled for Monday, September 22, at the Student Health Center at 7:00 p.m.

Big Eight To Play Underdogs Role

The Big Eight will be the decided underdog in three out of the six games played by conference teams this Saturday. In two games they are about rated even with their opponents, while in only one game is a conference team rated as a big favorite.

Oklahoma State, yet to play a conference football game, has one of its best squads in years and are easily picked to run over the Denver Pioneers in a national telecast game.

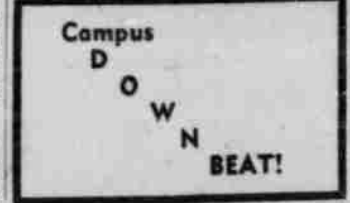

Missouri will play in another telecast game, only they will be the underdogs when they take the field against the Vanderbilt Commodores at Columbia.

K. U. will also have its back against the wall when they meet nationally ranked T.C.U. at Lawrence.

The toss-ups appear to be the Iowa State-Drake game at Ames, and the Kansas State-Wyoming tussle at Man-hatten. Oklahoma and Colorado are both idle this weekend.

IM Season Opens

All resident hall, fraternity, and independent teams wishing to enter football teams must do so by 5:00 p.m. today in room 102 of the physical education building. No entries will be accepted after this time. Competition will start some time next week at both the city and ag. campuses.

Entries for shuffle board, a new intramural activity, will also be due by today at 5:00 p.m. A team will consist of three doubles teams. Court fees will be paid by each player at the office at "Litle America". However, entries should be made in room 102 of the physical education building. The fees will amount to $1.00 per player per match. A match will consist of three games.

A trophy will be awarded to the all-university champions, and to the six team members and their dates there will be given a steak dinner at the Italian Village by Mr. Riley Smith, owner of "Little America".

All men interested in Fall Golf are asked to report to Mr. Holly Lepley at the Pioneer Golf Course on either Saturday or Sunday, September 20 or 21 between the hours of 7 and 8 p.m. An 18 hole qualifying round will be held on both mornings.

Husker Rifle Match

The Nebraska varsity rifle club will entertain Kansas State, the defending Big Eight champs, Saturday morning. Last year the Huskers finished third.
