

HOW O'DONNELL DIED.

Calm Firmness for the Last Act in Life's Great Drama.

The Condemned Man Makes No Statement from the Scaffold as Expected.

Boisterous Weather and a Crowd Out to See the Black Flag Raised.

The Brother's Sad Walk Before the Gloomy Prison Walls.

Reged Admission that He was an Invincible.

THE PENALTY PAID.

O'DONNELL HUNG AT 8 THIS MORNING. NEWGATE PRISON, London, December 17.—O'Donnell was hanged at two minutes past eight o'clock this morning.

O'DONNELL'S LAST SUNDAY.

LONDON, December 16.—James O'Donnell passed a good night, and continues cheerful. His appetite is fair, and he enjoys smoking more than eating.

THE POLICE LEAVING DUTY.

The police leaving duty at the prison this evening report that O'Donnell continues firm as a rock. Every one is much impressed with his nerve.

A SILENT SCARE.

The police to-night assert that the British government is informed from New York that a strong, well-organized party of American revolutionaries left New York November 29 aboard the steamer Assyrion.

A CONFESSED INVINCIBLE.

It is published that O'Donnell yesterday, for the first time since he killed Carey, admitted practically that he was an invincible. The admission was made to his brother, and by him divulged in an interview with his brother yesterday evening.

STATEMENT ON THE SCAFFOLD.

According to his brother, O'Donnell intends to make the following statement upon the scaffold: "I killed James Carey, the informer. I am not sorry for killing him, and never have been; not only that, but all of London's wealth would not buy or induce me to give anyone away."

THE LAST FAREWELL.

LONDON, December 17.—Masses will be said at 8 o'clock this morning in the various Catholic churches for the repose of O'Donnell's soul. The local news agency states that at the farewell visit of O'Donnell's brother to him Saturday the men conversed half an hour.

Ireland and would die like a brave man. O'Donnell's brother was desirous of burying the body in consecrated ground and was horrified to learn that the remains must be interred in the prison yard.

The machinery of the senate will be put in working order during the week. Resolutions to proceed to the election of officers will be introduced Monday or Tuesday. Should this come to-morrow it will go over, under objection from the democratic side, until Tuesday, on which day a caucus of democratic senators will doubtless be held to decide on their action in respect to the organization. The most trustworthy opinions expressed as to the course of the democrats are to the effect that they will not attempt to delay action on the caucus nominees of the republicans beyond the time necessary to deliver a few speeches on civil service reform as exemplified by a proposition to eject democratic officials. In reply the republicans will justify their course by precedents established by their opponents. The discussion may continue two or three days. The remainder of the week until Friday night will be consumed in discussion of the new code of rules which is not likely to be disposed of until after the holiday recess.

THE FIRE RECORD.

WEeping WATER LOSES $13,000.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE BEE.

WEeping WATER, Neb., December 16.—The Commercial bank and Kleaky's store were burned to-night. The alarm was sounded about 6:12 this evening. Everything was got out of the bank except the safe. The insurance barely covers the loss which is estimated at about $3,000 on the building and $10,000 on the stock.

DUBOIS, PA., HAS A SEVERE VISITATION.

DUBOIS, Pa., December 16.—This morning, just as people were returning from church, flames were discovered on the second floor of the American house. The fire department was promptly on hand, but the engines used to pump the water supply were idle, and before steam could be raised the fire had gained such control that nothing short of a miracle, it was thought, could save the town from utter destruction.

ST. LOUIS FIRES.

ST. LOUIS, December 16.—The St. Louis gluehouse works, situated north of East St. Louis, were burned to-night. Loss on works, $40,000; on stock, $10,000; insurance, $30,000.

A TEXAS BLAZE.

GALVESTON, December 16.—A Cora-cana special says: Seven business houses on Collin street were burned this morning, causing an aggregate loss of $69,000; insurance, $49,000. Supposed incendiary.

TWO LIVES AND $80,000 LOST.

HALEPAH, December 16.—The Queen building was burned this morning. It was occupied for insurance and brokers' offices. V. Gibson, clothing, the Spanish consule, and other offices. The loss is $80,000; insurance, $50,000.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.

NEW ORLEANS, December 16.—J. D. Houston, now in the parish prison, makes the following statement. As chairman of the executive campaign committee of the McEnery faction of the democratic party it was my duty on the day of the recent election to receive all complaints and visit the various polling places through the city.

SPORTING NOTES.

THE ST. LOUIS JUNE RACES.

ST. LOUIS, December 16.—The St. Louis Jockey club announces nine stake races for their meeting, to commence Wednesday, June 11, as follows: Coquette stakes for two year old fillies, five furlongs; St. James hotel stake, for two year olds, three-quarters of a mile; Merchants' Exchange stake, for three year old fillies, one mile and a furlong; Southern hotel stake, for three year olds, one mile and a quarter; Missouri Derby, for three year olds, one mile and a half; Brewer's cup, for all ages, two and a quarter miles; The Turf cash handicap, one mile and a furlong; Citizens' plate, for all ages, one mile and a quarter; cash handicap, steeple chase, two miles. The races will be run under the American racing rules adopted at Louisville last month. Entries will close January 15. There will also be two or more purse races each day.

BRILLIANT BILLIARDS.

LONDON, December 16.—In the billiard contest Garner scored 600, Daly 553. The latter made a run of 309. The scores to-night were, Garner 1,200, Daly 1,157.

LAWRENCE, KAN., IN MOURNING.

LAWRENCE, Kan., December 16.—The news of the death of Dudley C. Haskell, member of congress from this district, was received in this city, which was his home, with the deepest feeling of grief. The intelligence was a shock to the whole community and has cast the darkest gloom over the city. He was born in Springfield, Vt., came to Lawrence in 1844, and most of his life since then has been here. He was one of the most prominent citizens in social, political and religious circles. His untimely taking off just when he had won a national reputation and in the prime of life is a serious blow to Kansas. His remains will be sent here for interment, but the date is not fixed.

A Very Close Call.

FARGO, Dak., December 16.—The fire which destroyed Mrs. Chevette's boarding house in Morehead, yesterday, spread so rapidly that the inmates with great difficulty escaped in their night clothes. Most of them were more or less burned. Robert Dodge, Hugh Finn, Wm. Fletcher, Mrs. Chevette, James Ward and Guy Wetherell were seriously burned or injured while jumping from a second story window.

For You, Madam,

Whose Complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of Complexion, we say use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It is a delicate, harmless and delightful article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.
