A Woman in it, Mr. Paxton. LARAMIE CITY, September 19. To the Editor of THE BEE:

I saw an article in The Cheyenn Leader about an interview between Mr. Wm. A. Paxton, of Omaha, and a BEE reporter, in which the decision of Hon. Judge Lener, of Cheyenne, Wyo. Ter. against the fences, is very severely thought of by Mr. Paxton. Of course, by all appearace, I consider Mr. Paxtor to be ignorent of the real facts in my But he thinks there is a woman a the bottom of it. So there is, Mr. Pax ton, and allow me to tell you, withou giving offense, that if my case had been yours, there would be a man at the bot tom. The woman's name is Mrs. J. Odder, and she lives at Laramie City. Very respectfully, Mrs. J. ODDER.

Additional Memorials in Trinity Ca-thedral.

In giving the list of memorials in Trin ity Cathedral we omitted three important ones, which are, the elegant chandeliers throughout the cathedral, which are the gift of Trinity Guild, an organization o young ladies in the parish, and the seat in the choir of the cathedral, which is the clevated ante-chancel. These are place there in memory of the late Mr. Bear who was one of the most valuable as exemplary members of the parish and vestryman, and all the altar and chance books, which are given by Mrs. V. C. Turner, of Chicago.

FOURTH DAY'S FIRING.

The Preliminary Practice Continues at Ft. Omaha Rifle Range.

A Complete and Correct Record of Every Day's Practice.

range. As the firing continues until three o'clock in the afternoon, it will be seen that it requires lively work to have the record in each evening's issue.

Rifle practice was resumed at the range at Fort Cmaha yesterday, firing being continued at the 200 and 300 yards ranges in the face of a wind blowing twenty-three miles an hour. The wind guage stood so at 2 o'clock and the coninued gusts made high scores on impossibility, while it greatly retarded the nring. Corporal Weagraff who has fired over many ranges says it was the hardest wind in which he ever shot. At noon the following were the three highest scores: Sergeant Stay, 297; Corporal Weagraff, 293; Lieutenant Merriam, 287

THE LUTHERANS.

Missionary Society of the Nebraska Synod.

The womens' convention met in the Lutheran church Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

The devotional meeting, led by Mrs. Jardine, of Omaha, was of deep interest. The address of welcome, made by Miss Minnie Call, was well prepared, heartily welcoming the ladies of the convention to our county, to our beautiful town, to our homes, swept and garnished for their coming. The response was made in a well prepared paper by Miss Augusta Flahr, of Wayne, in a clear, easy and dhappy manner. The subject, "Personal y happy manner. The subject, "Personal Responsibilities," was opened by Rev. L. Knight, of Clear Creek, and further discussed by the president, Mrs. Kimmel. Mrs. Jardine, Rev. G. H. Schmer and others. Mrs. Rev. A. B. Shrader, of Ponca, was appointed secretary pro tem. The evening session opened at 7:30 with a good audience, by singing "I love Thy Zion Lord," Mrs. Staunton presiding at the organ. The treasurer's report showed about $30,000 raised by the societies during the year. The president's address was remain over until to-day. read by Miss Ella Day. The address They spent their time was an admirable preduction, and read with that force characteristic of the elocutionist, of whom Tekamah may well be lished in pamphlet form, and that means be devised for defraying the expenses. The first clause was at once adopted, and the pastor of the church was called on to speak on the last and most difficult clause. In about five minutes he raised in the congregation $37. Miss May Wilson then recited an admirable producion on the subject "Object of Missions,"

THE CONCORDIA.

Celebration of the Fifteenth Anniversary of the Society.

A Large Attendance and a General Good Time.

The Concordia society, one of the best known and most popular singing societies in Omaha, celebrated its fifteenth anniversary last evening by a grand concert and ball at Metz's hall, in which the Musical Union orchestra participated. The attendance was very large, and composed of the best of our German citizens; also including as visitors, the large delegawith Offenbach's grand overture "Orpheus," after which Mr. C. E. Stratmann, the president of the Concordia, intro-duced Mr. H. Haarmann, ex-president of the society, who in well chosen words delivered an address of welcome, and gave a brief historical sketch of the organization.

The triple quartette of the Concordia gave one of its choicest selections, followed by a tenor solo, "Am Meer," by Mr. C. Meyer, which called forth an encore, to which he responded. Next came a trio, piano, violin and viola, Messrs. Blanken feld, Hoffman and Zerkowsky and a soprano selo, "Blau Auglein," by Madame Ahl Puls. The latter responded to an enthasiastic encore, and as about to leave the stage, she was stopped by Mr. Stratmann, who presented her with a beautiful solid silver vase, containing an exquisite boquet, which he explained was given her on behalf of the Concordia society in consideration of her unremitting interest in its welfare and her untiring efforts in its be-half. Although considerably surprised, Mrs. Ahl-Puls gracefully accepted the gift and returned her thanks for it.

The remainder of the programme consisted of two songs by the Concordia; a trio by Frau Puls and Messrs, Meyer trio by Frau Puls and Messrs. Meyer and Grobecker, two selections by the Musical Union, and a solo by Mr. Grobecker, all of which were received with unbounded approbation and called came into his hands as said consul at Chemnitz, Germany, but appropriated and converted to his own use of said moneys that came into his hands as said officer the hour this morning. The committee of arrangements consisted of Herman Schwabe, Julius Meyer, Henry Nestor, August Dormann, Max Becht and Louis Grobecker, whose efforts were ably supplemented by President Stratmann, F. Blankenfeld, director of the society, and S. Hoffman, leader of the Musical Union orchestra.

The Concordia was instituted to promote the iterests of vocal and instrumental music, and now comprises among its members many of our leading citizens and most prominent musicians. Although not a charitable institution its desire to further the object for which it was started has led to many acts of assistance and encouragement to musicians and students who showed especial talent, and these annual concerts are among the most popular anniversary entertainments of each succeeding year.

A'Blessing to all Mankind.

In these times when our Newspapers are flooded with patent medicine advertisements, it is gratifying to know what to procure that will ceratinly cure you. If you are Bilious, blood out of order, Liver inactive, or generally debilitated, there is nothing in the world that will cure you so quickly as Electric Bitters. ### THE FROST FIEND day afternoon and probably stop over a day here before proceeding eastward.

A Cold Wave from the North Dropping Down on Us.

A dispatch was yesterday evening received from Washington, dated September 20, signed by General Hazen, chief of the signal service, and addressed to Observer Pollack, of the Omaha station. The dispatch read:

"A cold wave is advancing from th extreme northwest, which will probably cause damaging frost in the Upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys and Upper Lake region on Friday or Seturday. The cool weather of yesterday was a premonition of the approaching herald of winter, and our fall is likely to be a short one and the winter long and severe.

A BEE reporter last evening interviewed a gentleman who is well posted on the condition of crops throughout Nebraska, and showing him the above dispatch inquired if he thought a frost would seriously affect the corn, which has generally been reported late this

He replied that he had just returned from inspecting lands in Fillmore, Saline, Clay and Hamilton counties and had been west as far as Kearney and Phelps. I was his opinion that the frost would do no harm except perhaps on the low lands where it had been necessary to re-plant. Farmers generally say that the corn on the high lands is all secure and if any less at all is occasioned it will be in the river counties. "Frost," continued our informant,

'would rather benefit than injure us, as it would kill the suckers and the orn would mature and ripen faster. It is late now for frost and our corn, with is demanded, the amount alleged to be our soil, is undoubtedly out of danger. In Northern Nebraska this must be equally true, as the soil is quicker up there. The same gentleman states that from personal observation and inquiry, he thinks the corn crop this year is as heavy in Nebraska as any ever raised in Illinois or in the Wabash valley.
