

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, March 6.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 50 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page. The city council meets this evening. Admission to the lecture to-night, 25c.

New spring goods just received at J. Reiter's, the tailor, 310 Broadway.

Alderman Keating yesterday received tarantulas from California.

The case of Bond vs. the Wabash railway was argued in the circuit court yesterday.

It is reported that Capt. Hayes, late of the police force, is the coming chief of police.

William Sears, of the Council Bluffs bar, was booked for a lecture at Crescent last night.

Leave to marry was yesterday given Fred Kruckenberg and Caroline Albontus, both of Shelby.

The Odd Fellows now purpose building a fine temple, if they can purchase a site to suit and at a price to suit.

Those who saw "The World" at the new opera house speak well of the scenery, and there their praise stops.

Wm. Johnson, for getting drunk and smashing glass in a Broadway saloon was yesterday fined $8.55 in police court.

The delinquent saloonists, gamblers and prostitutes, were called in yesterday to pay the city its share of the profits.

Fred Kruckenberg and Christina Albertus both of Shelby county, were yesterday joined in wedlock by Justice Schurz.

The dynamo has arrived here for the additional electric lights. Now with sufficient power the city will be pretty well supplied.

In the circuit court yesterday the divorce case of Jennings vs. Jennings was heard, and the woman given a decree on account of cruelty.

Complaint was lodged before Justice Schurz yesterday charging Stella Long with assaulting Frank Colyer and A. Colyer. She will have a hearing on the 7th.

The citizens should not delay taking advantage of the wonderfully low prices offered in another column by the water-works company. Next Monday the time is up.

Bertha Wellaby appears at the new opera house Friday and Saturday evenings in "Oliver Twist," and at the Saturday matinee in "The Lady of the Camelias."

A fire alarm and new hose are among the pressing needs of this city. Delay in procuring them may result as disastrously as did the delay in placing a hose cart on lower Main street.

The city council, in purchasing a $600 lot of Alderman James for a horse-cart house, should make him credit up on the lot the $100 back pay which he drew. That would leave only $500 to pay.

Mrs. W. J. Jameson died at her home in Creston quite suddenly yesterday morning. Mr. A. D. Temple, who is associated with Mr. Jameson in the United States Masonic Benefit association, went to Creston yesterday to arrange for the funeral.

Since the first of January there have been 63 new telephones added to the Omaha list, 35 to the Lincoln list, and only 13 to the Council Bluffs list. The gain in Council Bluffs will continue to be very slow, until the management of affairs here is put on an efficient business basis.

Judge J. G. Larimer, brother of Hon. A. V. Larimer, of this city, died at Bellefontaine, Pa., a few days ago, aged 60 years. He was at the time of his death one of the associate justices of the court of common pleas and ex-terminer in Center county.

A. B. Keith, of the Crawford county Bulletin, went to Washington recently and says in its write up: "Mr. Pusey is working hard and quietly. He is confident of securing legislation beneficial to the district before congress shall have adjourned."

There are said to be three aspirants for the position of justice of the peace, now occupied by Mayor-elect Vaughan. The three named are J. C. Rhoadbeck, M. G. Griffin and John Jay Frainey. Petitions in the interest of some are being circulated. Vaughan has not resigned yet, and it is said that he will not resign, it being claimed that he can legally hold both offices.

Next Sunday evening Rev. J. G. Le-men is to give an address especially to young men, aiming to give them some practical thoughts which will help and benefit them. The address will doubtless be as interesting as it is helpful, and Secretary Curtis, together with other workers and members of the Y. M. C. A., are expected to be present.

Ed Cook, a gentleman of tint, was arrested yesterday for obtaining $150 under false pretenses. It appeared that Cook is a sort of boss over some department of a hotel, and among his help was one Payne, whom he owed a little money to. Cook was in the habit of drawing the wages of the help and taking it to them, and when Payne pressed him for the personal debt he went to the office, drew $150 for Payne, had it charged to him, and then paid it over on his personal debt. Justice Abbott concluded it was not a case of obtaining money under false pretenses, but of paying money under false pretenses, and accordingly discharged him.

W. C. Bryan, who was charged before Justice Abbott with owing a bill at the Pacific house, was yesterday found guilty and fined $25. The hotel men claimed that Bryan guaranteed the payment of the bills of a base ball club that stopped at the hotel, and that the bill amounting to $54 was not paid.

Yesterday one of the justices was called upon to marry a couple, the frisky groom being 55 years of age and the blushing bride being 70. In closing the ceremony he made up for not kissing the bride by wishing the newly wedded ones a long and happy life and many olive-branches.

The committee on invitation of Hawkeye Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 184, wish to announce that through some unavoidable accident a number of invitations for their ball, to be held at Bloom & Nixon's hall, to-night, have not reached their destination. Those desiring an invitation will receive the same upon application to any member of the committee, or to H. Friedman, 321 Broadway. Odd Fellows and their families are respectfully invited without further invitation.

Miss Whitney won the first contest for graceful skating at the roller rink Tuesday night. It was decided by a vote of the audience. She received 77 votes, Miss Nason 63, Miss Palmer 56 and Miss Tostevin 55. Miss Tostevin met with some trips, which caused her to lose much in the contest. Judge Lyman presented the gold watch to Miss Whitney, the conditions being that next Tuesday evening she is to return it to be contested for again, and if she wins in two more contests it is to remain hers.

The passage of the prohibition law has caused the city officials and saloonists to consult as to what can be done to evade it. It is conceded that the selling will still go on here at least. The city wants the financial help derived from the license, and the saloon men want to have the number of places limited by some sort of a license, placed reasonably high. How to license saloons under a prohibitory law is the puzzle. Heretofore, the saloons have been licensed to sell wine and beer, and have sold under this everything. Now they cannot get even so much of a license as that. It will probably be fixed up on such a plan as is now being pursued in reference to the gamblers and prostitutes. They are brought before the court and put up whatever amount is agreed upon, and there the matter drops. Just how it will be evaded is puzzling all concerned, but that it will be evaded all may be assured.

The telephone company seem to think that almost anything will do for Council Bluffs folk, and then wonder why it is that the business is not more prosperous here, and the number of patrons more rapidly increased. Occasionally the local management makes a spur for the better, and then relaxes its efforts to satisfy the public, until a howl is raised, and then it braces up again if but only for a brief season. Of late the day management has been pretty good, but at night the telephone is of no use. The office has no night operator at all, and that is the very time when telephones are often needed most. In case of sickness or fire, or for a police call no dependence can be placed in the telephone, as there is no operator. There are one or two boys who sleep in the office, and by going to the office and kicking in the door, one may arouse one of these, but it is often further to the office than to carry the message to the place itself. If the telephone office was used as an office instead of a sleeping room, it would be a great improvement in the service.

Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the recorder's office, March 5, reported for THE BEE by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent:

Isaac Dickerson to D. W. Utley, s3 s3 13, and s3 ne3 24, 75, 38--$3,600.

J. C. James to City of Council Bluffs, part of 11, block 11, Bayliss' first addition--$600.

John Mollicant to P. J. Hammond, s3 s3 7, 7, 38--$3,400.

M. J. Curtis et al. to Geo. W. Wickerman, ne3 34, 74, 41--$4,320.

Brigham Graybill to John Riet, lots 14 15, 16, and 17, in block 8, Underwood--$140.

O. T. Smith to Wm. J. Conklin, lots 1 and 2, block 4, Huff's addition to Oakland--$100.

George Bruehn to Arent Bruehn, s3 s3 9, 7, 41--$1,120.

Total sales, $13,280.

Sullivan To-Night. A meeting was held last evening at the residence of Rev. Father McMenomy to complete arrangements for the lecture to be delivered this evening by Hon. A. Sullivan.

It was decided that the mayor of the city should preside, and that Rev. T. J. Mackay should introduce the speaker. The following were named as vice presidents: Judge Reed, Judge Lyman, J. P. Cassidy, J. N. Baldwin, W. J. Vaughan, W. C. James, J. M. Palmer, J. H. Keating, M. Keating, G. A. Holmes, Rev. T. J. Mackay, John Dohany, M. G. Griffin, J. A. Murphy, O. P. Wickham, J. B. Steadman, H. W. Tilton, J. J. Frainey, Charles F. Best, Jerry Sullivan, W. A. Myester, and Rev. Father McMenomy.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate. Specific Virtues in Dyspepsia. DR. A. JENKINS, Great Falls, N. H., says: "I can testify to its seemingly almost specific virtues in cases of dyspepsia, nervousness and morbid vigilance or wakefulness."

Mrs. H. J. Hiller, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, 222 Middle Broadway, Council Bluffs.

OVER TO OMAHA.

About One Hundred Merry Skaters Spend the Evening Across the River.

Last evening a large and merry delegation of ladies and gentlemen, mostly patrons of the roller skating rink here, went over to Omaha to enjoy an evening there, and to return the visit recently made by the Omahas to the rink here. There were nearly a hundred in the party, and they left here with flying colors, headed by the Bavarian band, discoursing lively music, and Manager Chapman happy in the success of the arrangements so wisely planned by him.

On reaching Omaha the party took the street cars to Fifteenth and Farnam streets where a procession was formed, headed by Mrs. Patten, Morgan and McMahon a committee from the Omaha rink and Mr. W. W. Chapman and Miss Marshall and marched to the rink. Among those who went over were Misses Tostevin, Whitney, Conover, Haddin, DeHaven, Mrs. and Miss Brewster, the Misses Bullard, Misses Morgan, Smith, Mayne, Oliver, Bowman, Amy, and Messrs. Davis, Tostevin, Cassidy, Bush, Copeland, Nason, Squires, Withers, Brown, Porterfield, Shaw, Wall and Sherman.

After spending an enjoyable evening they returned on the dummy, which was held until 10:30 p. m., and arriving in this city at a little after 11 o'clock, all well pleased with their trip and reception by the Omaha skaters.

CAPTURE OF RICHMOND. The Gallant Mayor of That Name Wedded to Miss Plumer.

Yesterday afternoon there was a quiet happy wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Plumer, about eight miles south of the city, the wife being their daughter Miss Theresa Priscilla Plumer, and the happy man Major George H. Richmond. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Mackey, rector of the Episcopal church, and the company present was limited to the relatives, and a very few intimate friends. Among the relatives from elsewhere was a brother of the bride, Dr. Andrew Plumer of St. Louis, and a sister of the groom from Honlan. The occasion was a modest but none the less joyous one, and the gifts bestowed were marked for their elegance rather than numbers, they being from a heavy cash check down to an illustrated edition of Shakespeare. The congratulations and well-wishes to those expressed by those present, but will be shared in by many in this community where the worthy couple are so well known.

The newly wedded ones left on a brief trip to Chicago, and to Wisconsin. Major Richmond's old home, the groom is an alumnus of the state university of Madison, and has relatives and many friends in the southern part of the state. Major Richmond, for ten years or over, served as a civil engineer in the army, and under General Meyer, helped locate many of the signal service stations, and for several years was an engineer on the Northern Pacific. Of late he has been connected with Richmond Bros.' wholesale house in this city.

The worthy woman thus won by him, is one of a family who have long resided here and who are widely known. The name of the township was derived from that family name. Her grandfather, who died a year or two ago, in his ninetieth year, was a survivor of the battle of Waterloo, where with the Hanoverians, he fought with Wellington, and at one time, while attached as a servant to an officer he was in the presence of Napoleon himself and saw him face to face.

Major Richmond and his bride will on his return from their eastern trip be welcomed heartily to a residence in this city, and it is to be hoped that their home here may be as permanent as it surely will be happy.

Order flowers for weddings and funerals from W. H. Foster, Harrison street.
