

Personal.

J. A. Barkley, '92, has returned from the east.

J. W. Dixon spent Sunday in Nebraska City.

R. E. Johnson was on the sick list last week.

D. N. Lehmer, '93, will act as assistant in mathematics.

J. B. McDonald left recently for his home in North Platte.

George Putnam left over the Burlington Friday for San Diego, Cal.

All applicants for "haks" should apply of Westerman at the Stewart's office.

Professor Fossler spoke at Crete Wednesday before the Teachers' association.

G. H. Hall has left school. He expects to enter Chicago University next year.

H. B. Shannon, of Omaha, a former student, visited the University last week.

William Dorsey, a former student of the U. of N., recently visited the University.

W. V. Hoagland, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, is again in school.

J. B. Fogerty, '91, was down the early part part of last week visiting University friends.

Jay Barrett has returned from Salt Lake City, and says there is no place like Lincoln.

The Regents have asked for an appropriation for an instructor in elocution and oratory.

W. O. Stevens, '89, principal of the Fullerton high school, was married during the holidays.

H. G. Whitmore has been confined to his home on account of throat trouble several days past.

Professor Barber lectured at Stromsburg and Syracuse last week, and West Point this week.

Last week Mrs. Canfield and her cousin Mrs. Reynolds, visited all departments of the University.

Last week, Prof. Fling delivered two lectures on historical subjects before the teachers at Tecumseh.

H. J. Podelsak, who was called home on account of the illness of his father, has returned to school.

J. A. Barris, a former student who has been in Creston, Iowa, for the past year, has returned to Lincoln.

Prof. Peterson's class in Shakespeare has increased so in numbers that it now recites in Prof. Fossler's room.

Chancellor Canfield spoke before Improved Stock Breeders' association, at Fremont, Wednesday morning.

Messrs. Cheney and Overstreet, owing to recent misfortunes, favor the immediate abolition of national banks.

Robert L. Allee has left school and returned to his home in Nebraska City. Frank Hetschel has also gone home.

President C. H. Morrill, of the board of Regents, has been appointed receiver of the Bank of Wahoo, which failed a short time ago.

Miss Anna Wilder, a sister of our hygiene and physiology instructor, has entered the University in the junior class. She came from Kansas.

Prof. Barber delivered three lectures in Syracuse, Neb., last week. One was upon "Our Neighbors Across the Atlantic," and the other two were illustrated lectures.

Rev. F. S. Stein will teach the English classes during Professor Bates' illness. Professor Bates is still quite sick, and very probably will not be able to teach any more this year.

Mrs. Oliva Pound recently entertained a large number of her University friends. Cards and dancing were the amusements of the evening. A delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

Phi Delta Theta entertained at the home of Mr. Hardy during the last month. The entertainment was a novel one. The gentlemen wrote a description of the ladies' dresses and the young ladies portrayed the characters of the young men.