

Officials Recover Now 'At End Of Rope' Payrolls

Sixty-five of 109 September payroll warrants mistakenly issued to persons no longer on the University of Nebraska staff have been returned or otherwise financially covered. Vice-Chancellor Joseph Sosnik reported.

University officials expect ultimate recovery of the remaining 44 paychecks.

Slightly more than $50,000 was originally involved. This amount has been reduced to about $22,000.

Sosnik said that there was either a mechanical or clerical error in listing changes in the preceding month's payroll.

University authorities have been working with the Department of Administrative Services and the agency's accounting firm to prevent future errors.

September is traditionally a transitional month for the University as recently departed faculty are removed from the payroll and new members added.

Sosnik said the University's first concern was getting the erroneously-issued warrants back. He was not certain of exactly how much money was involved.

'Take Five' Features Top Talent

The top six entertainment groups chosen from the Union Talent Mart competition have been announced by Jennifer Marshall, Union music committee chairman.

The groups will appear at "Take Five," a weekly program in the lounge of the Student Union, beginning Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The groups selected are:

-The three Day Ryders folk group with guitars and bass. Paul Gorder, Ken Gunlicks, and Wayne Stoehr;

-The Salvage Company Folk Music and Folk Rock, folk group with guitars and banjo, with Robert Barney, J. D. Ayres and Steve Davis;

-Becky McSpadden, vocal soloist, folk singing with guitar, and jazz with piano accompaniment;

-Steven Max Shanahan, vocal soloist, mood music with piano accompaniment;

-The Gang Green Combo, with Mark Dankert, Ron Heinicke, Tim Klammer, Frank Jarow and Ron Pfeifer;

-Diana and Susan Black, folk singing, with two guitars.

An explanation of the problems faced by the All University Convocations Committee was made at Wednesday's Student Senate meeting by Senator Ron Pfeifer, chairman of the ASUN Student Welfare committee.

He explained that the budget for the committee is $4,000 per year. "Two thousand of the dollars is spent on obtaining authoritative speakers to speak on specific subjects as requested by the various departments within the University," Pfeifer said.

"The other half of the budget is designed to attract national speakers to speak before all University convocations. Because of the expense of obtaining top speakers, these convocations are limited to one per semester," he continued.

Pfeifer stated that the committee had contacted people such as Mayor John Lindsey, Robert McNamara, J. Edgar Hoover, etc. These individuals decline to come to the University to speak.

"Our problem is that these men have to be attracted to come to the University and speak. The convocations committee has reached the end of their rope, they've done as much as possible. Now it is up to us to look for more money to sponsor such speakers and new ways to attract them," he concluded.

Larry Grossman, chairman of Union Talks and Topics, was recognized by the Senate. He stated that in the past convocation speakers have usually come from the political realm.

"In the future I would like to see people of major importance brought to the University, even though are not of the top echelon. I am presently corresponding with Stokely Carmichael, head of SNCC. This is the type of speaker I would like to see come here," Grossman declared.

Regarding another subject, Pfeifer stated that it has been decided not to take any action concerning banners during the half-times of football games. He urged all senators to watch and judge for themselves the problem and that a decision will be made later whether or not to ban them.

Terry Schaafl, president of ASUN, presented his ideas on a Faculty-Student-Administration Court. This would be the final appellate body for questions resulting from AWS Court, Student Tribunal, Student Court, Parking Appeals, and Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Student Organizations decisions.

"The court would therefore coordinate and consolidate all these appeals into one channel. Presently I am conducting a study on the number of appeals handled by each area to determine whether or not this proposed court would be overburdened," Schaafl explained.

Depending on the conclusion and outcome of his study, Schaafl will present a government bill to the Senate concerning the court.

Senator Liz Aitken made a motion that the Senate set up a Rules committee to decide the questions of exceptions to Robert's Rules of Order which may appear at Senate meetings. The Senate approved the committee by a unanimous vote.

The Senate also approved to Faculty Senate Committees: Bruce Jensen and Charlie Baxter, Calendar and Examinations; Judi

Brecka, Commencement; Dave Cummings and Rob Stickney, Scholarship and Financial Aids.

Robert Glantz and Diane Loennig on Honors Convocations; Dick Schulze and Ron Psota to Subcommittee on Student Social Affairs and Activities; and Jim Shreck and Jim Iverson to the Subcommittee on Student Organizations.

Senator Susie Phelps proposed that the Senate go on record in support of a debate between Governor Frank Morrison and Senator Carl Curtis. The debate is scheduled for Oct. 24, depending on the availability of these candidates. The Senate approved the resolution.

Pfeifer Serves City On Park Committee

Lincoln youth may now have a voice in city government with the recent appointment of University student Ron Pfeifer to the City Parks and Recreation Board.

A move was started this summer by the young people of Lincoln for a part in city government according to Pfeifer.

"The real credit should go to Mayor Dean Petersen however," said Pfeifer. "He has wanted youth in city government for some time."

When applications for the position were opened, Pfeifer applied and was accepted. Another youth Terry Majurek of Lincoln High School was also selected for the board. The youth members of the board must be under 21 years of age.

"We hope that this will be the first step in the selection of other young people to serve on various city boards," commented Pfeifer.

The Parks and Recreation Board, which meets once very two to three weeks, surveys the recreational opportunities that are available in the Lincoln Board.

Pfeifer, who is representing all Lincoln youth, will work with the board in surveying areas of the city that need recreational facilities.

He will also aid the board in evaluating such things as the summer softball program and possibly the Nine-High and Keen Time dances.

The city board also serves as an overall directive for park systems, and evaluates the need for additions to these parks.

Pfeifer will serve a one year term, and then will be replaced by another Lincoln youth.

"I feel that youth in city government is an excellent idea," concluded Pfeifer. "This way the voice of youth won't go unheard."

Please don't zlupf Sprite. It makes plenty of noise all by itself.

Sprite, you recall, is the soft drink that's so tart and tingling, we just couldn't keep it quiet.

Flip its lid and it really flips. Bubbling, fizzing, gurgling, hissing and carrying on all over the place.

An almost excessively lively drink. Hence, to zlupf is to err.

What is zlupping?

Zlupping is to drinking what smacking one's lips is to eating.

It's the staccato buzz you make when draining the last few deliciously tangy drops of Sprite from the bottle with a straw.

Zzzzzllupf!

It's completely uncalled for. Frowned upon in polite society. And not appreciated on campus either.

But, if zlupping Sprite is absolutely essential to your enjoyment; if a good healthy zlupf is your idea of heaven, well...all right.

But have a heart. With a drink as noisy as Sprite, a little zlupf goes a long, long way.

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING, WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.
