

Ivy Day Honoraries Announced

Larsen To Head Innocents

The president of the Interfraternity Council, Gary Larsen, was revealed as the new president of Innocents Society at the University's 77th Ivy Day observance late Saturday afternoon.

Twelve other new Innocents, all University juniors, were chosen to membership on the basis of leadership, scholarship and service.

Other new officers of Innocents are: Jim Kinyoun, vice president; Gary Wahlgren, secretary; Bob Milligan, treasurer; and Larry Johnson, sergeant-at-arms.

The other new members include: Marv Almy, Curt Bromm, Roger Doerr, Bill Hansmire, Jay Lefko, Ladd Lonquist, John Rasmussen and Terry SchAAF.

Honorary Members
Two University faculty were named honorary members of Innocents Society.

They are Dr. E. F. Frolik, dean of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, and Dr. Paul Johnsgaard, associate professor of zoology and assistant curator of zoology in the University State Museum.

Both were cited for their contributions to the University and the state in their respective fields of work.

IFC President
Larsen is in the College of Arts and Sciences. A Regents' scholar, he is president of the Interfraternity Council, vice president of Corn Cobs and received the Phi Lambda Upsilon freshman chemistry award. He received the Beta Sigma Psi outstanding scholastic achievement award last year.

Kinyoun is in the College of Arts and Sciences. A Regents' scholar, he is president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, president of the Nebraska Union board, president of Builders, secretary-treasurer of the Union Program Council and a member of Corn Cobs.

Wahlgren is a junior in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The president of Corn Cobs, he is vice president and activities chairman of Farm House, treasurer of the East Union program council and was elected to Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity. A Regents' scholar, he also received Innocents Memorial, Union Pacific, and Consumers Cooperative Association scholarships.

AUF President
Milligan is in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. He is president of Alpha Tau Omega and the All-University Fund. He also serves as treasurer of Corn Cobs and was elected to Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity, and served as state teens advisor for the Nebraska March of Dimes.

Johnson is in the College of Arts and Sciences. He is president of Beta Theta Pi and Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary. He is secretary of Corn Cobs, a Union area director, a former executive committee head in ASUN, member of the president's council of the Interfraternity Council and received the Beta Theta Pi outstanding sophomore award.

Almy is in the College of Arts and Sciences. The president of the Interfraternity Coordinating Committee, he also served as president of the Residence Association for Men.

Union Vice President
Bromm is in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. He is chancellor of Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture fraternity, vice president of the Nebraska Union Board, vice president of the East Union program council and a member of Farm House. He has received the Norfolk Feed Mills, States, and Aksar-Ben scholarships.

Doerr is in the College of Business Administration. He has been elected vice president of the student government for the coming year and is a member of the business administration advisory board. A Regents' scholar, he received the William Gold scholarship key and numerous awards in debate.

Hansmire is in the College of Engineering and Architecture. The president of the Big Eight Student Government Association, he also is secretary of Kosmet Klub, vice president of Sigma Phi Epsilon and is a member of the engineering executive board. A Regents' scholar, he is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and has been a student senator.

IFC Treasurer
Lefko is in the College of Business Administration. The president of Sigma Alpha Mu, he is treasurer of the Interfraternity Council and chairman of public relations for the student government. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma honorary and received a William Gold Key.

Lonquist is in the College of Arts and Sciences. The vice president of Beta Theta Pi, he is president of Red Cross and chairman of the student government's faculty evaluation committee. A member of Corn Cobs, he served as spring day chairman.

Rasmussen is in the College of Arts and Sciences. He is president of Kosmet Klub and Phi Kappa Psi. He has served on the Daily Nebraskan as circulation manager and assistant business manager.

SchAAF is in the College of Business Administration. He recently was elected president of the student body and was president of the Nebraska Union program council. He received the outstanding freshman debate award and has served as a member of the executive committee of the Student Senate. He also has served as chairman of the Student Senate public issues committee and as a member of the Faculty Senate sub-committees on student affairs and convocations. A member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, he also served on the business administration advisory board and the publications board.

High Goals
"Buzz sets his goals high and works towards attaining them," the letter continued.

Serve And Improve
His "activities point up his desire to take responsibility not for personal honor and recognition, but in an effort to serve and improve," the letter noted.

The activities Madsen has participated in include serving as vice president of the Innocents Society, president and secretary of IFC, Kosmet Klub and Builders.

The letter continues, "Buzz made the IFC what it is today: an effective legislating and controlling body for the University fraternity population. As president of IFC, he prepared several programs in an effort to improve the council."

Programs Cited
Programs cited included establishing the first IFC conference, steps towards eliminating the discriminatory clauses from house charters, the establishment of by-laws on drinking and the initiation of fraternity discussions regarding the problem and the planning and preparation for a University fraternity-sorority complex.

The letter added that Madsen was a delegate to the Big Eight, Western Regional and national IFC conferences, was assistant business manager of the Daily Nebraskan and played freshman football.

"He has acquired the respect and friendship of all

Cont. on Pg. 5, Col. 1

Mortar Board Taps 15

Carolyn Freeman was tapped as the new president of the Black Masque Chapter of Mortar Boards Saturday.

Fourteen other coeds were masked as members of the senior women's honorary activity society. Selection is made on the basis of leadership, scholarship and service to the University.

The other officers are: Pam Hedgecock, vice president; Jan Kaufman, secretary; Barbara Beckmann, treasurer; and Linda Mahoney, historian.

The other new members include: Erma Winterer, Peg Prien Wagner, Jeanne Fauss, Candy Sasso, Diana Focht, Marian Sicklebower, Bev Armstrong, Carol Bischoff, Jan Connell and Mary Ann Deems.

Honorary Member

In addition, Dr. Virginia Trotter, director of the School of Home Economics and associate dean of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, was named an honorary member of Mortar Board.

The new members, all juniors, and their college activities are:

Miss Freeman is enrolled in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. She is president of the Nebraska Union and Kappa Kappa Gamma and was a finalist for Ideal Nebraska Coed. Carolyn was a 1964 Ivy Day page, Union chairman and area director, All-University Fund chairman, activities queen, a student government chairman and member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Upsilon Omicron.

AWS President
Miss Hedgecock is a student in Teachers College, president of her sorority Delta Gamma, and the Associated Women Students. A member of the Teachers College Dean's Advisory Board, she was an Ideal Nebraska Coed Finalist and chairman of the electoral commission of the student government.

Miss Kaufman, enrolled in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, is president of Burr Hall and chairman of Home Economics Hospitality Days. She is a student in the Home Economics honors program and chairman of the Home Economics Education Association.

Miss Beckmann is vice president of the Associated Women Students, a career scholar and area director of the Nebraska Union. She served as Red Cross chairman and was a member of the student government cabinet.

GAX President

Miss Mahoney is vice president of her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, and vice president of the All-University Fund. A student in the College of Arts and Sciences, she is president of Gamma Alpha Chi, professional advertising sorority.

Miss Winterer is a member of the Career Scholar program in the Teachers College. The president of her sorority, Kappa Delta, she is also president of Panhellenic and was selected as the Ideal Nebraska Coed.

Mrs. Wagner is enrolled in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. She is the chairman of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, served as chairman of Builders and was a member of the Associated Women Students board and the 1965 Ivy Day Court.

AUF Vice President
Miss Fauss is secretary of her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta, and is vice president of All-University Fund; a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association honorary and was a finalist for Ideal Nebraska Coed.

Miss Sasso is treasurer of Builders, a member of the Associated Women Students board and a finalist for Ideal Nebraska Coed. She was a member of the 1965 Ivy Day Court and was a Homecoming Queen finalist. She is a student in Teachers College.

Miss Focht is the head pom pom girl, secretary of Builders and a member of Pi Beta Phi. She was a Homecoming Queen finalist and is a student in Teachers College.

Angel Flight Commander
Miss Sicklebower is in Teachers College. The national chairman of Delta Omicron honorary, she is commander of Angel Flight and activities chairman of Kappa Delta. She is also a member of the publications board and has served as section editor and managing editor of the Cornhusker yearbook.

Miss Armstrong is in Teachers College. The president of Delta Delta Delta sorority, she is treasurer of the pledge trainer for Angel Flight. She was elected to Alpha Lambda Delta honorary and the Tassels Junior Board.

Miss Bischoff is in Teachers College. A Career Scholar, she is secretary of Alpha Xi Delta

3 NU Professors Present Papers

Several University staff members joined more than 4,000 microbiologists in Los Angeles this last week for the 66th annual meeting of the American Society for Microbiologists.

University staff members presenting papers in the scientific session are Dr. T. L. Thompson, professor of microbiology; Dr. Walter E. Miltzer, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences; and Dr. Carl E. Georgi, Murray Longworth Professor of microbiology and chairman of the department.

Two graduate students are attending the meeting with their professors, George Card and Donovan Johnson.

sorority, vice president of Tassels, executive chairman for the student government and a member of Sigma Alpha Eta, speech therapy honorary.

Council President

Miss Connell is enrolled in Teachers College. The president of Chi Omega, she is president of the Council for Exceptional Children and vice president of Red Cross. She also has served as chairman for the All-University Fund.

Miss Deems is enrolled in Teachers College. The vice president of Alpha Phi, she has been named editor of the Cornhusker yearbook for next year. She is treasurer of YWCA and spring day secretary. Miss Deems has served as section editor and managing editor of the Cornhusker yearbook.

Miss Armstrong Miss Beckmann

Miss Bischoff Miss Connell

Miss Deems Miss Fauss

Miss Focht Miss Freeman

Miss Hedgecock Miss Kaufman

Miss Mahoney Miss Sasso

Miss Sicklebower Mrs. Wagner

Miss Winterer

Madsen, Daub, Wolfe, Levine Latest 'Outstanding' Nominees

Two University students and two professors have been nominated for Outstanding Nebraskan.

Everett "Buzz" Madsen and Hal Daub have been nominated for the Outstanding student and Dr. Peter Wolfe, assistant professor of English, and Dr. David Levine, professor of psychology, have been nominated for Outstanding professor.

Monday noon is the deadline for submitting nominations for Outstanding Nebraskan to the Daily Nebraskan

Office, room 51 Nebraska Union.

The letter nominating Madsen stated that he "has worked hard for his honors; so hard in fact that he is sometimes jokingly called a 'machine' by his friends." His secret to success has involved a conscientious effort on his part to make something of himself in all aspects of college and personal living.

"Buzz sets his goals high and works towards attaining them," the letter continued.

THE TROPHY... for the men's Ivy Day Sing was accepted by Bob Samuelson, the song leader for Beta Theta Pi.

UPI Official To Speak At Journalism Banquet

H. Roger Tatarian, vice president and editor of United Press International in New York City, will be the featured speaker at the University's School of Journalism Awards Banquet Saturday.

More than 100 students will be honored for academic and professional achievements at the banquet, which will be held in the Nebraska Union ballroom, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Tatarian joined the UPI in 1938, a month after graduating from Fresno State College. After managing positions in several bureau offices throughout the United States, he was transferred to Europe in 1949. He became general European news manager in 1953.

During his 10 years abroad, Tatarian organized or managed coverage of such events as the lifting of the Berlin Blockade, the Hungarian revolt and the Suez crisis. He was also at the scene of every major diplomatic conference, either reporting or supervising UPI coverage.

Dr. William E. Hall, director of the University School of Journalism, will be honored at the banquet.

Students, faculty members and Nebraska journalists will honor Hall for his contributions to the growth of the School of Journalism during the past 10 years. He will become head of the Ohio State University School of Journalism on July 1.

During Dr. Hall's tenure at the University, enrollment has tripled in the School of Journalism, and it is now the largest undergraduate journalism program in the nation. Following the program, music will be provided by Nate Branch and his band.

Banquet tickets may be obtained from the School of Journalism.