Cipriano Defense Wins Tilt

Nebraska's basketball practice was all smiles Wednesday as Coach Joe Cipriano called the Husker's improving defensive efforts the margin of victory over Wyoming.

On offense, the Scarlet cage team was paced by newcomer Harold Cebrun, who pumped in 31 points to lead the home team to a 79 to 72 win over the Cowboys. Cebrun tied a Husker record with his long, looping field goals, meshing 14 to equal the record set by Herschell Turner in 1959 against Detroit.

"Defensive efforts in the second half won it for us," Cipriano said. "We were especially effective in the second half by dropping off on their tall men and forcing long shots," the coach added.

Cipriano, making his cage debut at Nebraska a winning one, was also pleased with some unexpected rebounding power displayed in the second half. Husker Bob Antelov paced Cipriano's boardmen during a 45 point second half effort that whipped Wyoming.

In the first half, the two teams seasawed through most of the action until Nebraska's guns cooled with 1:30 left before intermission. Scarlet forward Jerry Spears swished a long jumper for the last score. Then the visitors built a six point lead with four points from loose Randy Richardson.

A partisan Husker crowd boomed much of the half due to a number of close calls by officials.

After Antelov's basket, though, Nebraska caught fire with nine straight points. Cebrun and Charlie Jones led the assault with five and four points respectively. Robinson put the Cowboys in command again with 13:30 left, but soph Grant Simmons sank a long jumper to give Nebraska a lead it never relinquished.

Robinson sparked Wyoming after that and the Cowboys tied the Scarlet four times until they took a four point lead with nine minutes left in the contest on another Antelov lay-up set up by Simmons.

Simmons, a former Benson High athlete, combined his floor play with Cebrun's sharp shooting to ice the game for Nebraska late in the game. Robinson was the Wyoming man who could hit through this stretch and he garnered over 20 points in the half.

Nebraska's winning combination during the crucial second half period was Simmons, Cebrun, Jones, Antelov, and soph Coley Webb. Starter Jim Yates didn't play during the second half.

Cipriano aired a cautious confidence after it was all over.

"It's good to win that first one, but the Big Ten teams coming up will be real tough," he said. The Huskers travel to Michigan and Purdue this Friday and Saturday. The traveling squad will be picked by today.

Brown Gains Bids, Honors From All

Honors continue to collect for the 1963 Cornhuskers. All-American and All-Conference honors have been garnered by Husker Guard Bob Brown and Tackle Lloyd Voss.

Brown, senior member of the Big Eight Championship team, was chosen for the 74th All-American Team picked by the 567 of the American Football Coaches Association.

Brown, a 6 foot 5 inch, 269 pounder from Cleveland, Ohio, was a mainstay in the Husker race for the offensive Rushing Crown.

The coaching group, headed by Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes, bases its selections on scouting reports, on-field observations, and films of over a thousand games.

Brown, agile despite his tremendous bulk, excelled season-long against some of the country's toughest teams. He also kept the Nebraska team in national focus with his defensive play at the linebacker position.

Brown was also picked for the UPI and AP All-American teams. He and tackle Lloyd Voss were members of the All-Conference team picked by the sportswriters and the World-Herald All-Big Eight team picked by the conference coaches. Huskers Rudy Johnson and Denny Claridge were named on the second team.

Brown was also singled out by the nation's coaches as the best blocker in college football. Brown was selected as the Outstanding Lineman of the Year by the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C.

Kansas University's Gale Sayers was also chosen for the All-American team. Sayers, a junior from Omaha, was the only other Big-Eight Player on the team.

Brown, whose speed and size has kept the professionals scouts interested all year, was picked in the first round of both the American Football League and National Football League drafts.

Brown was the number one choice of the A.F.L. when the Denver Chargers chose him. He was the second man picked in the N.F.L. The Philadelphia Eagles selected Brown.

Husker Tackle Lloyd Voss was also picked in the first round of the N.F.L. The defending champions, Green Bay selected him. Voss was picked by New York in A.F.L.

Other Huskers drafted by the professionals include half-back Willie Ross, fullback Rudy Johnson and John Kirby.

Brown will appear on the Ed Sullivan Show Sunday night with the other members of the American Football Coaches All-American Team.

BROWN IN NEW YORK — Nebraska's giant guard Bob Brown poses with an East-Kodak official in New York recently. Brown will culminate his eastern visit with a television appearance Sunday night.
