

THE GOVERNORS.

Preparing for a Day of Rejoicing if the President Recovers.

Expressions from the Executives of Nearly All the States and Territories.

Special to The Cincinnati Commercial.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 12. In response to the telegram of Gov. Foster, dispatches have been received from the governors of nearly all the states and territories at the executive department yesterday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Foster, Governor of Ohio: The suggestions contained in your dispatch of to-day meet my approval.

BOSTON, Mass., July 11, 1881.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: I concur in your suggestion of proclamation for Thanksgiving in case of the President's recovery.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 11, 1881.—To His Excellency Charles Foster: Telegram received, and I heartily concur in your suggestion.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Charles Foster: Your suggestion of this date has my most hearty approval.

MADISON, Wis., July 11, 1881.—His Excellency Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Sincerely rejoicing in the cheering prospect of the President's recovery, and fully agreeing with you as to the propriety of setting apart a day for thanksgiving and prayer to the God of nations.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 11, 1881.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Your suggestions meet my hearty approval, and will receive the indorsement of the American people.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Foster: Have issued proclamation appointing the 14th of the present month for fasting and prayer.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 11, 1881.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Your suggestion meets my hearty approval. I will issue proclamation as soon as the governors you name fix the day to be observed.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 11, 1881.—To His Excellency Charles Foster, Governor: Your telegram of the 10th received this morning. My feelings are in entire harmony with your views in reference to the propriety of setting apart by concurrent action of the governors of the several states of a day of thanksgiving in view of the gratifying recovery of the president, and I would suggest, however, that the selection of a day be made when the president's convalescence is fully assured.

RICHMOND, Va., July 11, 1881.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: The committee you name meets my hearty approval.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Charles Foster: I approve your suggestion in all its parts.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Charles Foster: I fully agree. I see that the Governors of Arkansas and Kentucky have already designated July 14. Too early. I was preparing my message for July 21. I will await your action.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Charles Foster: I concur in the suggestion made in your telegram of yesterday, and will cordially unite with Governors of other States in devoting a day to be designated as you suggest to public thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for his merciful interposition in behalf of the President.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Charles Foster: Your telegram just received. Your suggestions meet with my hearty approval, and I will co-operate cordially in any way to carry out the suggestions contained in your dispatch.

JACKSON, Miss., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Foster: I approve of your suggestion, and will conform to the action of the committee named in your telegram.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Foster: Your proposition is cordially approved.

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 11, 1881.—To His Excellency Charles Foster, Governor: Your idea in regard to a proclamation of thanksgiving in the event of the recovery of President Garfield is in exact accord with my own feelings, and I believe, with the feelings of the people of this state. I am satisfied with the committee named and will act in accordance with their suggestion.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 11, 1881.—To Gov. Foster: I cordially indorse your suggestions relating to the appointment of a day of thanksgiving and prayer commemorating the recovery of the president.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 11, 1881.—To the Hon. Charles Foster: I join heartily in suggestions as to issuing proclamations of thanksgiving. The committee to fix the day named is to notify me.

TRENTON, N. J., July 11, 1881.—To the Hon. Charles Foster: Your telegram received, and I cheerfully assent to its general proposal if you will take the trouble to make the arrangements and procure the assent of the other Governors named. I will act in accordance with the information which you may send me.

YANKTON, D. T., July 11, 1881.—Gov. Charles Foster: Gov. Ordway away from home. Will forward your telegram, Think I can safely say it will meet his approval.

SANTA FE, New Mexico.—His Excellency Charles Foster: I wholly agree, as all patriotic citizens and people of this territory will also agree, with the suggestion in your telegram of the 10th instant received to-day, that in view of the recovery hopefully foreshadowed of President Garfield from the terrible attempt of assassination, a proclamation be issued by the governors respectively of the states and territories, on a day to be agreed upon, for thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty God for the President's deliverance, and his preservation to liberty and a free people.

BANGOR, Me., July 11, 1881.—The Hon. Charles Foster: I heartily concur in your proposal for a day of public thanksgiving and praise in view of the hopeful condition of the president, the day to be fixed as soon as the public mind shall rest in the belief that the calamity of his death is averted. The universal sentiment of the people of Maine is one of profoundest gratitude to Almighty God for His adorable goodness in shielding the president against the deep damnation of the attempt to take his life.

CARSON, Nev., July 11, 1881.—Gov. Charles Foster: Your suggestion meets with my hearty approbation. Will be most happy to cooperate with you.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 11, 1881.—The Hon. Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Your suggestion respecting a general day of thanksgiving for the President's recovery is most cordially approved.

DENVER, Colo.—Gov. Charles Foster: Our people recognize the hand of Providence in restoring the stricken President to the service of the Nation, whose heart he has won. During the past week we have alternated between the hope of a day of National thanksgiving and the fear of a day of National mourning. Now, that the danger to the president and to the country seems to have passed, the entire people of Colorado will gratefully unite in a day of thanksgiving and praise that so great a calamity has been averted. I approve of your suggestion in relation to the method of ascertaining the day for a general observance throughout the country.

SALEM, Ore., July 12, 1881.—The Hon. Charles Foster: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of July 10, inst., suggesting that it would be most fitting for the governors of the several states and territories to issue proclamation, setting apart a day to be generally agreed upon for thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for the blessed deliverance of our president, and most gladly assent to the proposition therein contained.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, July 11, 1881.—Hon Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: I am grateful for the glad tidings conveyed in your telegram of yesterday. The suggestion that a day be set apart for thanksgiving and praise for the deliverance of the president has my hearty approval. I agree to the committee named and authorize you to use my name as you may deem proper.

CONCORD, N. H., July 12, 1881.—Gov. Charles Foster: New Hampshire will gladly unite in thanksgiving on a day to be fixed as proposed, when the President's recovery is assured.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 10, 1881.—The Hon. Charles Foster, Governor: I will heartily approve and join any general movement for a day of thanksgiving for the President's escape as soon as we are assured that it will not be premature. The committee named is entirely satisfactory to me.

SAGINAW CITY, Mich., July 12, 1881.—The Hon. Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Your telegram of the 10th came during my absence. Hence the delay in answering. I approve of your suggestion and of the parties to designate a day for thanksgiving and praise for the deliverance of our President.

RALPHIGH, N. C., July 12, 1881.—Gov. Foster: I most heartily approve and concur in your suggestion.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 11.—To Gov. Foster: Your suggestion for a day of thanksgiving in view of the President's deliverance from death meets my thankful approval. Liberty lies wounded with him. Let universal praise and bells and bonfires communicate the glad tidings of his restoration.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 11, 1881.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: Your telegram just received. California, irrespective of political opinion, feels as citizens of a common country the terrible blow aimed at the Government in the murderous attempt to assassinate our honored President.

OLYMPIA, W. T., July 14, 1881.—Gov. Foster: The proposition for general thanksgiving, if the president recovers, has my cordial approval. Permit me to suggest that the Pacific states and territories should have representation on the committee, and that one territory at least should be also represented.

DOVER, Del., July 12.—To the Hon. Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: The suggestion of your telegram of the 10th meets my approbation.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 12.—Gov. Charles Foster: I heartily approve your suggestion for a day of thanksgiving and prayer. I presume no action will be taken till the president is declared out of danger.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 12.—His Excellency Gov. Foster: Your dispatch of the 10th, in reference to concerted action in naming a day for thanksgiving, has just reached me at Wilkesbarre. I entirely concur in the propriety of the suggestion, and the people of Pennsylvania will reverently join in the observance.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 12.—To Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio: I heartily concur in your suggestion regarding a day of thanksgiving for the President's recovery. The committee you name meets my approval.

A Friend in Need. Time over and again THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL, has proved a salutary friend to the distressed. As a reliable curative for croup in children, sore throat and bronchial affections, and as a positive external remedy for pain, it is a never-failing antidote.

TRUE TO HER TRUST. Too much cannot be said of the ever faithful wife and mother, constantly watching and caring for her dear ones, never neglecting a single duty in their behalf. When they are assailed by disease, and the system should have a thorough cleansing, the stomach and bowels regulated, blood purified, malarial poison exterminated, she must know that Electric Bitters are the only sure remedy. They are the best and purest medicine in the world, and only cost fifty cents. Sold by Ish & McMahon.
