

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 19.

Weather Indications.

For the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, slightly warmer, generally fair weather, followed in the extreme northern portion by local rains, variable winds from east to south, lower barometer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It is about time to be looking out for "the lost boat down" on the Missouri. Chief Butler is determined to furnish the department with good quarters as far as possible. The moonlight and electric light combined made the streets last night brilliant to an unusual degree. The vocal serenade at Ed Maurer's place last night, was a splendid treat and was enjoyed by many who were merely passers by as well as those who were on the inside. If the Herald, Republican and Bee should shut down for a week, the daily Union would be obliged to procure a patent inside and the public would not be galled with second hand local every evening.

on the charge of embezzling $2,500 of the company's funds during the absence of Mr. Gibson in Colorado. He gave bonds in $2,500 and will be examined Friday. It is said that he used the cash at Faro.

To Hear.—The bar and billiard rooms, the barber shop, the cigar and news stand of the Cozans. sep17-mk&ct

The Republican County Central committee is to meet at the court house Saturday at 2 p. m. for the purpose of fixing the time for primaries and the convention. Five boxes of Qualey's soap stand in the hallway ready to grease political wheels if necessary. If they were five boxes of Mum's extra they wouldn't stay there so long.

The Weeping Waters are made up of "dark horses" and come prepared to hold the U. P. down close.

Resolutions of thanks have been passed by the State Board of Agriculture to Hon. G. M. Lamberton for his address, and ordering two thousand copies printed; the superintendent of committees at the fair; to W. P. Mumagh, superintendent of machinery, and to the general superintendent; to the hotels and business men of Omaha; to Mrs. Remington and Mrs. Cooper, art hall superintendents; to employes and to the various railroads entering into the city. The implement exhibitors have also passed commendatory resolutions on the board.

The Thurlston home team of this city has challenged the Council Bluffs boys to a contest, proposing to run the latter for $100 a side and half the gate receipts. The Bluffs boys accept, but want $100 a side and the gate receipts to go to the winners.

The new roller skating rink on Douglas street opened up last night in fine style, the A. O. H. band discoursing its most inspiring music for the occasion. The attendance was very encouraging to the proprietors, both in numbers and character. It will no doubt have a good patronage this winter.

General Superintendent Clark of the C. M. & St. Paul railroad was out to see his farm of 200 acres, four and one-half miles north of this city, recently purchased. He brought this splendid place for one of his sons, who proposes to work it. It is the best recommendation for Woodbury county, possible, when a person of such experience as Mr. Clark comes to buy land in it.—[Sixth City Journal.]

A terrible accident is reported as having happened recently to a lady residing in North Omaha. The woman had a severe headache and was using camphor for it. In the dark she got hold of the wrong bottle, taking one filled with nitric acid, with which she bathed her forehead before the mistake was discovered. The unfortunate mistake has resulted in the skin and flesh being burned off clear down to the bone, and may yet prove fatal to the victim.

In an article recently published by The Bee concerning an overcharge by a hack driver the facts in the case show that no intentional imposition was made on the passenger, but that the latter was himself responsible for the trouble and that the arrested was unjust. The facts are that the man engaged the hack to take him to the depot at a certain hour, sharp, the driver having another engagement a quarter of an hour later. When he was called for he was not ready and detained the hackman for an hour, depriving him of the job he already had. He was charged for the time and trip thus lost and should have made no kick about it.

The wife and two daughters of Leopold Snyder arrived from Fort Laramie yesterday and departed in the evening for Omaha. It is just half a century since Sergeant Snyder enlisted in the United States army, and since 1849 he has been stationed at Fort Laramie, where he has long held the position of ordnance sergeant. In 1878 he came to Cheyenne and held for the first time a railroad locomotive and the accompanying cars. The firewhisker of the whistle as he stepped up to the engine started the old man, and it was some little time before he recovered his usual composure.—Cheyenne Leader.

Among the special premiums offered at the last State fair was one designated on the list as the "Paxton hotel special premium," which was of $50, offered for the best dozen quart jars each of current and plum jelly. Both lots were furnished by Miss Annie Grenell, of Ft. Calhoun, the daughter of Hon. E. N. Grenell, and a young lady but 13 years of age. She was paid the full amount yesterday by the Kitchen Brothers, and she has as good reason to be proud as any girl in Nebraska. She will make some good man a good wife on these days.

Base ball this afternoon. The cushion coat is being laid on the Harney street pavement on the block between 11th and 12th streets.

The large stock of goods received daily by Mr. W. F. Stoetzel, the reliable stove dealer, is a sure sign of fine and large business.

T. W. Harvey, of the Burlington stock farm, walked away Monday with about $500 premium money on cattle at the State fair.

There was a fine display of the Northern Lights on Sunday evening, which seems to have escaped the notice of the majority of citizens.

Secretary Wheeler, on behalf of the State Board of Agriculture, presented President McIntyre Monday evening with a handsome gold-headed cane.

The Weeping Waters very good ball, and are liable to make it very warm for the U. P.

Ladies of Grace chapel have a festival Wednesday evening, 19th, at Tet's new building, Saunders street, Shinn's addition.

Three disturbances of the peace at the police court yesterday, discharged. One man, firing a pistol, $300, paid; one drunk, ditto, not paid, jailed.

It is reported here that a former Omaha machinist, Tom Henderson, has been shot in Texas, for being too intimate with another man's wife, and his slayer acquitted.

The Weeping Waters meet the Union Pacific on the grounds of the latter to-day at 4 p. m.

The State Fair next year will commence on a Friday and run until the following Friday. The Council Bluffs Association desiring to do whatever Omaha does, have made the same arrangements for the same dates.

The heavy, four story brick block on Harney and 16th streets, is being put up by Ches. Turner, and the north store will be completed from top to bottom by a hardware firm which is coming here from Nebraska City.

The most gifted actress on the stage is Mlle. Hiss, who appears at Boyd's Friday and Saturday, in "Adrienne," "From From" and "School for Scandal."

Manager King, of the Omaha Fertilizer Works, has been arrested by Thomas Gibson,

THE BONDS BUNGLER.

A New York Expert Picks a Flaw in the Old Issue.

And Now the Whole Thing Must be Done Over Again.

Reference to the council proceedings, published elsewhere, will show that the adjourned meeting of that body to be held to-night is in reference to the passage of an ordinance providing for the issue of $100,000 paving bonds of the city of Omaha to replace a similar quantity issued under ordinance No. 575 and to repeal that ordinance.

The new ordinance is demanded by the discovery of a technical point connected with the first issue of bonds, which was "dropped on" by a New York expert. These bonds were voted by the city at the spring election of 1883, the tickets reading:

"For the issue of $100,000 6 per cent. paving bonds" etc. Subsequently city Treasurer Buck negotiated the sale of the bonds to the Omaha national bank which took the whole amount issued at 5 per cent. instead of 6. These bonds were duly delivered and the bank forwarded them to New York where they were examined and an abstract of the history of the issue sent for.

The next news received was that as the vote was for "six per cent bonds," the five per cents were not legal and the authorities were requested to legalize the issue in some way. As the case is stated to The Bee reporter, the bank does not want a higher rate of interest and proposes to pay a premium on the new issue which will make the bonds virtually five per cent bonds. The matter will be adjusted to-night.
