

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, July 26.

By Carrier... 20 cents per week... $1.00 per Year

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Grading on Main street will be finished in a few days.

The Baptist ladies give a social at the church parlors this evening.

The Presbyterians have a sociable this evening at the residence of Mrs. E. D. F. Fisher.

Mrs. Seofield had a valuable cow killed by the Milwaukee & St. Paul train near Green's packing house yesterday.

The advertising brigade of Cole's circus reached here yesterday and camped near the town for the 16th of August.

Captain Kirscht has purchased Peter Thrall's fine family mare, which he intends to have for his own personal use.

Those who want to hear an entertaining and instructive lecture, should this evening go to the Bloomer school building, and here Robert Shaw tell about the pyramids in Egypt.

There is a vague rumor that W. C. James, who is, we believe, one of the city council, is to build a new sidewalk along his beautiful property.

Dr. Archibald's horses, Glenwood and Normond, who have been at the driving park here for months, under the care of that veteran turfman, Sam Colburn, were shipped to Davenport yesterday, to attend the races there.

The Rock Island trains yesterday were greatly delayed by a washout east.

J. A. Ross, who used to run the Merchant's restaurant, is now nicely settled in new quarters, at No. 537 Broadway, and has christened the place as "The Clifton," and has certainly a fine restaurant and ice cream parlor.

It is almost time for the annual fatalities caused by falling bluffs. The excavators are getting as usual a little venturesome, and the banks are as treacherous as ever.

All members of the social union of the Presbyterian church who were not present at the business meeting on Tuesday evening last, are requested to meet at the church Friday, July 27, at 9 o'clock, sharp, to participate in a picnic given by the social union.

William Vincent, arrested on the complaint of William Carroll on the charge of burglary, was yesterday held to the district court in the sum of $200.

The requisition for the man Murphy, arrested in Omaha for the larceny of Farman's store, reached here yesterday, and George Edgar armed with this went across the river and brought the man back into Iowa.

Two of those charged with being concerned in the row at the Danish dance, at which Mr. Oleason was so seriously injured, were brought into Justice Schurz's court yesterday.

It will be a surprise to many to learn that Rev. P. F. Breese, former pastor of the Broadway Methodist church here, and recently appointed pastor of the Central church here, has been transferred to the California conference, where he will be given a new field of work.

Mrs. Paulina Blackerts was yesterday taken to the asylum for the insane. It will be remembered that soon after the flood she had some difficulty with a deaf and dumb man, claiming that he was picking up driftwood which belonged to her.

Wheeler, who was arrested on complaint of a colored man named Epps, for securing money under false pretences, was yesterday discharged, it appearing that while acting as agent for a house he rented it to Epps, supposing that the family occupying it had moved out, and took $4 in advance on rent.

John Leiby was just drunk enough to play smart, but he got too smart, when in his abuse of quiet citizens on Broadway he used profane and obscene language as ladies passed along the walk.

Charles G. Barker, of Burlington, was at the Pacific yesterday.

E. H. Cowles and wife, of Gibson, Neb., visited the bluff yesterday, and made headquarters at the Pacific.

George H. Jones, of Lancaster, Iowa, is at the Ogden.

G. W. White, of Quincy, was among yesterday's arrivals at the Ogden.

Mrs. J. O. Bennett and her mother, Mrs. P. D. Wright, left yesterday for St. Louis to make a short stay, for the purpose of getting some medical assistance for Mrs. Wright.

D. D. Dykeman, of Loganport, Ind., is an Ogden house guest.

E. A. Tillotson, is among the Chicagoans at the Ogden.

J. Y. Stone is again in the city.

E. J. Martin, of Quincy, is an Ogden house arrival.

Chief Templeton, of the fire department, has now so far recovered as to be able to be out again.

METHODIST METHODS.

The Ministers' Meeting and What They Talked About.

A Lively Discussion Over the Three Years Limitation of Pastors

The district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened yesterday morning with religious services, conducted by Rev. C. Smith, of Missouri Valley.

W. S. Hooker, presiding elder; P. F. Breese, J. Z. Armstrong, and Wilbur Fisk, Council Bluffs; J. W. Coe, Astor; J. W. Adair, Logan; W. C. Smith, Woodbine; E. Lymer, Coon; S. Smith, Missouri Valley; Charles Brown, Little Sioux; F. Brown, Dunlap; A. E. Griffith, Glenwood; W. L. Edmunds, Emerson; C. L. Nye, Hamburg; W. J. Beck, Sidney; F. Harris, Farragut; C. J. Eckles, Shenandoah; W. R. Douglas, Plum Hollow; C. W. Brewer, Essex; J. S. Morrow, Dow City; C. H. Burleigh, College Springs; D. Pruitt, Hastings; E. M. H. Fleming, Council Bluffs.

Rev. C. L. Nye, of Hamburg was elected secretary.

Various committees were appointed, and reports were received from the pastors of the different charges.

Rev. Mr. Squires presented the claims of the American bible society.

Rev. Mr. Marsh, of London, presented the work in England.

The afternoon session opened with religious services, conducted by Rev. E. Lymer, of Coon.

The report from local preachers, Sunday school superintendents, district stewards and class leaders were received.

The transfer of Rev. P. F. Breese to the south California conference was announced.

The committee on the state of the church reported as follows:

"The reports show good and faithful work by all concerned, that the charges are in good condition spiritually, and in the securing of church property, payment of debts, etc. In view of the general discouragement of the early part of the season to the farming interest and the recent calamities befalling a considerable part of the district by wind and hail storms, it is not surprising that the benevolent collections fall short of that expected. So far as reported we find the benevolent collections to be about $950 from this district which may be increased. The total number of accessions are 789 which indicate a good degree of prosperity.

The committee on the pastoral term limitation reported a majority favorable, and a minority report opposing a removal of the limit was presented.

Under the present system a pastor cannot remain on one charge longer than three years, and formerly the limit was two years. The majority of the committee to whom the matter was referred, reported in favor of doing away with any time limitation whatever.

A minority report was presented dissenting from this. The discussion was an animated one and many keen thrusts were made in the arguments, though all in the spirit of personal kindness. The vote was in favor of the minority report, and against doing away with the time limitations.

The programme for last evening's session opened with religious services, by Rev. W. R. Douglas, and addresses on missions. "Home Missions," by Rev. D. Austin, and "The Missionary Spirit Essential to Church Life," by Rev. A. E. Griffith.

To-day will be the closing one of the conference, and the programme arranged is as follows:

8:30. Opening Services... C. W. Brewer. 9:00. Conference business... P. F. Breese. 11:00. "Denominationalism"... P. F. Breese.

2:00. Opening services... J. W. Adair. 2:15. "Proper use of books in public preparation of candidates..." W. C. Smith. 3:00. "Unity of Methodism..." Bro. Lawton. 4:00. Adjournment.
