

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA. Wednesday Morning, Jan. 16.

The Weather. For the Missouri valley: Fair; generally warmer weather; southerly winds shifting westerly and falling barometer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A party of men, "made up" in Chinese costumes, were serenading a number of sailors Monday. At each place they visited they were furnished with drinks, provided they would not attempt to sing again.

The eight leaders at the city jail are not so numerous since the moderation in the weather. They are informed that these are not bad nights to do the long watch on the corner.

There will be prayer and praise meetings at the Baptist church, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings; also prayer and business meeting on Wednesday evening, at 7:30. A cordial invitation extended to all.

There will be revival meetings in the German Methodist church this week every night, corner Twelfth and Jackson streets. A cordial invitation is given to German friends of Omaha. Strangers are welcome.

A very pleasant party was given by the Metropolitan club last night, at Masonic hall. About forty couples participated in the festivities and had a very enjoyable time. A programme of sixteen numbers were danced. Supper was served. The Musical Union orchestra furnished the music. The club will soon give a large party.

There will be special services every evening of this week at the Eighteenth Street M. E. church, corner California and Eighteenth streets. The First M. E. church pastor and people will unite. The object of these meetings is the quickening of sinners and conversion of sinners. An invitation to come is extended to all to work and go good. News, Savage and Leonard, pastors.

The preliminary examination of Vic and John McCarthy, Orest and Wm. Petty, and Wm. Hyde, charged with burglarizing a B. & M. freight train in December last, held before W. F. Martin, J. P. of Bellevue, was concluded Saturday night, and resulted in the holding of Vic McCarthy and Orest Petty to await the action of the grand jury, bail being fixed at $1,000. Wm. Hyde turned state's evidence, and was held as a witness, his bail being fixed at the same amount. R. V. Breckenridge, for the complaining witnesses and Chas. R. Redick, acting district attorney, represented the state, and Col. E. F. Smythe, the defendants.

The board of trade is going to work to earn in the matter of the erection of a market house and a building for their own occupancy. The latter they would like to locate on the vacant lot on the southeast corner of Sixteenth and Farnam and the former they are disposed to put up on Capitol avenue somewhere between Ninth and Sixteenth streets. The committee has been offered $1,000 bonus by the citizens on one block and they will go where they can get the most money. The location is quite important and it is to be hoped will be pretty well up town. The new president, Mr. Falconer, will infuse some of his energy into the other members of the board and it is confidently expected that some splendid work will be done this year.

In our report of the financial condition of the Western Steam Heating company Monday, we made quite a serious mistake. The figures should have been: Assets, $26,000; liabilities, $22,000, mainly in book accounts. The company yesterday made satisfactory arrangements and will continue in business as heretofore. Several skilled workmen from the works of the Haxton Steam Heating company, Kewanee, Ill., have been employed, and the company are now in better shape to do work than they ever have before. The temporary embarrassment was due to the fact that they had put in heating apparatus for several large concerns in this city and throughout the state, and the money due the company for said work was not forthcoming at the time when promised. In justice to the company it should be said that they are solvent and no further trouble will follow.

POLICE COURT.

A Crazy Girl Before His Honor. Charged With Disturbance of the Peace.

Monday evening as officers Matza and Turnbull were standing on the corner of Eleventh and Douglas streets, a girl by the name of Meta Robinson approached. Just before reaching the officers she stooped down and picked up a rock from the ground, and while Matza was standing with his back to her, she attempted to strike him with the rock, but was prevented by Turnbull, who caught her arm. The two officers then arrested her and started for the jail. On the way she made a terrible noise, and was followed by a large crowd of people, yesterday morning she was arraigned in police court, charged with disturbing the peace. The judge was satisfied that she was insane and released her. She is half negro.

THEATRE COMIQUE.

Another racket occurred at the theatre Comique Monday night. The row was between Ted Huth and Jack Nugent's boy, Will. Huth is the stage carpenter, and after having had some words, he slapped young Nugent. A shower of beer glasses then followed, one of which struck Huth upon the head, cutting quite a gash. His eyes were also blacked, and his hitthery fair features, considerably scarred. He was then arrested and young Nugent filed a complaint against him for assault and battery. In police court this morning the judge fined him $5 and costs.

Keys-Van Orman.

Mr. George Keys, train agent on the U. P. railway, between Omaha and Council Bluffs, and Miss Annie Van Orman were married Monday at four o'clock by Rev. E. S. Blayne, at the residence of the bride's parents.

The many friends of the groom in railway ranks and of the bride in social and musical circles will unite in congratulating them upon the step they have taken.

From Charles Turner: Calling attention to an error in the assessment of the special gutting and curbing tax on lot 3, block 153, on Harney street. Referred.

A number of bills were received and referred without reading.

From property owners on Dodge street: Asking that action in regard to the paving of that street be deferred for the present to allow further consideration of the respective merits of granite and asphalt.

Anderson, Redfield, Behm and Leeder had quite a spirited discussion in regard to the matter, and it was claimed that some of the signatures were forged.

On motion it was laid on the table.

From the chairman of the board of public works, transmitting estimates and bills. Approved.

From G. W. Homan: Asking permission to put hay scales in the alley in the rear of his stables. Referred.

Petitions for paving Ninth street, Cummings street, South Thirteenth street, North Thirteenth street and districts numbers 21, 24, 25, 19, 20, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 23.

Moved and seconded that when this council adjourn, it adjourn until Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Carried.

The petitions were all deferred until that time.

Resolved, That the board of public works make the necessary repairs on the North Omaha sewer at once. By Anderson; adopted.

Resolved, That the street commissioner be and is hereby directed to remove the stone from in front of Thomas O'Conner's residence on Twelfth street, between Farnam and Howard. It is by Gaskin; adopted.

Resolved, That the city engineer be directed to report to the council the amount of money required to pave the streets and alleys in and about the United States custom house and postoffice, giving the number of yards, price, etc. By Redfield; adopted.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The judiciary committee reported that the judgment in favor of F. C. Foster was correct, and recommended payment. Adopted.

From judiciary committee relative to the cost of paving certain streets, and recommending that petition of Capt. Marsh in regard to the paving between street railway tracks. Adopted.

ORDINANCES.

Ordering the curbing and guttering of certain streets in the city of Omaha was passed.

An End to Bone Scraping. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Eloc's Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humankind know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Eloc's Bitters and never boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

THE GLEE CLUB.

Assisted by Miss Hope Glenn, Gave a Very Pleading Concert Last Evening.

The announcement, a few weeks ago, that the Omaha Glee club were intending soon to give another of their popular concerts was sufficient to incite a desire, within all lovers of music in Omaha and vicinity, to be present at the recital. The club always endeavor to make their concerts as enjoyable as possible and, engage some noted vocalist to vary their programme and serve as an extra inducement to the critical public. The first concert of the series of 1883-84, at which time Mrs. Amy Sherwin won the merited praise and admiration of all who were fortunate enough to hear her, proved a pleasing success, and convinced the gentlemen that they must secure the services of another sweet singer, and offer the public another musical treat. This time it was to be Miss Hope Glenn, the lady with the beautiful contralto voice, who has been gaining much honor and more than pleasing her hearers wherever she has appeared.

Letters and telegrams have been received daily by the Opera house managers, asking that seats be reserved for people out of town, and the sale of seats to citizens was also quite large.

Shortly after eight o'clock last evening the gas was turned on, the large chandelier was lighted, and the eyes of the observer looked upon a sea of luxuriance, beauty and wealth. The large audience, assembled to enjoy the programme that had been prepared, presented a beautiful and varied appearance. Bright and sombre colors blended in beautiful harmony, diamonds flashed and beauty smiled. Taken as a whole the scene was one not soon to be forgotten by any who gazed thereon. Though the audience was kept waiting a short time for the curtain to rise, no one seemed impatient at the delay, and when the bell rung and it slowly rose from the floor, all eyes were turned upon the stage. The active members of the club, twenty-seven in number, were seated on the stage, all in the most beautiful and artistic costumes, each with a tiny bouquet on his coat and very pleasing was the appearance they made. In a moment the director, Franklin S. Smith, and the accompanist, Mr. Martin Cahn, walked to their respective places, the chorus rose and took their position on the front of the stage and began a programme which, though short, was a most enjoyable one and pleased all hearers. Miss Glenn was very warmly received and all departed thoroughly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

A QUIET WEDDING.

A Pretty and Popular Plattsmonth Girl Gobbled by an Omahog.

Plattsmonth Herald, 15th. A quiet wedding occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Dr. W. H. Schildknecht, the contracting parties being Miss Lizzie Schildknecht and Frank T. Davis, formerly of this city, but now with L. B. Williams & Co., at Omaha. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. M. Esterbrook, of the M. E. church, in the presence of a number of friends of the bride and groom. Notwithstanding the fact that the event was known to but few in this city, a number of handsome presents were received. The happy couple left for Omaha last evening, after joining in a richly prepared wedding feast. Frank has thrifty and economy to back him in making him a pleasant and comfortable home for his bride, and we hope with their many friends, that their brightest hopes may be realized. Though it was understood there would be no presents, they received the following:

Set of solid gold jewelry for the bride from her brother, Silver butter knife, from Ettie Schildknecht, sister of bride, with white ribbon, Silver butter dish, Mrs. Waybright. Silver pickle stand, Mr. Merges. Silver sugar shell and butter knife in case, Misses Frankie and Eva Knapp. Majolica fruit set, dish and a half dozen plates, Mr. and Mrs. Sprulock.
