Resolved, That we will not yield in our efforts by the cries and charges that we are meddling in politics, or that we are fanatics, for we are assured that the temperance cause is of Christ, and further, that it is good to be in harmony with that which is dear to Christ's heart, and having strong faith that the battle is of the Lord and the Goliath of the Philistines will be slain.

LAI'D AT REST. The funeral of Dr. McKune held yesterday.

The funeral services of Dr. A. B. McKune were held yesterday afternoon from the residence on First avenue. The attendance was very large, and for two hours before the time set for the services there was a constant stream of citizens and sympathetic friends passing through the parlors where the remains lay, taking a last look at the face and form which which fourty years' residence here had made familiar to so many.

About the casket were many beautiful floral tributes, the delicate expression of the feeling of all classes, they having come from friends in all the grades of social life, from the humblest child to the most prominent citizen.

The services at the house were very touching and impressive, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Mackey, the rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. There were two or three chants rendered very tenderly by Mrs. D. J. Rockwell, Miss Myrtle Merkel, Charles Palmer and Rev. Mr. Mackey, and Miss Addie Houten at the organ. The other services were in accordance with the beautiful ritual of the church.

After these services another opportunity was presented by those who had not before taken a last look could then do so, and then the casket was placed in the hearse and the sad and solemn procession started for the cemetery. Abe Lincoln Post, G. A. R., headed by Wall McFadden's drum corps, took the lead. The Union Pacific band, of Omaha, played a dirge, and a large number of citizens on foot, members of the driving park association, took an appropriate place in the procession, together with a representation of the board of trade, Dr. McKune having been prominent and active in both organizations.

The pall-bearers were selected from the physicians of the city, and also from the Grand Army, Drs. Macrae, Seibert, Clark, Green, Cary, Dusen and Binney representing the medical fraternity, and the Grand Army being represented by Judge Reed, Col. Daily, Col. Sapp, Col. Keastley and Comrades O'Neil and Richmond.

There were in the procession nearly a hundred carriages, filled with friends who followed in paying tribute to the memory of the departed, and sympathy for the stricken wife and sorrowing relatives.

At the cemetery there was an impressive burial service conducted by Rev. Mr. Mackey, and the remains of the man so suddenly stricken were laid at rest.

Generally honored and respected by all with whom he came in contact in business and social intercourse, therefore he is

Resolved, By the board of trade of Council Bluffs that in the untimely death of Dr. McKune, we lose an active energetic member, the city an honorable upright citizen, and the bereaved wife an affectionate and loving husband; that we deplore the loss we have thus sustained in our board and city, and that we tender to the sorrowing wife our heartfelt sympathy in this her great affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved wife, and the same spread upon the records of the board and furnished the Council Bluffs daily papers.

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Council Bluffs Driving Park and Fair association, held at the company's office on the 27th inst., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Our fellow laborer, Dr. A. B. McKune, has been suddenly and ruthlessly cut down on a highway of our city, in the vigor of health, the prime of usefulness and the full tide of manhood, and "death lies on him like an untimely frost";

Therefore be it Resolved, That we greatly deplore the loss of him who was one of the originators of the association; who was at all times and on all occasions the leading spirit in the promotion of every effort looking to its success and its benefit to the community, and who was ever ready to cheerfully lay aside individual and personal interests and unselfishly, energetically and devotedly bring all the energies of his nature, his calm, clear and far-seeing judgment, to the furtherance and accomplishment of those objects which were promotive of its best good.

Resolved, That this association in his death has lost a most valuable member--a man who was always true to its interests, a man whose advice was at all times freely, clearly and far-seeing given, and who called for, and whose departure from these active scenes of life will create a blank in our memories which cannot be filled.

Resolved, That we join this community in deploring the death of a true, upright and honest citizen, and especially do we offer to his bereaved widow our most tender and sincere sympathy in this, her hour of sore affliction, and claim the privilege of mingling our sorrow with hers.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the widow of the deceased and published in our daily papers.
