

Editorial Policy

Unsigned editorials represent official policy of the fall 1984 Daily Nebraskan. They are written by this semester's editor in chief, Chris Welsch.

Other staff members will write editorials throughout the semester. They will carry the author's name after the final sentence.

Editorials do not necessarily reflect the views of the university, its employees, the students or the NU Board of Regents.

The Daily Nebraskan's publishers are the regents, who established the UNL Publications Board to supervise the daily production of the newspaper.

According to the policy set by the regents, responsibility for the content of the newspaper lies solely in the hands of its student editors.

Celebrate The Season With Savings!

The perfect gift for your child this Christmas!

Mother Goose's Nursery Rhymes are the beloved heritage of all English-speaking people: repeated, enjoyed, treasured by children and adults for hundreds of years. Now, more than one hundred of the rhymes — every one individually illustrated in full, beautiful color — are gathered together in this enchanting new collection. The rich detailed drawings are by Allen Atkinson, the acclaimed artist who recently illustrated the Knopf editions of The Tale of Peter Rabbit and The Velveteen Rabbit.

The Daily Nebraskan Needs Your Help

We're looking for a few good people to help us put out our high-quality newspaper. As one of our staffers put it, the DN isn't just an adventure . . . it's a job. And that's where you come in!

The Daily Nebraskan needs staffers for the spring semester. Reporting positions are open in all departments: news, editorial, sports, arts and entertainment. We also need photographers, copy editors and artists. Applications are available in room 34 of the Nebraska Union, and will be accepted beginning Dec. 10th through the 14th. Please sign up for an interview when you pick up your application.

You don't need to have a background in journalism to work at the DN. Many staff members aren't journalism majors. We hire on the basis of talent and enthusiasm, not age. Have questions? Call Chris Welch, editor in chief, at 472-1766. He'll be glad to help you.
