

98 Student Assistants Chosen For Next Year

A total of 98 student assistants have been appointed for University residence halls in 1966-67.

According to M. Edward Bryan, University housing director, student assistants are chosen on a 20-point system.

"We have from five to seven applications for every position open," he said. "Candidates are evaluated by other students other student assistants, and their residence hall director. The final choice is made by the committee of residence hall directors."

"Candidates accumulate points after each evaluation has been made," Bryan said.

Band Gives 5 Members Gold Keys

Five members of the University band were awarded gold keys at the annual Spring Band Banquet Wednesday evening.

The keys are awarded to band members who have made outstanding contributions to the organization during the past year.

Receiving keys were Kathy James Ochsner, William Sprague and Keith Wiegert.

The 1966-67 band officers were announced at the banquet. William Sprague is the new president and Lynn Moller will serve as vice president.

Other band officers include Steve Lawrence, secretary-treasurer; Warren Craddock, properties manager; Keo Borson, ladies sponsor.

New officers of Gamma Lambda, national band fraternity, were also presented. The purpose of Gamma Lambda is to foster spirit among band members, promote activities, and assist with band leadership. Activities include preparation of football half-time shows and supervising high school students during Band Day.

Gamma Lambda officers are Charles Hoffman, president; Jim Ochsner, vice president; Allan Harms, secretary; Steve Beall, treasurer.

Fall Activity Plans Made

Plans have already been made for activities next September.

Heading the list of early-fall events is the Interfraternity Council's annual rush week which begins on Saturday, Sept. 3 and ends on the following Wednesday, Sept. 7.

On the same day, Sept. 7, the residence halls will be opened for occupancy. The next night, Thursday, an IDCC new student street dance will be held at 8 p.m.

On Monday, Sept. 12, first semester classes will begin. Also on that date, AWS is sponsoring a style show in the evening.

On Friday, Sept. 16, the East Union is sponsoring its Fall dance. The next day, the university's football team goes against its first opponent, Texas Christian University, at Memorial Stadium.

On Sunday, Sept. 18, YWCA will hold its cabinet retreat. The following Wednesday, Sept. 21, AWS will hold its Lincoln Seminar. In addition, ACE will sponsor a tea and the YWCA will hold an open house.

The next day, Sept. 22, the Agronomy Club will sponsor a smoker. On Friday, Abel Hall will sponsor an all-University street dance.

Saturday, Sept. 24, the football team will play its second home game, this time against Utah State.

On the following Tuesday, a smoker will be sponsored by the Pershing Rifles. On Friday, Sept. 30, the Unicorns will hold a get acquainted party and the YWCA and YMCA will hold a freshman weekend.

The next day, Oct. 1, the Cornhuskers will travel to Ames, Iowa, where they will meet Iowa State in the third football game of the season.
