-At the Thirteenth street crossing yesterday. a young man attempted to cross between two freight cars, by stepping upon the draw heads. Just as his foot rested upon the link, the engine, which was at one end of the train was slacked back, catching his foot and giving it quite a severe squeezing. The sole was torn from his boot, and as he limped away he inwardly resolved to take the safe way in the future and crawl under.

.-The machinery for lighting the Millard hotel arrived yesterday. Mr. Sperry is in the city for the purpose of putting in the "plant" and will have the light in operation by Saturday. There will be ten lights in and around the Millard hotel, as follows: Two in the office, two in the billiard hall, two in the dining room, one in the bar room, one in the hallway and two upon the outside of the house.

-Mrs. Ritter the woman who was described in The Ber sometime since, has "lit" out and her husband, who arrived in this city Tuesday is unable to find her. She skipped out and left him at Cedar Falls, Iowa, and at the same time carried off about $1,100 of his money. It will be remembered that she claimed to be from Rochester, Minn., when she first made her advent in the city, and also that she claimed to have been robbed of $50 by a traveling companion.

THEY ARE AFTER HIM

On a Clear Trail, and Cannot Help But Catch On.

About one month ago a young man named G. W. Siebenstein, who was engaged by Mr. P. A. Gavin, book and staticnery dealer of this city, to take the road for him as traveling agent, it seems first took in the town of Fremont and canvassed by sample. The price of the books were $6 each, and $1 was to be paid down upon first delivery of the same, and $1 per month afterward until full payment had been made. In Fremont he received quite a number of orders, and among them one from Mr. J. F. Gabler, who is now in Omaha. After the delivery of first book he went about, and re-collected those of his deliv-ais subscription to the work, and refunded to him the book when asked for it upon the reasons above stated, supposing all would be right.

Mr. Gabler, in addition to his subcription fee, is also out on this modern 'Canada Bill' two first-class passages to Fremont, inasmuch as the young "cuisi" was busted. The book which Mr. Gabler bought and paid for was intended for a lady friend of his at Fremont for a New Year's gift, and Mr. Gabler feels quite sore that he was so much disappointed, and in defense of himself had to purchase another gift at renewed expense—of course Mr. Gabler never mentioned this, inasmuch as he is an extremely modest young gentleman, until Mr. Gavin secured the services of officers, and then Mr. Gavin promptly refunded to Mr. Gabler the book which he had lost by the treachery of his traveling agent.

He left Fremont with all the books and money secured. He is indebted to Mr. Gavin, his em reeper at Blair, $20 or more.

And, upon inquiry, since learning the above facts from a friend of ours, there are numerous smaller accounts about town vet unpaid. If caught he will probably join the gang of the two "quack" doctors.

FACTS FROM FREMONT.

Ascendant.

A New Rallroad and Other Matters.

Correspondence of the BEE. FREMONT, January 30 .- Our beautiful city is thronged with Grand Army boys, who are here as delegates from the varions posts in the state, attending the executive encampment. Most of the posts are represented by their full delegation of select representatives. Over 300 delegates responded to roll call, and the report of Department Commander J. C. Bonnell showed the Nebraska department in a most prosperous condition. New posts are being organized in all parts of the state, and old posts are constantly receiving new members. In the past year over sixty new posts were organized and over 2,000 new members were added to the roll of Nebraska's Grand Army boys. The council or encampment will close its work to-day. The principal work and strife appears to be in selecting officers and the place for ery upon the required supposition that he needed them, as his samples were short.

Mr. J. F. Gabler paid him in full for the destined place.

THE SOILED DOVES GO. For som time The Tribune of this city has been making vigorous war on the sporting houses of our city. It's werk has had the desired effect, as yesterday several of the madams were officially es corted to police headquarters and required to put up a fine of $5 each and costs, and advised by his honor to prepare to depart from our city at once. Our city fathers, in council last night, authorized chief of police to see that all houses rented to such women should be vacated within twenty-four hours, or the extremest penalty of our law would be administered on the owners of such property. Our citizens say amen to such vigorous work to purify the moral influences of our city.
