

Burt, Perlman Win Moot Court Contest

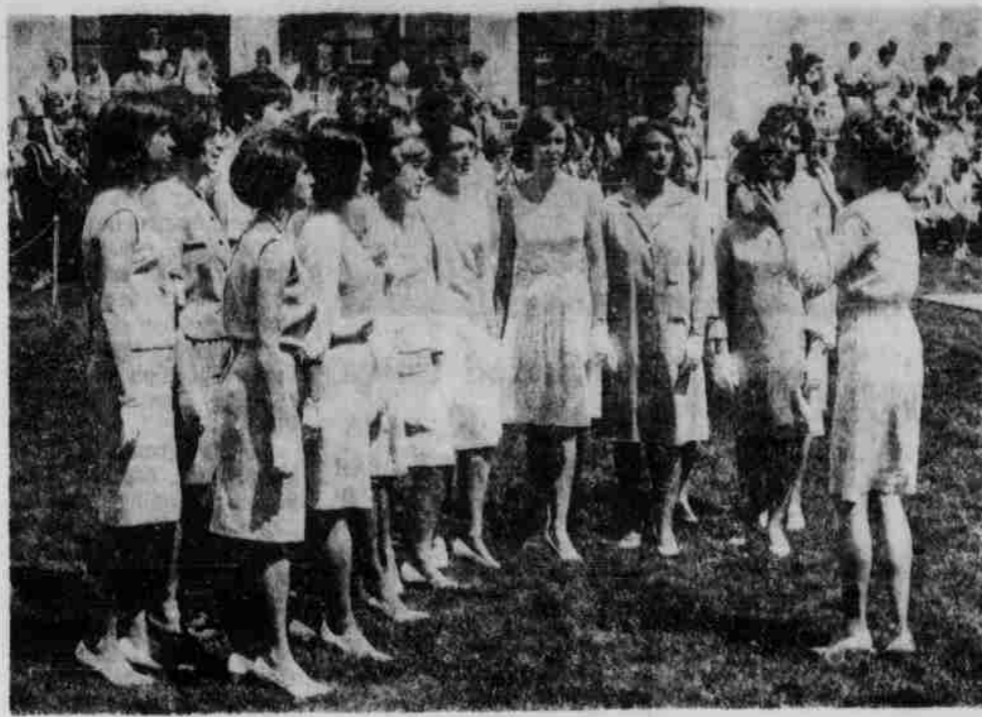

Two University students, Donald F. Burt and Harvey S. Perlman, were named winners of the 1966 Allen Moot Court competition at the University College of Law Friday.

The pair, as a team, won the final round of arguments before members of the Nebraska State Supreme Court and received gold commemorative medals at the College's annual awards banquet. Their names will be inscribed on a plaque in the College.

In addition to the Allen awards, Burt and Perlman were honored for submitting the best senior brief. In addition, Burt was named winner of the Dean Roscoe Pound Memorial Award for his oral arguments.

Runners up in the 1966 Allen competition are Donald H. Bowman and E. John Stanley.

Members of the Allen Moot Court Board for the coming year are Rodney P. Cathcart, chairman; Gary G. Thompson, secretary; and the following members: Joseph T. Couillard, John W. DeCamp, Howard Friedman, Larry D. Hall, Ronald A. Kastanek, Stephen Stastny, and William D. Sutter.

MUSIC . . . for the Ivy Day festivities was provided by men's and woman's living units trying for the annual Ivy Day Sing trophy. Shown here are members of Zeta Tau Alpha, who won third place in the Sing.

Four Nominated

Cont. from Pg. 1, Col. 5

those who have become associated with him," the letter concludes.

Daub Nominated
Daub, his letter of nomination states, is a senior in the College of Law. "Where he has contributed greatly to the development of the college and the University."

The letter continues that he served as University president, regional governor and national vice president of the American Law Students Association and as president of his legal fraternity.

Daub, the letter noted, is currently working on a program "which will establish a placement service for law graduates. A program which has been needed for many years."

University Influenced
"The University has also been influenced by the leadership of Hal Daub," the letter continues.

He has served as a member of the ASUN constitutional convention, the law adviser to the Student Tribunal for three years and a founder and influence in Vox Populi.

Daub, the letter concludes, has shown "clear and decisive leadership and obvious contribution to the University."

Wolfe Nominated
The letter nominating Wolfe cites, "English 265, the course he has been teaching, as one of the most popular and one of the best on campus."

Wolfe, the letter continued, "has the rare teaching ability to organize his material, to present it succinctly and in depth and, finally, to encourage his students."

"Although he researches all of the books he teaches with great thoroughness," the letter adds, "is attitude towards student's questions is always warm and lively. Both in and after class, he expresses a great willingness to discuss ideas and literary techniques with his students."

On Second Book
The letter continued that Wolfe has written reviews for the "Prairie Schooner, has published articles in journals and is working on his second book on contemporary fiction."

"Wolfe's youthful energy, his academic seal and his interest in advising student groups on campus" were also cited in the letter.

Outstanding Psychologist
"Levine is an outstanding psychologist, teacher and member of the University community," one letter of nomination states.

He serves as an advisory editor of the Journal of Consulting Psychology, editor of the Nebraska Symposium on Motivation and chairman of the Region V Mental Health Planning Committee.

The letter adds that Levine has also contributed numerous articles to professional journals and has "been instrumental in organizing various community mental health programs."

Clinic Supervisor
At the University, the letter continues, Levine has been supervisor of the psychological clinic and director of the clinical training program.

The letter notes that as director of the program, he "has been an enthusiastic and stimulating teacher and administrator. He is someone who always has time to be interested in the problems and aspirations of both undergraduate and graduate students."

Levine's activities on campus, the letter adds, includes contributing "to various student activities, clubs and panel discussion."

"Furthermore," the letter concludes, "Levine has been named a member of the board of directors of the Nebraska Civil Liberties Union".

Dowling, Cosier Are Top Senior Scholars

Vicky Ann Dowling and John H. Cosier were honored as the top scholars in the senior class at the University's Ivy Day ceremonies Saturday.

Miss Dowling was cited as the senior with the top women's average with a 4.13.

Cosier was cited as the senior with the high men's average a 4.157.

The Mortar Board Scholarship-Activities Trophy was presented to Chi Omega sorority. Gamma Phi Beta was second, Delta Gamma, third; Kappa Alpha Theta, fourth; and Kappa Kappa Gamma, fifth.

The Innocents Scholarship-Activities trophy was won by Beta Theta Pi with Farm House, second. Theta Xi placed third followed by Alpha Gamma Rho, fourth; Sigma Phi Epsilon, fifth; Beta Sigma Psi, sixth; Kappa Sigma, seventh; Phi Kappa Psi, eighth; and Triangle, ninth.

Winner of the American Association of University Women's award, presented to the senior woman on the basis of scholarship and professional interest was Vicki Dowling. A senior in the College of Arts and Sciences majoring in English, she is a member of the Nebraska Career Scholars program and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She also has won a Woodrow Wilson fellowship.

The C. B. Schultz Community Service Award, presented in honor of Dr. C. B. Schultz, curator of the University Museum, to the fraternity which has contributed most to community service during the year, went to Alpha Tau Omega.

The University of Nebraska

Alumni Association's new awards. They are Roger Luehrs and Craig Allen Dreezen.

The Madeline Girard Philanthropic Award went to Alpha Phi sorority for efforts in behalf of local and national charities.

Two freshmen were awarded the Innocents Memorial Schol-

Beta Sigs Honor Miss Betzinger

At the annual Beta Sigma Psi Gold Rose Formal, Kathy Bentzinger was chosen the 1966 Beta Sigma Psi sweetheart.

Miss Bentzinger is a junior in teachers college from Lincoln. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

"AND JUST WHAT BOOKSTORE GAVE YOU THE SUPPLY LIST FOR THIS COURSE?"

Service To Colombia Purpose Of Meeting

Plans for implementing the recently signed contract to render technical service and assistance in agricultural development in Colombia, South America, will be discussed in Lincoln on Thursday and Friday.

The meeting will bring together high government and education officials from Colombia and representatives of the University and other cooperating midwestern universities.

The contract between the University and the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) was recently signed in Bogota, Colombia.

Participating from South American is the conference at the Nebraska Center will be Dr. Jose Mejia Salazar, minister of agriculture and president of the board of directors of the Institute of Colombian Agriculture (ICA); Dr. Fernando Penaranda, director-general of ICA; Dr. Alvaro Gartner, director of education at ICA; Dr. Rafael Samper, board of directors member, ICA; Dr. Miguel Hernandez, Dean of Medellin University; Dr. U. J. Grant, local director of the Rockefeller Foundation at Bogota; Andres Restrepo, member of the board of trustees of the National University; and Enrique Vargas of Bogota.

Representatives of Kansas State University, Colorado State University, Iowa State University and the University of Missouri—all members of the cooperating Mid-America State Universities Association—will participate in the conference.

Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin will preside over the conference which opens with Governor Frank Morrison hosting the guests for breakfast Thursday morning. After informal discussions Thursday, the South American visitors will tour the meat laboratory and the department of ag information on the east campus Friday morning and then travel to Concord to inspect the Northeast Nebraska Experiment Station Friday afternoon.

Ten Honored As Chain Leaders
Ten University coeds were honored Saturday as leaders of the Ivy and Daisy chains at the institution's 77th observance of Ivy Day.

Leaders of the Ivy Chain, composed of senior women, were: Judy Tanner, Margie Lehl, Sandra Heybrock, Mary Kay Rakow, Barbara Trites and Sarah Shaw.

The Daisy Chain leaders, composed of underclasswomen, were: Betsy White, Natalie Hahn, Joanne Stohlman and Barbara Pfisterer.

Under the contract, financed by AID, work will be done with the Colombian Agricultural Institute and at the National University Schools of Agriculture and Veterinary Medicine at Bogota, Medellin and Palmira. Recruiting of staff for the operation is expected to start soon.

Dr. William Colwell, chief of mission in Bogota, is to direct the project and will report to Vice Chancellor Adam Breckenridge, who on July 1 will assume responsibility for all international programs at the University.

Madrigal, Ensemble In Concert

The University Madrigal Singers and Brass Ensemble will present a public concert at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Nebraska Union ballroom.

The Madrigal Singers, a select group of talented freshmen singers, are under the direction of John Moran, associate professor of music education. The Brass Ensemble is directed by Jack Snider, professor of brass instruments.

The program: "Passacaglia and Fugue" by Presser; "Theme and Variations" by Reynolds; "Jubilata Deo" by Gabrieli; "Sing We and Chant It," by Morley; three works by Monteverdi: "O What Consuming Torments," "O Mirtillo," and "Cruel Amaryllis;" "My Bonny Lass," by Morley; "Flora Gave Me Fairest Flowers" by Wilbye; "Grace My Lovely One, Fair Beauties," and "Lady, Your Eye My Love Enforced" by Weelkes; "Radiant Stars, Above the Mountains Glowing" by Cui; and "A Little White Hen" by Scardello.

His Ballads and Blues have set the Music World on its Jaded ear!

THE ROGER MILLER SHOW
AMERICA'S NUMBER ONE RECORDING STAR

Wednesday, May 11th, 7:00 PM
PERSHING AUDITORIUM
All seats reserved $3.50 $2.00 $1.50

Tickets available at: Miller & Paine, Gold's, International Super Stores and Box Office. Mail orders accepted at Auditorium Box Office. Jim Dier Enterprises

TAME IT'S NOT

This is Jaguar for Men. After-shave and cologne combined. Lusty. Powerful. Potent. Comes on stronger. Stays on longer. After-shave/cologne, $4.50. Soap on a rope, $2.50.

HIGH POWERED OFFER!

Action-packed racing car scenes! By today's most popular racing artist, Walter Gotschke! Four of them! Handsome 11 x 13 full-color lithographed prints! Each suitable for framing! Each a collector's item. A $5.00 value, only $1! Send Jaguar boxtop attached to a slip of paper with your name and address (clearly printed) and $1 check, or money order (no cash, please), to: Jaguar-Yardley, Box 1009N, Radio City Station, New York, New York. Offer expires September 30, 1966. Offer void in states or localities where prohibited, taxed, licensed, or otherwise restricted by law.

JAGUAR FROM YARDLEY

the longer your hair the more you need ShortCut...

Why? Because long hair needs more body... more manageability... more control... And ShortCut... gives you the most. Try it... and watch everything swing into line... ShortCut Hair Groom by Old Spice... tube or jar, 1/4oz. only 50¢.

This Arrow sport shirt meets all your standards. Except one.

- (1) 100% cotton.
- (2) Softly flared button-down collar.
- (3) 11" sleeve.
- (4) Back collar button.
- (5) Box pleat.
- (6) Shoulder to waist taper.
- (7) "Sanforized".
- (8) $4.00. That's the exception. Less than the standard price for a shirt with all these standards.

Bold New Breed by -ARROW-

Bold New Breed by ARROW available at Miller & Paine
Downtown and Gateway