DISCRIMINATION STUDY IS OK'D

Freshmen in End Zone?
Pittenger Proposes Solution

Pittenger, University of Nebraska student, is pushing for the university to make a policy that will ensure equal treatment for all students, regardless of their background. Pittenger believes that the current system of housing,athletic teams, and other activities discriminates against certain students, and he is calling for a change in policy to make the university a more welcoming place for everyone.

Independents Now Eligible

- IFC Slate Open To Every Male

By Travis Hiler, John Hall Writer

The Young Democrats' national convention this week will examine the question of independent candidates in the primary elections. The Independents will be allowed to run as candidates in the primaries, and the national convention will meet to determine the candidates for the Independents.

The Daily Neb

The Daily Neb, a newspaper published at the University of Nebraska, is investigating the possibility of independent candidates in the primary elections. The paper is calling for the Independents to be allowed to run as candidates in the primaries, and the national convention will meet to determine the candidates for the Independents.

Greek Week Events Told

For Greeks' Week plans, Dr. Glenn Miller, IFC representative, told the Nebraska Daily that "The Greeks will have their week of planning, and the IFC will be there to help with the planning."

Rites Set For Student

A special event for the week is the Greek Week celebration, which will be held on May 3rd. Other events during the week include a Greek Week dance, a Greek Week parade, and a Greek Week suspension. The week will also include a Greek Week business meeting, a Greek Week partners meeting, and a Greek Week executive meeting.

Possible Third-Night Holdover For 'Hamlet'

Petition Needs 200 Signatures

"Hamlet," the University production of the same name, is scheduled to begin its performances on April 30th. The production is expected to run for two weeks, with the final performance scheduled for May 15th.

Only six performances remain before the play is over, and the petition to extend the run is expected to be submitted to the university board of directors. The petition is expected to be heard on May 10th.

If you are interested in extending the run of "Hamlet," you can sign the petition to extend the run. The petition can be found at the University Theater, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

Robert-built Hamlet — "Hamlet," University Theatre production which has been held over three times, invites you to come out and see the play. The play is open to all, and the tickets can be purchased at the door. The play will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

The University Theatre, University of Nebraska, is planning to extend the run of "Hamlet" by two weeks, with the final performance scheduled for May 15th. The extended run will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

The University Theatre, University of Nebraska, is planning to extend the run of "Hamlet" by two weeks, with the final performance scheduled for May 15th. The extended run will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

If you are interested in extending the run of "Hamlet," you can sign the petition to extend the run. The petition can be found at the University Theater, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

NOВЯБРЬ ОТ НЕРЛ

BOLINERRY BARBLET — "Hamlet," University Theatre production which has been held over two, is being planned for the spring semester. The production will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

The University Theatre, University of Nebraska, is planning to extend the run of "Hamlet" by two weeks, with the final performance scheduled for May 15th. The extended run will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

If you are interested in extending the run of "Hamlet," you can sign the petition to extend the run. The petition can be found at the University Theater, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

The University Theatre, University of Nebraska, is planning to extend the run of "Hamlet" by two weeks, with the final performance scheduled for May 15th. The extended run will be held on April 30th, May 1st, and May 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the University Theatre, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

If you are interested in extending the run of "Hamlet," you can sign the petition to extend the run. The petition can be found at the University Theater, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.