REDUCED QUANTITY OF MORPHIA. WASHINGTON, August 4 -The reduced quantity of morphia adminis-tered to the president last evening did not seem to affect his rest. He slep as well as usual and this morning looks and feels better even than ves-terday. He has eaten a solid break-fast and remained several hours since in comfort. Dr. Hamilton saw the president this morning for the first time in five days. He expressed himself much pleased with the progress of the case and said the wound was in good condition. Dr. Hamilton has talked freely and frankly for the first time since he has been in attendance. He says: "The president is doing nicely. I am most decidedly of the opinion that he will recover. The doctor remains as Atterney-General McVeagh's guest until Sunday, when Agnew returns. No examination of the wound will be made except morning and evening and nothing but the pulse of the patient will be taken between these hours. WILD RUMORS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 4 .-The fact that the president's physicians considered his progress toward convalescence so well established as to discontinue the issuance of the noon bulletins seems to have furnished a pretext for wild rumors abroad. There was little of the kind here but telegrams were continually received during the day by private parties and others in New York to the effect that private information from the White House went to show that the president was worse again. Those who have been spending most of the time at the White House knew at once that there was no truth in these reports. The physicians were exceedingly vexed. They hastened to disabuse the public of the idea that there

The fact is the president has been doing fully as well to-day as any day since the shooting. There has not been the slightest unfavorable symptom, and he has been slowly and steadily gaining. There has been some comment by outside surgeons on the fact that the president's pulse and temperature nave not been reduced to a normal condition. The attending physicians say the maintenance of those symptoms above normal is naturally to be expected. They are kept up, they say, by the circulation to which the president is naturally subjected. His improvement since Monday has been marked and satisfactory, and the symptoms this morning were very good. He is now taking more than the usual amount of nourishment, including steaks, milk toast saturated with beef juice, potatoes and a little coffee. His strength is increasing daily, and he is now able to do more in the way of turning himself and helping others to raise his body than the surgeons think it prudent to allow. He remained in a raised position nine hours to-day. He is reap-ing great benefit from his change, particularly as the heart has a freer

THURSDAY'S BULLETINS. EXECUTIVE MANSILN, August 4, 8:30 a. m.—The president continues to improve. He slept well during the night, and this morning looks, and ex-presses himself cheerfully. Another present his pulse is 90, temperature 98 4-10 and respiration 18.

The next bulletin will be issued this evening, and hereafter the noon bulletin will be dispensed with. (Signed)

WASHINGTON, August 4-7 p. m.-As the morning bulletin indicated on Tuesday. Officers do not believe that such would probably be the ease, them to be the right persons. that such would probably be the ease, the president has passed another good day without a drawback or unpleasant symptom of any kind. He has taken nourishment and shows little fatigue after dressing of the wound and the character and the amount of the discharge. At 12:30 p. m. his pulse was 96, temperature 98.4, respiration The afternoon rise of temperature came on late and was moderate. At 7 p. m. his pulse was 102, temperature 100.2, respiration 19.

THE DOCTORS

will recover."
"Does he look any better than when you last saw him?"
"Yes, he looks better, but there has been no particular change in his condition. His face will hardly regain a natural appearance until he gets out

"When will that be?" "That is a matter of conjecture as yet, but it will not be a long time be-fore he will be able to bear removal." "Then you think he will get well?" continued the inquirer.
"I have no doubt of it."

Dr. Hamilton said there was no truth in the story that the president was affected by malaria. He was asked if the stories as to to there being so much malarial sickness in the house were true. He said in a positive manner that there was no malaria in the president's symptoms. When asked about the wound, Dr. Hamilton said: "It is in a very good condition and looks very well.

"Is it healing in remote portions?"
"That I can't say. We don't know that it is healing there without a better knowledge of a deeper portion of the wound than we now have. We can't say that it is healing there.

"Are there any signs that the ball is incisting or not?" "I can't say as to that. We don't know whether it is or not.'

DR. RAYBURN. reasons for dispensing with the noon bulletin was because they could not find a new expression. He had nothing to say but that he was slowly improving. He said the wound was discharging healthy pus freely and granulating rapidly. The probabilities are that the ball is becoming encisted. Anyhow they had no apprehensions of any immediate trouble on that score.

POLITICAL POINTS

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS, RICHMOND, VA, August 4 .- The conservative democratic convention they took a recess. It is intended to nominate a full, straight-out ticket, independent of a possible combination of the republicans and readjusters.

OHIO PROHIBITIONISTS, COLUMBUS, August 4 .- The prohicitionists met in state convention today with about 125 delegates present, Rev. J. S. Mills, of Westerville, permanent chairman; Prof. J. W. Sharpe, of Delaware, secretary. The usual committees were appointed and the committees were appointed and the convention adjourned until 1:30 p. m. It is probable, but not certain, that the Loveland ticket and platform will be endorsed. There is much effort made for a separate ticket and platform to be adopted.

COLUMBUS, O., August 4. The prohibition state convention at the after-noon session nominated a full state ticket which corresponds with the Loveland ticket except for attorney general, for which place Henry Camp, of Coshocton, was selected. The platform adopted is the usual prohi-bition one. While the effect of the convention was to ratify the Loveland convention, the actual result was the nomination of the same ticket without a thought of a real endorsement. The prohibitionists want the temperance alliances to vote their ticket.

NO PROHIBITION IN NORTH CAROLINA. RALEIGH, N. C., August 4.—The vote on the prohibition question was light. The negroes, whose vote was the unknown element, appeared to be standing with the revenue officers and the republican organization. The vote passed off quietly.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 4.—The anti-prohibitionists have swept the state by an unprecedented majority, perhaps 50,000. The few country precincts heard from show a greater majority in proportion for the antiprohibitionists. The prohibitionists carry so far nothing.

The Shortcomings of Men to Benefit the School Fund.

The fines collected in the police court for a month in all the petty cases that come before it will average about $650. This money is now turned into the county school fund. Previous to Judge Beneke's term the money went into the city school fund but as he construes the law the county fund is the proper place for it, and consequently it goes there. Of those arrested for dunkenness probably less than forty per cent on the average, pay the $10 and costs imposed under the provisions of the Slocumb law. rather peculiar fact in this connection is the few people living in Omaha who are arrested for drunkenness. About ninety per cent, of those arrested for being drunk come from outside the city. Whether the small number of Omaha people arrested for the offense is due to the fact that little drunkenness prevails among acclimated citizens or whether it is for the reason that everybody here knows and respects the law, are problems, but the remains the same.

MR. DREXEL'S VIEWS.

What He Has to Say About the New Court House.

In conversation yesterday morning any depredations in the white man's County Commissioner Drexel told a reporter that the old plan for the proposed county court house if carried out, could not cost less than $200,000 at the present rate of labor and price of materials. It would take some time yet, he said, for the architect to so modify his plans as to meet the requirements of the cheaper building and of course until these were received no more bids could be advertised for. When the building could be erected according to them at a cost of $150,000. Many people, the commissioner said, had spoken to him about the matter at the timethe bonds were being voted. They said they were in favor of voting the bondsprovided they would cover all expenses attached to putting up the building, but they were afraid they would not. "I pledged my honor to them," said Mr. Drexel, "that the cost would not exceed that amount. Now the chances are that it will, because of the increased cost of labor and material, ard I want to hear what the people have to say about it before I make up my mind definitely. This is only my own view of the matter."

SORROWFUL SIGHT.

A Poor Girl's Shame and Consequent Suffering.

A chilling picture of desolation and misery was witnessed at the court house yesterday. A young and pretty girl, scarcely out of her teens, dressed with an unusual display of taste, walked into the county clerk's office and inquired for one of the commissioners. She met Mr. Drexel and base deception on the part of a male scoundrel. She told her pitiful story with much hesitation and every evidence of how keenly she felt herposition and concluded by asking for the man but she refused to indicate it in the remotest way She claimed that her parents were dead and that she originally came here from Iowa, but it could be seen that her only endeavor was to shield her relatives from whatever shame attached to her offense. The commissioner made out the order and the poor girl started on her journey, one of the saddest pictures of uncomplaining misery seen there for many a
