

Cagers, Swimmers, Gymnasts' Busy

Kansas ought to be fighting mad about this time. The Jayhawks, after taking the Big Eight preseason tournament, haven't won a conference game yet, and the Huskers have the distinct pleasure of facing Kansas tomorrow night at Allen Fieldhouse in Lawrence.

Thus far Kansas has been beaten by Colorado (a team they beat in the first round of the tournament), Iowa State and underdog Missouri—feats which dropped the KU record to 7-7.

The Jayhawks have added power this year with the addition of soph George Unseld. Unseld has improved so much that he now carries an average point per game total over his high school record.

The Jayhawks also have Nolan Ellison, a fine senior guard who played in all 60 minutes of the championship game against K-State, in the backcourt.

Nebraska may have a slight psychological advantage over KU since the Huskers have tripped Kansas in its last two outings in Allen Fieldhouse.

Coach Jerry Bush will start the same crew that started against K-State with Ivan Grupe and Charlie Jones at the forwards; Bill Vincent at center; and Daryl Petsch and Earl Wright at the guards.

NU's mermen will make their home debut tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Coliseum when they take on Denver.

The Cornhuskers, looking for their first win over a Denver swimming team, will face a strong outfit, NU Assistant Coach Les Roberts said.

NU has beaten Iowa, 58-47, and lost to Indiana, 76-47, thus far this season.

Jake Geier's gymnastics team puts its unbeaten record on the line when it travels to Iowa State tomorrow.

The gymnasts have a 3-0 record with the latest victory a 90-32 win over Colorado State University.

Seniors Selected Track Captains

Seniors Mike Fleming and Fred Wilke were elected co-captains of the University track team Friday afternoon, according to Coach Frank Sevigne.

Fleming is the current holder of the Big Eight indoor 2-mile crown, the outdoor mile, and the cross country championship. The veteran runner is a native of Baltimore, Md.

Wilke, who hails from Omaha, won the conference low hurdle title last year with a 1:06.9 and placed second in the highs. He also owns a high jump mark of 6-4.

Coach Jerry Bush will start the same crew that started against K-State with Ivan Grupe and Charlie Jones at the forwards; Bill Vincent at center; and Daryl Petsch and Earl Wright at the guards.

NU's mermen will make their home debut tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Coliseum when they take on Denver.

The Cornhuskers, looking for their first win over a Denver swimming team, will face a strong outfit, NU Assistant Coach Les Roberts said.

Nebraska's football team picked up another honor yesterday when the Associated Press announced its "Comeback" honors.

The AP tabbed the Huskers ninth in the "Comeback" poll after NU rolled up an 8-2 record and capped the season with a 36-34 win over Miami in the Gotham Bowl.

Robin Roberts of baseball game won the honor.

Varsity-Frosh Tangle In Wrestling Tonight

The freshman and varsity wrestling squads will clash Friday night at the Coliseum in what should be a close affair.

The all-Nebraska dual will be the last mat action until semester finals are through. First Husker competition after the break will be the University of Colorado on February 1 at home.

The varsity goes into the match a slight favorite against the promising frosh. Varsity chances are hampered by the loss of Steve Walenz at 115. The sophomore suffered a slight shoulder separation while absorbing his first dual loss at Mankato last week end. Bill Rosenthal will replace Walenz who hopes to be ready for the Colorado match coming up.

by Dan Westcott, two-time Nebraska per champion. Westcott led the five freshmen placing in the recent AAU meet by earning second place. Three varsity wrestlers placed in the same tourney.

Other freshmen who would show well are Rick Allgood, 130; Gary Richards, 137; Dennis Kendall, 147; Lavern Allers, 191; and Jim Brown, heavyweight.

Lineups:
 115—Steve Walenz, Omaha, Varsity v. Ron Mau, Davenport, Ia.
 123—Mike Nissen, Mason City, Ia., Varsity v. Clifford Dobson, Alliance.
 130—Dick Van Sickle, Omaha, Varsity v. Rick Allgood, Lincoln.
 137—Chuck Martin, Lincoln, Varsity v. Gary Richards, Bellevue.
 147—Larry Lebriska, Scottsbluff, Varsity v. Dennis Kendall, Waterloo, Ia.
 157—Jim Wiese, Lincoln, Varsity v. Dan Westcott, Waterloo, Ia.
 167—Bruce O'Callaghan, Omaha, Varsity v. John Hallgren, Bellevue.
 177—Ken Fox, Lincoln, Varsity v. Art Raschke, Omaha.
 191—Don McDermott, Harlan, Ia., Varsity v. Lavern Allers, Davenport, Ia.
 Hwt.—Beb Zartner, Bellevue, Varsity v. Jim Brown, Omaha.
