

A RUNNING FIGHT

Between a Grocery Clerk and an Aged Individual who Threatened to Shoot.

A most laughable row occurred on Farnam street yesterday, and while there was considerable running, loud talk, etc., no blood was shed although pursued and pursued were both thirsting for "gore" in their minds.

"Budd" (grocer, a clerk in the employ of Fearon & Cole, commission merchants, was endeavoring to sell to a clothing dealer on Tenth street a pair of antlers which were upon a buck lying upon the sidewalk. While they were talking up the trade an old man, who could not have had any interest in the matter whatever, except that which prompts some people to everlastingly stick their nose in where it does not belong, came along and at once commenced to call "Budd" a liar and a scoundrel and told him that he was trying to cheat an innocent customer.

THE NATIONAL GAME IN PERIL.

The Formation of a New League Makes Trouble in Base-Ball Circles.

Chicago News. The standardization by the National American and Northwestern Base Ball associations has created a boom all over the country, unparalleled in the history of the national game. Clubs are being formed in every little town, to say nothing of the large towns and cities.

In the minds of many the only thing necessary is to get a team together, and money will flow into their coffers as easily as rain falls on an April day. All sorts of fabulous sums are offered to players, irrespective of whether they are under contract with either of the above-named associations or not.

No estimates of the expenses incident to running a nine through the season are made, the motto being "get the players and trust to luck for the balance." This boom is also affecting the professional ball-player. He is certain his club cannot get along without his services, and he puts in a bid for a "raise" that is entirely out of reason.

He cares not, at first, whether he stays or goes to one of the clubs being formed around a red-hot stove in the winter time. He is dazzled by an offer nearly the size of a bank president's salary. If he breaks his contract, however, he cannot return, nor can he play in any club within the league or the alliance. He is barred out forever, as Craver, Devlin, Hall, and others have been.

Certain parties in Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Cincinnati, and Washington, have organized a new association called the Union, supposedly in opposition to the National American. Salaries, very large as compared with the league salaries, are offered to noted players reserved by the tripartite agreement. This is notably so in the new club being organized by Mr. Lucas, of St. Louis, headed by a player in the league has been overlooked, it is said, by this gentleman in his endeavor to obtain a first-class nine to represent St. Louis in the association. It is backed, it is said, by a large brewery of that place. How well the St. Louis association has succeeded in this endeavor to reduce players may be seen: Dunlop, of the Cleveland club, was coaxed to repudiate his contract on a promise of $3,500, Shaffer, of the same club, and Ward and Comors, of the New York nine, are also said to have been lured away on promises of big salaries. The American association has suffered severely by the raids made upon its players. Charles J. Gleason, Taylor, Dickerson, D. Rowe, and M. Mansell have broken their contracts and signed for St. Louis. In Cincinnati the new association began its work by acquiring the grounds of the old Cincinnati club, the only accessible location in the city, thereby dispossessing the club. This is the rival association, particularly as the grounds are close to each other, and the Porcupine managers will leave nothing undone to obtain suitable grounds for the ex-champions. The war will be a bitter one, and more than likely result in the success of the older club, which can better afford to reduce the price of admission, as they have no enormous salaries to pay.

Nothing is yet known as to what players the Cincinnati, Washington, or Boston clubs have in view, the managers being very reticent on the subject. The Chicago and Baltimore teams are made up of players procured from the Northwestern and Alliance associations. Some, it is said, were secured by false representation, and one of them (Gunning) refused to abide by the contract, and signed with the Boston league team. The outlook for honest, hard work on the diamond during the coming season is not very promising, at least among the Union clubs, if the same methods are carried out as were employed in the foregoing.

"But then, money will do most anything," said a gentleman acquainted with the facts. "For the last eight years base ball has been free from the evils that beset it before that time. The very rules which the league was the most strenuous in observing, holding the players to their contracts, and forbidding their hiring by rival clubs, players reserved by the tripartite agreement have been upset by the new combination. The chances for square work among the club members can hardly be expected, if they follow the example set them by their managers."

Judge Hamer. Governor Dawes has commissioned Francis G. Hamer, of Kearney, judge of the 10th judicial district, in the place of Samuel L. Savidge, deceased. This appointment was anticipated by all. Mr. Hamer had the endorsement of the Kearney bar, and the powerful aid of John M. Thurston and The Omaha Republican.

Mr. Hamer is an able and successful lawyer, and is, without doubt, the most capable man, in legal attainments, who has occupied a seat on the bench in this district. Last fall, Mr. Hamer was an anti-monopolist, and stamped this country against the republican ticket and was abused terribly, and had all sorts of epithets heaped upon him by the Hon. John M. Thurston and The Omaha Republican, and in turn, Mr. Hamer denounced them as hiring railroad tools and cappers. This fall Mr. Hamer worked in harmony with them, John M. Thurston is still the political attorney of the U. P. road, and Fred Nye, editor of The Republican, is still the retained and paid mouth-piece of the U. P. road. They endorse Mr. Hamer, and emphatically demanded his appointment as a matter of right and justice. Now the question will naturally arise: "Has John M. Thurston and The Omaha Republican joined the Anti-Monopoly party, and determined fight against railroad aggression in future, or has Frances G. Hamer joined the monopoly railroad power and determined to aid them in the future, as against the best interest of the people?" One or the other of these propositions are true. It cannot be otherwise. We hope, however, that Thurston and Nye have determined to leave the U. P. service. We hope to hear that Thurston has resigned his position as political attorney for the U. P. road, and engaged with Judge Hamer to fight the battles of the people against oppression and wrong. We also hope and expect to hear that Fred Nye has turned The Republican into an anti-monopoly newspaper and see an editorial therein acknowledging that his vile and personal abuse of Hamer and Conner, last year, was villainous and infamous, but that he had to do it in deference to the demands of his owners, but now asks pardon and forgiveness for the same because he has ascertained that Judge Frances G. Hamer is a pure, true and unswerving anti-monopolist, and propose to rise or fall in a hand to hand struggle with giant corporations, who seek to rob labor of its just reward. Reader, how long do you think it will be until our hopes are realized?

THE NECESSITY

FOR THE SPECIALIST.

DR. H. WAGNER,

Has long been acknowledged and more so at this day than ever increasing, and its numerous branches are brought nearer and nearer to perfection, and no one can any longer guard them all. Hence the necessity for dividing the labor. It is true beyond all doubt that disease, affecting the genital-urinary organs, need special study more than anything else, if we would understand and know how to treat them properly.

Dr. H. WAGNER is fully aware that there are many physicians, and some sensible people, who will condemn him for making this class of diseases a specialty, but he is happy to know that with most persons of refinement and intelligence a more enlightened view is taken of the subject. He knows that an individual who devotes himself to relieving the sufferer from worse than death, is no less a philanthropist and benefactor to his race than the surgeon or physician who by close application excels in any other branch of his profession. And fortunately for humanity, the day is dawning when the false philanthropy that condemned the victims of folly or crime, like the hebrew under the Jewish law, to die uncared for has passed away.

A Few Reasons

Why you should try the celebrated Dr. H. Wagner's medicine of cure, and its numerous branches are brought nearer and nearer to perfection, and no one can any longer guard them all. Hence the necessity for dividing the labor. It is true beyond all doubt that disease, affecting the genital-urinary organs, need special study more than anything else, if we would understand and know how to treat them properly.

1. "Dr. H. Wagner is a natural physician." 2. "The Greatest Relief." 3. "Few can excel you as a doctor." 4. "The World's Greatest." 5. "You are wonderfully proficient in your knowledge of disease and medicine." 6. "The afflicted find relief in your presence." 7. "Dr. H. Wagner is a regular graduate from Bellevue Hospital, New York City, and has had very extensive hospital practice, and is thoroughly posted on all branches of his beloved science, especially on chronic diseases." 8. "The Doctor's long experience as a specialist should render him very successful." —Rocky Mountain News.

Plain Facts Plainly Spoken. At one time a discussion of the secret vice was entirely avoided by the profession, and medical works of but a few years ago would hardly mention it. Today the physician is of a different opinion; he is aware that it is his duty—irrespective though it may be to handle this matter without gloves and speak plainly about it; and intelligent parents and guardians will thank him for doing so.

The results attending this destructive vice were formerly not understood, or not properly estimated; and an importance being attached to a subject which by its nature does not invite close investigation, it was willfully ignored.

The habit is generally contracted by the young while attending school; other companions through their example, may be responsible for it, or it may be acquired through society. The excitement now experienced, the practice will be repeated again and again, until at last the habit becomes firm and completely inveterate. Mental and nervous affections are usually the primary results of self-abuse. Among the injurious effects mentioned are: lassitude, dejection or irascibility of temper and general debility. The boy seeks seclusion, and rarely joins in the sports of his companions. For You, Madam, Whose Complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of Complexion. We say use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It is a delicate, harmless and delightful article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.
