The Spiritualists held another of their socials Saturday evening.

No services at the Presbyterian church yesterday, except Sunday school.

City Marshal Jackson is building large livery barn on Eleventh street. In the base ball contest Saturday the Why Nots beat the Mutes by 15 to 12.

See the new goods at Bliss'. Officer Barhyte arrested a man named Riley Saturday nightas thedrunkest man he could find.

It is expected that Dr. Cross will be brought up for examination before Justice Schurz to-day.

A political campaign speaker without any title less than that of "Colonel," would be a start'er.

It is understood that Wells Cook has sold his Broadway property to John Hawthorn, who now runs a mill at Love-The funeral of the late Mrs. John S.

A young man named Lyons, while helping cut a hog in two in a Main street market yesterday, got a bad gash in one hand, which will disable him for a time from active service.

G. A. Holmes spoke at Oakland the other evening, and The Acorn reports: He said that the cry of the homes against the saloons was a false cry. Let's see. Holmes against the saloons. Well it does seem a little paradexical.

The Presbyterian church, which has been se long without a pastor, will soon be in usual running order, as Rev. A. K. Bates, who has accepted a call to the pastorate, expects to soon remove to this city, and will probably enter upon his duties by next Sunday.

The Union Pacific Start Up Union Avenue To-day but Isn't Keeping its Promise.

The Union Pacific having induced the city council to give it Union avenue, about $40,000 worth of property, and having promised in return to give the usual accompaniments of a side track. The dummy does not start from this side until 8 o'clock in the morning, an hour later than the citizens expected, and instead of having a train every thirty min-utes as promised, the Union Pacific propeses to run only once an hour. It is said that the council has already begun to weaken in its enthusiasm, and don't see as it is going to be by any neans an advantage worthy of a gift of $40,000. The chances are that it will seem less and less so as time rolls on. There is already a protest, growing out of is the assurance that the company cannot run every half hour until another track is laid, and when that other track will be The Board of Registration will be in laid is very uncertain. A Little Rumpus on Main Street in Which a Knife Shows Up.

There was trouble on lower Main street Saturday night, growing out of two men quarrelling about a woman. The details, as far as they can be learned before the had formerly been living with a colored man named Charles McDonald. They had some trouble and severed their connection, McDonald going across to Omaha, while she took up with another man named C. T. Klencky. McDonald came over to this side Saturday night and sought to interview the women, claiming that she had some jewelry which belonged to him. She claims that while thus interviewing her the rumpus occured, and Klencky drew a knife on him and chased moisture causes them to rust and corrode.

Dr. Cary's black mare, Lorene, als won the 2:36 race at Sioux City Friday, Charles G. Hayes and Gen. Lee being the other starters. Her time was 2:34 2:311, and 2:33. Those in attendance at the fair and races seem to have gone wild about her, and The Journal of that place thus tips its hat to her:

Many have become interested in the plucky little mare which has trotted every day of the fair so far, and has proved herself to be a little faster stepper than anything brought against her. Lorene, owned by Wade Cary, of Council Bluffs, is 5 years old, and comes of good stock, having been sired by Col West. There have been but three colts of this sire handled for speed: West-mont with a record of 2:28; Mabel H. (formerly owned by Mr. Cary) with a reord of 2:31, and Lorene, which has now btained a record on our track of 2:301 She could probably trot several seconds faster on a mile track.
