

Physician Honored

A College of Medicine physician Wednesday was named one of 15 recipients in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico of the Lederle Medical Faculty Awards.

He is Dr. Albert A. Carr, 32, assistant professor of internal medicine.

The award carries a $17,172 stipend to be used to support Dr. Carr's salary, his teaching and research and his attendance at scientific meetings.

The Lederle awards are made to individuals who have demonstrated capacities both as medical teachers and as investigators. The purpose, according to Lederle, is to accelerate the recipient's progress as a responsible member of the faculty and to encourage him to remain in his particular field.

Dr. Carr, whose special interests have been in cardiology and endocrinology, joined the College of Medicine faculty in 1965.

NU Dairy Club Members Return

Eight members of the University varsity dairy club returned today from a four-day educational tour of dairy production-research facilities and other points of interest in Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota.

Students participating in the tour are Ken Volker, Larry Suratt, Stan Wallen, Kent Jensen, Les DeBoer, Steve Wehrlein, Dick Druke, and Glenn Roe.

University dairy science staff members, accompanying the group on the tour are Dr. L. K. Crowe and dairy herdsman Lee Volker.

Theatre Concludes Season

The University Laboratory Theatre concludes its season this Sunday, Monday, and next Friday and Saturday with four plays.

Sunday and Monday, Moliere's one-act comedy, "Sganarelle", and "The Bespoke Overcoat" will be presented at 8 p.m. in 201 Temple Building and the Arena Theater.

"The Bespoke Overcoat" is a Jewish play about love. Appearing in the play are John Jessup, John Holms, Martin Lobel and Harry Friedman. The Moliere play features Jerry Mayer, Bruce Borin, Susan Nohr and Ric Marsh.

Friday and Saturday the Laboratory Theatre will present Chekhov's comedy, "The Marriage Proposal", and McLeish's "The Music Crept by Me On the Water."

No admission is charged for the laboratory theater plays.

Presenting The Drinking Song for Sprite: "ROAR, SOFT-DRINK, ROAR!"

(To the tune of "Barbara Fritchie")

Traditionally, a lusty, rousing fight song is de rigueur for every worthy cause and institution. But we wrote a song for Sprite anyway. We'd like you to sing it while drinking Sprite, though this may cause some choking and coughing. So what? It's all in good, clean fun. And speaking of good, clean things, what about the taste of Sprite? It's good. It's clean. However, good clean things may not exactly be your idea of jollies. In that case, remember that Sprite is also very refreshing. "Tart and tingling," in fact. And very collegiate. And maybe we'd better quit while we're ahead. So here it is. The Drinking Song For Sprite. And if you can get a group together to sing it—we'd be very surprised.

Roar, soft drink, roar!
You're the loudest soft drink we ever saw!
So tart and tingling, they couldn't keep you quiet;
The perfect drink, guy,
To sit and think by,
Or to bring instant refreshment
To any campus riot! Ooooooh—
Roar, soft drink, roar!
Flip your cap, hiss and bubble,
Fizz and gush!
Oh we can't think
Of any drink
That we would rather sit with!
Or (if we feel like loitering)
to hang out in the strit with!
Or sleep through English lit' with!
Roar! Soft drink! Roar!
Veohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh, SPRITE!

DOWN WITH QUIET SOFT DRINKS

SPRITE... SO TART AND TINGLING, WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.
