

DON'T HURRY . . . IT'S NICE OUT

Now that the thaw has come and the flooded campus streets have subsided leaving only mud and dust, students do not seem to be in as much of a hurry to get to class these days. In fact, there seems to be a marked increase in loitering on campus by-ways and hide-a-ways.

NU Alive in Spring

By WENDY ROGERS
A College High Schooler

Spring is born, and the campus comes alive.

Furry winter caps and parkas return dejectedly to the mothballs as gay, frilly cottons mince daintily into the warm sunlight of the first spring day . . .

The sparkly-eyed coed steals a last peek into the mirror at her new spring hairdo, dashes breathlessly through the hall, then lightly glides down the stairs to her waiting beau.

The temperature is 58, the sky is clear, and a slight breeze blows from the southeast on this first day of spring.

It's a beautiful day for a convertible, and a drive through Pioneer Park.

Her heart fluttering, the romance-minded Princess pauses as Sir Galahad opens the door of the shiny new convertible.

He slips behind the wheel, pushes a button, and the bright blue sky begins to appear . . . overhead!

"OH NO! The top is jammed . . ."

Guys, Dolls Marks KK 50th Year

Group Resembles Other College Clubs

Kosmet Klub, which will present "Guys and Dolls" on March 31 as its annual spring show, is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

Kosmet Klub was started in 1911 by upperclassmen as an organization to resemble the Triangle Club of Princeton, Hare's Foot of Wisconsin and Black Friars of the University of Chicago, which presented all-male shows.

In early years the shows were taken on the road, traveling to Omaha, Grand Island, Hastings and other Nebraska communities.

In addition to presenting spring and fall shows, Kosmet Klub has, at various times in its 50 year history, originated or sponsored interfraternity sings, the Nebraska Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet presentations, and the Interfraternity Ball, all of which have become campus traditions.

The klub, which has its membership limited to 24, has alumni which range from professors to football players and corporation presidents.

In 1912 Kosmet Klub staged its first original musical, "The Diplomat" written by R. D. Scott, former University English professor and C. L. Connor.

In 1929 the first Nebraska Sweetheart, Miss Ruth Hilton, was crowned and the song "Sweet Nebraska Sweetheart" was written in her honor.

During the 1920's and 1930's the Thanksgiving morning show, as it was known then, included both fraternity and sorority skits. In 1942 Panhellenic put a ban on sorority participation.

Anniversary Antics, the 1961 fall show, helped to sum up the 50 years of Kosmet Klub. Typical of the shows of past years there was slapstick, some funpoking at administration and cutting up other houses.

Modern Dance Club Presents Program

Orchosis, University modern dance club, will present its spring program, "Let's Dance," at 8 p.m. Friday, March 30, in Howell Memorial Theater.

Student Council Urges Underclassmen to File

Freshmen and sophomores interested in serving on next year's Student Council as college representatives would be wise to file early this year, according to the Council.

Names on the ballot will be listed on a "first come, first serve" basis, determined by the time applications are filed.

The blanks may be picked up Monday morning, April 2, in the office of the Dean of Student Affairs. Deadline for filing is noon, April 7.

General eligibility requirements for candidates are:

1) Each candidate must be a "bona fide" member of the college, organization or group which he proposes to represent.

2) Regular University regulations shall govern in determining a candidate's eligibility.

3) Each candidate shall have a minimum cumulative average of 5.00. For Law College, only pre-law grades shall be considered in the computation of the cumulative average.

Each senior holdover member must have a minimum average of 5.7.

Five seniors, at least one man and one woman, shall be selected by the outgoing Student Council, at the first meeting after the spring election, from the junior members of the body to serve during their senior year.

College representation shall be determined by the Student Council on the basis of one representative for every 500 students or major portion thereof as determined by the first semester enrollment.

Each college is entitled to a minimum of one representative.

The colleges entitled to representatives are: Agriculture (at least one man and one woman), Business Administration, Dentistry, Engineering and Architecture, Law, Pharmacy, and Teachers (at least one man and one woman).

Application forms must contain the following information:

- 1) Name, address, sex.
- 2) Position sought.

3) Grade average, college, class (to be certified by registrar).

4) Social fraternity or organized house (membership, offices held).

5) Professional fraternities and societies.

6) Activities (membership offices).

7) A statement signed by the candidate.

8) Space for 25 signatures.

Each candidate must obtain signatures of 25 bona fide students within the candidate's college.

Three billfold-sized pictures of the candidate must be turned in with the application.

The organizations entitled to Women Students Board, Corn Cobs, Independent Women's Women Students Board, Corn Cobs, Independent Women's representation are: Associated Association, Interfraternity Council, Inter Co-op Council, Nebraska Union Board of Managers, Panhellenic Council, Residence Association for Men, Tassels, University Builders, University Council on Religion, and the International Student Association.

Each of these is entitled to one representative.

Members representing organizations and groups must meet the same eligibility requirements as college representatives with the exception of the 25 signatures and photographs.

Organization and group candidates are to be elected to serve during their junior year. The Nebraska Union Board of Manager's representative is to be elected to serve during either his junior or senior year.

Campus Calendar

DAVID SUSSKIND SAYS: 95% OF OUR MOVIES ARE

JUNK

Why pick on TV? asks David Susskind. The movies are just as lousy. In this week's Saturday Evening Post, the whiz kid of television lashes out at all American culture. He says Hollywood is run by "mental midgets." Popular music is "enough to chill my blood." Best-sellers are "jam-packed with sex." And then he points out the one bright spot in American life.

Dr. Koehl Proposes Berlin Solution

A University history professor, Dr. Robert Koehl, who recently did some work in Germany, expressed his views on the Berlin situation.

Dr. Koehl, concerned that the West might be standing pat on its Berlin demands, and that American might be willing to fight World War III for the divided city's freedom, suggested a four-step proposal for solving the tangle.

—That a four-power agreement be reached to guarantee West Berlin integrity. And that following such an agreement, all token troop force should be withdrawn from both East and West Berlin.

—That a peace conference be held after "suitable" revisions had cleansed the governments on both sides of the city. Both governments should be represented at this conference, and there should be some "moderate revision" of the Oder-Neisse Line and the basis for a United Nations trusteeship of Berlin.

—The next step should be normal negotiations between East and West German government, supervised by the UN Berlin authority, with the aim of reunifying Germany.

—The final step would be the formation of a German confederation, which would be admitted to the UN, upon the withdrawal of NATO and Warsaw Pact troops which had policed Berlin along with the U.N. The new Germany would belong to the European Common Market and to the East European Economic Federation, but not to NATO or the Warsaw Pact.

This final step, he explained, would be coupled with total nuclear demilitarization of Europe by 1970.

Admitting that the plan sounded like a utopia, he added, that it is "equally utopian to believe we can stand pat and our way will be achieved."

"All is not unity and anti-communist crusading spirit in West Germany today," he added, "but you might never know this from the American press."

Agriculture College Hosts State Judging Contests

The 45th annual high school state vocational agricultural judging contest will be held at Ag College April 12-13.

Included in the two-day program will be contests in poultry judging, livestock judging, crops and soils management, crops, farm management, dairy products judging, dairy cattle selection, dairy management, meats judging and identification, metals, carpentry, tractor maintenance, soil conservation, and farm machinery.

All events will be held on Ag campus, except the meats judging and identification contest, which will be held at the Hormel Packing Plant in Fremont.

M. G. McCreight, assistant professor of vocational education and director of the contests, said that winners in the dairy cattle selection and dairy products judging contest will attend the national contest at Waterloo, Ia. Students winning in meats, poultry and livestock judging will compete in the national contests at Kansas City, Mo.

Preliminary registration shows that 124 schools from all parts of Nebraska have submitted 2,280 entries in the 14 events scheduled.

The 34th annual meeting of the Nebraska Association of Future Farmers of America will be held at the same time.

How would you forecast your next few years?

Today, the young man planning his life realizes as never before that in today's world his own future is tied inevitably to America's future. How can he serve both?

Many college graduates, both men and women, are finding a rewarding answer on the Aerospace Team — as officers in the U.S. Air Force. Here is a career that is compelling in its challenge and opportunity. And it is a way of life that holds the unsurpassed satisfactions that come with service to country.

As a college student, how can you become an Air Force Officer?

If you have not completed Air Force ROTC, Officer Training School provides an opportunity to qualify for a variety of vitally needed jobs in the Aerospace Age. A graduate of this three-month course earns a commission as a second lieutenant. Also open to college men is the Navigator Training program.

For full information — including the chance to obtain graduate degrees at Air Force expense — see the Air Force Selection Team when it visits your college. Or write: Officer Career Information, Dept. SC23, Box 805, New York 1, N. Y.
