

UNL Year in Sports

By JEFF BROWNE

Pages of pictures and words would be required to describe the successes and failures of UNL athletes this year. But the following photos and quotations serve as examples of the dedication and spirit of every Husker athlete.

*Clockwise, from upper right:
Of expectation fails and most oft there
Where most it promises, and oft it hits
Where hope is coldest and despair most fits.*

William Shakespeare

Second-string I-back Jeff Smith frantically looks for running room in Nebraska's 31-30 Orange Bowl loss.

No bird soars too high if he soars with his own wings.

William Blake

UNL's football team cruised past seven Big Eight opponents to claim its third straight conference title.

On the day of victory, no one is tired.

Arab proverb

Gary Peppin coached his women's track team to its third consecutive NCAA indoor title.

The heart grows weary after a little of what it loves for a little while.

Edna St. Vincent Millay

After last year's NIT success, Nebraska basketball fans became restless during Nebraska's 18-12 season.

Physical strength can never permanently withstand the impact of spiritual force.

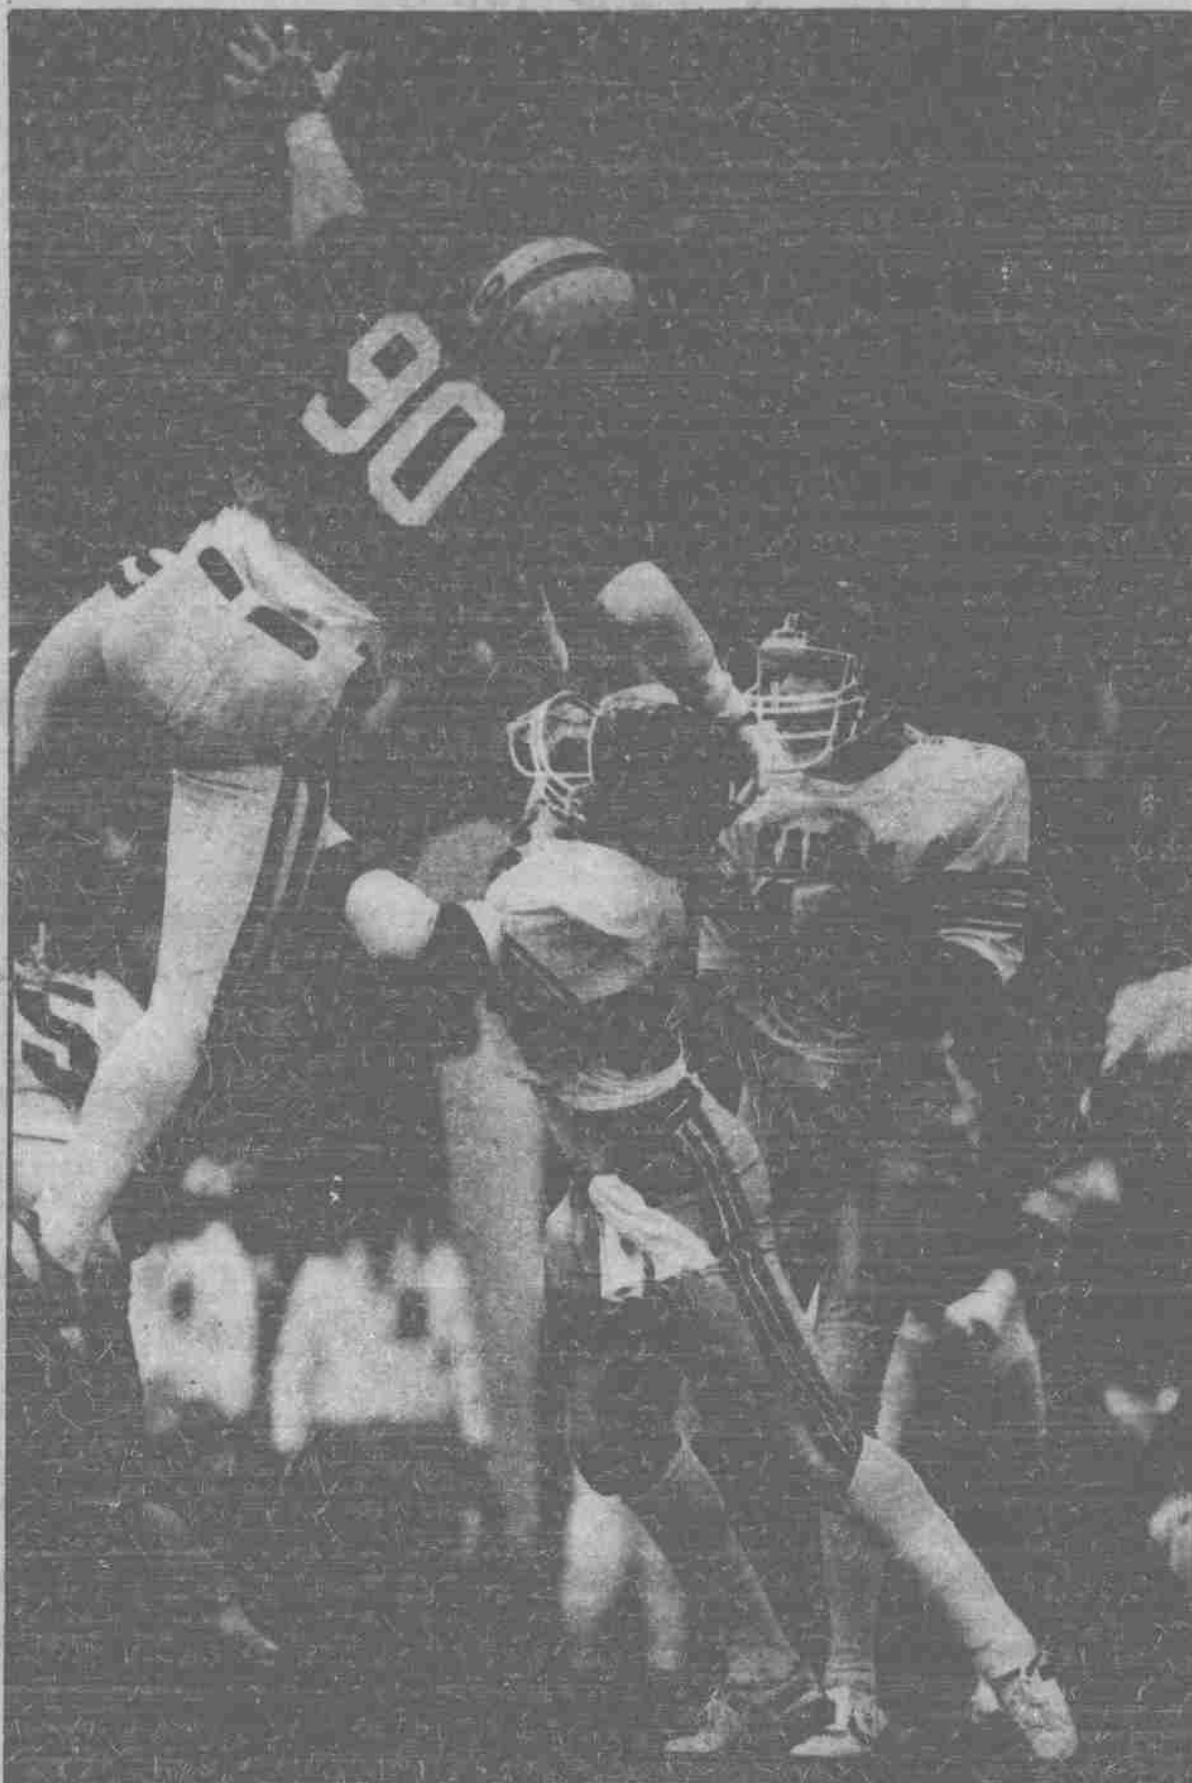

Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Nebraska's softball team returned to prominence in 1984, guided by new head coach Wayne Daigle.

One must choose between obscurity with efficiency, and fame with its inevitable collateral of bluff.

William McFee

Despite a lack of media attention, UNL's men's swim team glided to its fifth consecutive Big Eight championship.
