Chicago Produce.

CHICAGO, September 1.

On 'Change instead of a drop there was a rise in prices of wheat and corn. The receipts of grain were 15,900 bushels of corn by canal and 1,460 car loads of grades of grain by rail, embracing 2'0 of wheat, 967 of corn, 70 of oats, 14 of rye, and 59 of barley.

Flour—In good request and firm. Quotations unchanged.

Wheat—No. 2 spring was active and the feeling nervous and unsettled. Local speculative influences were the governing power. Cash wheat ruled about 13½@13⅝c per bushel less than yesterday, owing to the culmination of the August squeeze for deferred delivery and the market opened 1½c per bushel lower, due to free offerings, evidently in anticipation of large deliveries and September contracts, but it appeared as though all the wheat was taken care of and did not come back to the market and a strong feeling was developed. Speculative demand was active and prices were advanced about 3@3⅛c per bushel, about inside prices, then fluctuated slightly and finally closed about ⅛c higher for September and October on the regular board and on the call at 1 22½ for September; 1 20½ for October; 1 20½@1 20¾ for November; 1 20¾ for December; 1 22⅝ for the year.
