

Reds Put Down Whites, 42-0; Faiman, Powers Lead Slam

By RICK AKIN
Sports Editor

Problems at quarterback? The apparent shortage of quarterbacks which has plagued Coach Bob Devaney's two even unit program was not evident as the Reds whitewashed the Whites, 42-0, in Saturday's scrimmage at Memorial Stadium.

Dennis Claridge, John Faiman and Doug Tucker led the assault for the Reds at the quarterback spot via the aerial route mostly.

The Huskers trio connected 12 times on 23 attempts for 242 yards. Claridge also picked up 45 yards on the ground.

Claridge and Faiman led the Reds during the first half, and Claridge and Tucker led the Reds during the second half.

QB's Switch

Tucker and Faiman played for the Whites during the first and second halves, respectively.

Warren Powers, who was moved to fullback, after the loss of Bill (Thunder) Thornton, did some fine running as did Dennis Stuewe.

The Reds opened up the scoring when Claridge ran 43 yards to the White three-yard line. Rudy Johnson put the final touch on the drive with a sweep around left end.

Faiman To Callahan

Then Faiman to Callahan became a consistent happening on the new sod at the Stadium.

Faiman flipped a 58-yard scorer to end Dick Callahan just before the same combination pulled a 54-yard touchdown completion, but the play was nullified.

Faiman completed four of eight passes for one touchdown and also set up two other touchdowns with his passing.

Stuewe Scores

The third touchdown came on a two-yard plunge by Stuewe after the Reds had driven 60 yards in nine plays.

Faiman engineered the next touchdown with a 35-yard toss to Callahan before Dave Thiesen skipped into the end zone from the six-yard line.

Things evened out a little in the second half but the third time the Reds got the ball, paydirt was viewed once again.

Powers Scores

Stuewe returned a White punt 35 yards before Powers carried the ball into the end zone from the White 34.

Powers took the ball up the center and then cut to left before twisting away from the last tackler.

Powers also scored the last touchdown, this time from his left halfback position.

Stuewe Returns

Stuewe took Chuck Doepke's punt and fought his way to the Red 40-yard line. Stuewe made several nice punt returns during the scrimmage.

Soph Joe McNulty plunged to the 42 before Powers raced 29 yards to the White 29-yard line.

Then Gene Young ran the ball to the 15 from his fullback spot on two consecutive plays.

15-Yard Scamper

Powers then capped the drive with his 15-yard scamper.

The Whites had trouble getting any kind of sustained drive going as they picked up only 41 yards rushing and 62 yards through the air for 103 net yards gained.

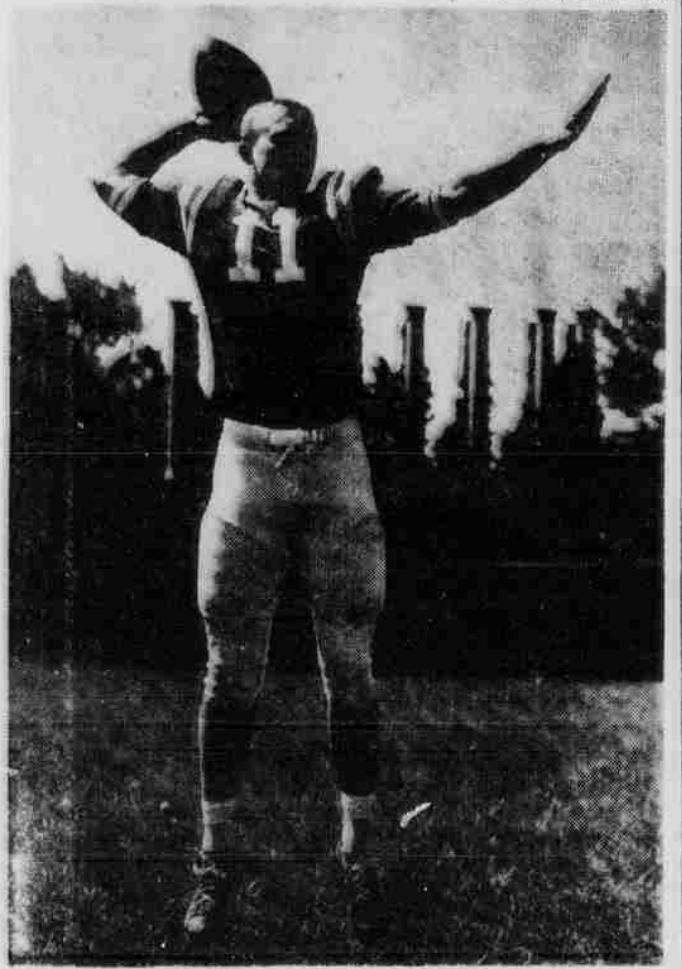

The Reds picked up 473 yards, 285 on the ground and 208 via the pass method.

Dave Thiesen pulled a muscle in the back of his leg during the fray and his condition is questionable.

Gary Toogood, who has been running on the first unit, was sent to Student Health for x-rays on his ankle, and Bob Brown got a bad kick in the kidneys on the last play of the game.

POWERS—uses legs as weapons.

FAIMAN—uses arm as weapon.

Big 8 Teams Open Seasons This Weekend

All Big Eight football teams swing into action this week, and all games are non-conference affairs.

Iowa State, after beating Drake last Saturday, will travel to Portland, Oregon, to take on Oregon State. The game should prove to be an interesting battle between I-State's All-American candidate, Dave Hoppman, and Oregon State's All-American candidate, Terry Baker.

Kansas State visits Indiana, a Big Ten team. Neither is considered a power in either conference.

Oklahoma State visits Arkansas for a night game. The Razorbacks, although wiped out by graduation, should have a potent team again this year.

Colorado visits Utah in another night game. Utah has a powerful backfield, but the line leaves something to be desired.

Kansas hosts T.C.U. in a classic duel. The Froghorns defeated the Jayhawks last year.

Bud Wilkinson's once great Oklahoma Sooners are in preparation for the first of their three game roughies—Syracuse, Notre Dame and Texas. The Sooners will host the Orangemen of Syracuse at Norman.

The Kansas State Wildcats will have their hands full when they meet Big 10 competitor, Indiana. The Wildcats pulled a surprise win last year by emerging a 14-8 victor.

Sellers Meet

All athletes who are interested in selling concessions this fall are to meet Monday, September 17, at 5:00 p.m. in the East Stadium.

Assignments for programs and backrests will be arranged at this time.

I-State Squeezes Drake S. Dakota Drops Opener

A record crowd of 22,000 witnessed Iowa State squeeze past Drake Saturday, 14-7.

A fourth quarter, fourth down effort from the three by Iowa States All-American proved the difference for the Cyclones.

Iowa State opened the scoring in the first quarter with fullback Tom Vaughn sweeping the left end from the eight, climaxing a 74-yard drive. Senior Larry Schreibera added the extra point.

Drake evened the count when fullback Jim Evangelista rammed the left side for the final two yards of a march that started on the Drake 29.

Hoppman Scores
Hoppman's plunge early in the fourth quarter ended the scoring and Drakes hoped for an inaugural victory.

In Sioux Falls, S.D. Saturday night the South Dakota Coyotes, Nebraska's foe next Saturday, built up an early lead but could not stave off the drive and determination of Colorado State.

South Dakota lead 14-0 at the end of the first quarter on touchdowns by Dick Walsh, a 49-yard run, and Ken Janvrin, a 46-yard gallop.

CSU Rallies
The Coloradans charged back with three touchdowns by Frank Dabney, a 31-yard run, John Baber, a two-yard run, and Jack Richardson's 7-yard romp.

But Janvrin of South Dakota returned an interception 72-yards for South Dakota's third touchdown of the day. At half time the Coyotes trailed the Bear's by a score of 21-20.

After a half time pep talk from coach Bob Burns South Dakota stormed back with a touchdown by Mamon Keys to go ahead 26-21.

But Colorado State was not to be denied victory as they overpowered South Dakota's defense and ran two touchdowns. The deciding scores were made by Doug Duren on a 25-yard sprint and by Tom Carlson who sneaked across from the two-yard line.

NU Bowlers Kick Off Tuesday

Qualification rounds for Nebraska's entry in the Big 8 bowling league kick off Tuesday.

Qualification rounds will run to the September 29th roll off finale.

Students interested in trying out for the Husker team should report to the Union games desk, requested coach Jim Hornby.

According to coach Hornby, as a step towards varsity recognition of bowling all loop competition will be purely amateur.

In the qualifying rounds, each bowler will get in six games a week. And the top 20 will shoot a nine-game roll off the 29th.

Pastorial Training Services Feature Mental Problems

—Rev. Moyer Accepts New Post—

The Rev. Frank Moyer has assumed responsibility as director of clinical pastoral services at the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute in Omaha.

Moyer was formerly Protestant chaplain at the University Hospital in Omaha.

Under a new program to be devised by Rev. Moyer, ordained clergy throughout the state will be offered training in dealing with mental health problems. Each month the chaplain will visit the mental health clinics in North Platte, Scottsbluff, Hastings, Lincoln and Omaha, as a consultant for pastoral counseling.

Rev. Moyer will instruct students from the Central Lutheran Seminary in Fremont as a consultant for pastoral training.

These students will spend the first semester visiting general medical-surgical patients at the University Hospital. During the second semester, they will assist with pastoral care to the mentally ill at the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute.

Chaplain Moyer was graduated from the Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary with a B. D. degree in 1956.

Cotner School of Religion Schedules Prophet Course

Dean Raleigh J. Peterson, Jr. head of the Cotner School of Religion, has announced the addition of a new course on Hebrew prophets to be offered this semester.

Marking Cotner's expansion into interfaith faculty, the course will be taught by Rabbi Wolfgang Hambruger, and financed by the Jewish Chautauqua Society. The undergraduate courses will be offered for University credit.

Rabbi Maurice Pomerantz of Congregation Tifereth Israel will again teach advanced Hebrew reading this semester.

Besides the regular Biblical and theological studies, Cotner courses this semester include "Problems in Human Existence" and "Religion and the Arts" to be taught by Prof. Keith D. Stephenson of Cotner's 9-member faculty; "Great Theologians: Thomas Aquinas" the Rev. J. R. Myers of the Catholic Student Center; "Old Testament Life and Literature." Dr. Alan J. Pickering of the United Campus Christian Fellowship; "Youth Work in the Church," The Rev. Lee Schomer, assistant pastor of the Bethany Christian Church.

Cotner School of Religion has recently purchased a dormitory to house pre-theological students. Located at 327 No. 13th, the building was formerly an annex for the Cornhusker Cooperative house and has a capacity of 11 students.
