It is understood this grain is for export.

MR, VINING SUMMONED. Chicago Times, 25th.

Commissioner Vining, of the Western Trunk Line association, left last evening for Boston, having been summoned to appear at the conference to be held to-morrow between the committees from the Burlington and Union Pacific directories. Announcement has been made of the practical settlement, at the conference last week, of the differences between the two roads regarding Nebraska business, and it was reliably reported yesterday that the conference this week would take up the Colorado troubles. From the fact that Mr. Vining made the cut of his own free will, and for a reason which he has not yet announced, it was deemed necessary that he should appear before fairly be doubted if any man in the west the committee and explain his reason for manugurating the present Colorado war.

President Perkins, of the Burlington, is in Boston and will be sold through the present colorado war. in Boston, and will participate in the conference.

Boston, March 23 .- The committee of directors of the Union Pacific and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railways to-day attempted to adjust differences at competitive Nebraska points. Certain information was lacking, without which it was impossible to arrive at a settlement, and an adjournment was therefore had until the facts could be obtained.

THE PIRST STEP.

a few weeks ago, J. F. Barnard, general superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs road, has been appointed general manager of the Han-nibal & St. Joseph, vice John B. Carson, who resigned several weeks ago. His headquarters will remain at St. Joseph, the Council Bluffs road. The appointment will take effect April 1 This is but the beginning of a general consolidation of the several departments of the two roads, which has been decided upon by the Burlington agreement. The consolidation of the general freight and passenger departments, it is said, will follow as soon as practicable, so that the expense of maintaing separate managements can be done away with. S. K. Hooper and A. C. Dawes are general passenger agents, and W. H. McDoel and C. J. Swords, general freight agents of the Hannibal and Council Bluffs roads, respectively. All are recognized as first-class railroad men, and whichever pair is retired will be given equally good berths somewhere in the Burlington sys-

THE HOYT WILL CASE,

A Witness Testifies as to the Wife's Conduct After the Death of Her Husband.

NEW YORK, March 26 .- In the contest over the will of the late Jease Hoyt to day, Cornelius Van Santevoord was crossexamined by Conkling. Witness said he was never approached in regard to the certificate of death of Mr. Hoyt, or about what his malady was. He knew about his malady in a general way-that he had died of starvation. One day after the funeral witness went to the residence of Mrs. Hoyt with Samuel N. Hoyt, and read to her the provisions of the will, giving her $250,000. When the witness told Mrs. Hoyt what was provided for her, she said that was a much larger provision than she expected, and that she did not want so much. Witness then went to the Windsor hotel, where Mrs. Hoyt was stopping. He did not take Mrs. Hoyt near the window and look crowd, killing one man and wounding scrutinizingly in her face, or say in that several. connection, "You are no more crazy than any other member of the family." said she would not violate her word, and would go back with Dr. Hall and his wife to the asylum, as she had promised
