

Wes Grady Receives Union Service Award

By ANDA ANDERSON
The city and Ag campus Student Unions revealed their new chairmen and assistants Tuesday night at the joint Awards Dessert.

Phillip McVey was master of ceremonies.

Wes Grady received the distinguished service key for Ag Union and Kim Pohlman was awarded the one from city Union.

Grady, a junior, is a member of Farm House fraternity. He is chairman of Spring Day, president of Corn Cobs, past Ag Union and treasurer and past Ag Executive Board.

Miss Pohlman is a junior majoring in mathematics. She is president of Alpha Phi, chairman of personnel committee and a member of Associated Women Students board. Susie Backstrom was revealed as the Outstanding city Union Worker and Richard Douglass was named outstanding worker for Ag. Runner-ups to Miss Backstrom were Norm Peterson, Alyce Lynn, Helen Landis and Vern Holoubek. Jerry Lindvall was the Ag runner-up.

Corresponding secretary for Alpha Chi Omega, Miss Backstrom is a junior in Teachers College majoring in elementary education. She has worked on Union's music committee three years and is recording secretary for ACE.

Douglas is a freshman majoring in vocational education in Ag College. He has been a worker on the hospitality committee and is a member of Alpha Tau Alpha Subsidiary.

The new committee chairman and assistants at Ag Union are: dance — Karen Leach, Richard Douglass; film — Rosalie Hoffman, Dave Bell; student faculty —

Phyllis Riddle, Larry Hammond; public relations — Del Rae Beermann, Sandra McDowell; publicity — Susanne Plum, Terry Granel; hospitality — Joan Skinner, Susan Hyland.

Ag Executive Board members will sponsor the committees. They are president Jay Graff, student-faculty; vice president Margrethe Plum, film and dance; secretary Pat Frazer, general entertainment and publicity; and a treasurer Ron Meinke, hospitality and public relations.

City Union chairmen and assistants are: arts and exhibits — Joannie Graves, Susan McClymont; film — Helen Landis, Dick Durfee; special events — Dale Redman, Linda Kimmel; public relations — Vicky Elliott, Susie Armstrong; forums — Harry Pierce, Vern Holoubek; contemporary music — Sue Oberly, Anita Chilen; concert music — Linda Johnson, Mike Lemon; hospitality — Bonnie Knudsen, Susie Walburn; entertainment — Judy Erikson, Jim Moore; personnel — Cathy Origer, Janie Baroske; talks and topics — Tom Schwenke, Betsy Nore.

The Chi Chimps provided entertainment to go along with the jungle theme.

New Twist: Union Starts 'Suite Beat'

There is a new twist to Student Union music: "Suite Beat." Singing groups will be a regular feature of this new programming idea. The Indian Suite offers an informal atmosphere and enlarged capacity to anyone interested in performing on Friday afternoons.

This week's program is folk singing by T. Davies and Joe Sweere from 4-5 p.m. Coffee may be purchased at the door.

KNUS Plans To Affiliate

"KNUS, the University radio station, is planning to become affiliated with the College Radio Network," announced Jim Pace, program director.

This radio network feeds programs to college radio stations exclusively. The programs will be live and will originate in New Orleans.

KNUS is directed by Dr. Howard Martin, faculty supervisor, and Gregg Hupp, general manager of the station. It has served the campus for 12 years. The programs are heard in Selleck Quadrangle, The Women's Residence Halls, Student Union and Burr Hall on Ag campus.

Broadcasts are made every night from 5:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

"The purpose of this station is to give experience to students who plan to go into radio announcing after graduation," said Jim Pace.

Wrestler Is Victim Of Cupid

A former Omaha North wrestler, Jim Herring, who was used to pins on the mats, was one of three listed as cupid's victims on this week's scant sheet.

Jo Felton, a Chi Omega sophomore in Teachers at Omaha U. to Jim Herring, a Theta Xi junior in Business from Omaha.

Micki McVay, Chi Omega junior from Gothenburg to Dave Roberts, Sig Upsilon Nu at Nebraska State Teachers, Kearney.

Annette Hall, Alpha Omicron Pi senior in Teachers College from Franklin to Don Geis, Beta Theta Pi alum from Lincoln.

IS THIS YOU?

Not much of a career is it, yet millions of women today enjoy economic independence and security thanks to life insurance. These are the women who can take those ocean cruises, set up their own dress shop, enjoy a worry-free old age, thanks to the savings feature of life insurance.

I will be happy to discuss a Connecticut Mutual Life program which will best fit your requirements and enable you to make and enjoy those "plans."
