JUCGLING JUSTICE.

raged Citizens in Cincinnati.

of the Boy Murderer Berner.

Intent Also on Killing all the Criminals Within the Jail.

The Militia Called Out and Fire on the Defenseless Crowd.

Several Persons Mortally Wound- complishing their purpose. ed and Others Slightly Injured.

Cut the Fire Hose.

Life He Escapes Entirely. The History of the Brutal Murder Committed for Money by a

In an Endeavor to Save Berner's

A CINCINNATI MOB.

17-Year Old Boy.

THE RISING TIDE. CINCINNATI, March 28 .- The excite-Matthews this afternoon and sentenced tily. to the penitentiary for twenty years, being the full limit of the law. He started for Columbus in charge of a strong guard early this evening. TEN THOUSAND ANGRY PEOPLE.

CINCINNATI, March 28.—Ten thousand people gathered at Music hall to-night in response to a call by reputable citizens to take action on the Berner verdict. Many and in jail. could not get in. Strong resolutions ed Upon adjournment the vast crowd moved directly to the jail where they BEGAN AN ATTACK on the front door. At 9:40 the riot alarm was sounded summoning the entire police force to the jail. Vast crowds of people are gathering in that vicinity.

Berner was removed after his sentence other murderers will be lynched. The police upon arriving in the vicinity of the hurt. It was presumed they FIRED IN THE AIR.

pathy with the movement to condemn nition the mob are now in the outrageous Berner verdict. A shot or two was fired from the jail, but the crowd refused to move. They have a city. In a few minutes a greatly supegood leader. and are still (10 p. m.) at work at the jail door.

INSIDE THE JAIL.

CINCINNATI, March 28 .- At 11 p. m. reports from the jail say the crowd had got inside. Impossible yet to get information about their movements, because the streets around the court house and the stone wall of the jail yard I saw a disappeared. they had not yet reached the cell room. shot in the shoulder by a soldier at work at the doors. There was appardangering the life of lookers-on. The the other had no violence had been of- will fered to persons by the mob. Patrol surrounded by people."

THE MILITIA has been ordered out, but large numbers failed to appear. There is a general dis- Firing is still heard at intervals. position not to interfere with the mob. Nothing has yet been heard from Sheriff Hawkins, who is inside the court house and cannot be reached. Mayor Stephens is confined to his house by sickness, MILITIA IN THE JAIL.

CINCINNATI, March 28 -11:30 p. m -The First regiment, Ohio National Guard has just entered the jail, having been marched through the front entrance of the court house, thence through the tunnel into the jail, where the mob is thronging. It remains to be seen whether the militia will do anything to frustrate the purpose of she mob. The police inside the jail arrested some of the first members of the mob, but this soon became impracticable. The police refrained from using pistols.

BERNER AT LARGE.

CINCINNATI, March 28 .- It now appears that Berner after the sentence was disguised and placed in a buggy, with by a mob of about fifty, the leader of Deputy Sheriff Dominick Devoto, and which said they thirsted for revenge. It driven to Linwood, where they got aboard the Morrow accommodation and went to Loveland. It became known that Berner was at Loveland, and the crowd made a rush for Berner. He ran through the car and escaped and is still at large. FIRED ON BY THE MILITIA.

fired by the militia for the purpose of the most brutal murder of W. H. Kirk How it Raises a Mob of 10,000 En scaring the mob. The result was the idea of it may be gleaned from the following confessions of the two engaged in it, and the address to the jury by the fatal in case or two. Policeman Nunn counsel for the prosecution in the trial: and Private Cook are the worst hurt, the latter was shot in the breast. The volley seems to have checked the movement of They Besiege the Jail in Search the mob, though the crowds have not

BERNER THOUGHT TO BE LYNCHED. COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 28.—Passengers arriving here on the midnight train The Jail Set on Fire--Threats to from Cincinnati report that Berner, the murderer, en route to the penitetiary, was taken from the train by a large mob > een lynched. A FALSE FIRE ALARM.

at Loveland, and it is thought he has

1:30 p. m.—The fire engines responded to the a larm, but after much difficulty in getting near found the alarm false, occasioned by a bon fire built near the jail.
As the building is mainly of stone and iron it will be difficult to fire it from

AN ACTUAL CONFLICT.

It now appears there was an actual conflict between the mob and military, though still it is most likely the wounds ment over the Berner case is growing. of the police and military were inflicted by the fire of the latter when the inner It is now reported that an organization door between the reception room and the is forming among the Germans not only cell rooms was broken down. The milito hang Berner, but other prisoners in tary fired on the mob and Lew Kent, a laborer, a member of the mob, was killed, the jail charged with murder. William this seemed to break the spirit of the Berner was quietly brought before Judge mob, though they did not retire has-

A NUMBER OF BRICKBATS

were thrown by them at the soldiers and police, but there was not much bitterness of feeling displayed on either side. The greatly superior strength of the defenders of the jail over the unarmed and impromptu mob was so manifest when the former opened fire that it would have been utter folly to make any further effort. Twenty-live or thirty are arrested

The jailor's residence in the jail, which were adopted condemning the verdict. was entered by a portion of the mob, was A committee on legislation was appoint-rudely handled. Windows were broken and furniture smashed. From this a number of men made their way into the kitchen, thence to the lower sorridor. After the relinquishment of the main effort to get at the prisoners the mob lingered outside, throwing stones and brickbats at the windows. THE MOB IN THE ARMORY.

CINCINNATI, March 29-1:45 a.m.this afternoon, and is now on his way to the mob have broken into the armory Columbus, but if the mob gets in the of the Veteran regiment and taken the arms. More firing has been done at the jail. The mob are now looking for ammunition with a prospect of success. jail commanded the crowd to move; not The First regiment's armory has been being obeyed they fired, but no one was guarded for three nights in anticipation of this affair, but the Veteran regiment, of which Sheriff Hawkins is colonel, did not take the same precaution. For the It is said the police are deeply in sym- purpose of getting more arms and ammu-

THE EXTENSIVE GUN STORE of B. Kittredge & Co., the largest in the rior force to the military will be the jail, and serious results must follow. Some are talking about getting the cannon at the Music hall. HOW BERNER ESCAPED.

LOVELAND, Ohio, March 29 .- Berner when he escaped from the mob rushed through the ladies' car, knocking a woman down. A man shouted, "Train robber! Shoot him!" Four revolvers jail are jammed. A reporter of the As- were drawn but none fired. He jumped sociated Press says at 11 p. m.: "From off and ran to the river bank, where he CINCINNATI, March 29, 2:15 a. m .-

great crowd of men inside the jail, but Newton Cobb, of Manchester, Ohio, was They were well supplied with tools, and was on the sidewalk. The crowd claim ently no resistance to the mob, and on soldiers on the other hand fear the mob

BLOW UP THE JAIL wagons are standing in front of the jail, by rolling coal oil barrels into the basement and setting fire to them, and justified themselves in clearing the sidewalks on that account. I, is said a number of women were wounded by random shots. THE WOUNDED.

The firing by the soldiers from the windows has been very destructive. The following wounded have been gathered in a drug store and hotel near by: E. James Green, dying; is confined to his house by sickness.

by: E. James Green, dying;
leaving the sheriff wholly responsible for the preservation of order. except for the assistance of the chief of police.

by: E. James Green, dying;
Walter O. Fay, dying; James Turk, mortally wounded; F. Sachner, bad thigh wound; Dullef, shot in legs—all these bystanders; Jackson Tod, badly; Dr. Charles Muscraft, police surgeon slightly; Chris. Von Seggeon, special policeman, slightly. It is probable many slightly wounded have not been heard

> There is a bitter feeling against the soldiers. The mob has taken all the arms from Kittredge's store, including a SMALL CANNON, 3 A. M .- Loud reports from the vicinity of the jail indicate either that the mob is firing a cannon or that the barrels of coal oil are being exploded. The latter were rolled into the lower part of the jai some time ago. The mob has organized and marched up Main street just now with a fife and drum. The firing still continues with the

PROSPECT OF A BLOODY BATTLE. 3:15 a. m .- The firing of cannon was

does not appear that they have produced any effect. The police have full control of the jail, and the greater portion of the mob has dispersed. It is thought now that the work for the night is over, Joseph Stern, the member of the patrol wagon who was shot, is dead.

THE CRIME OF BERNER. The crime for which William Berner MIDNIGHT—About thirty shots were 24th of December last, and consisted of scaring the mob. The result was the in the latter's stable in Cincinnati. Some BERNER'S CONFESSIAN. My name is William Berner, I was seventeen last May. I was born in Cincinnati, and lived here with my father all my life. I have known Palmer for three years. Became acthe mob, though the crowds have not yet dispersed from without the jails. There does not seem to be any doubt that these wounds were inflicted by the guns of the soldiers. The mob made no effort to shoot so far as known,

THE JAIL AFIRE.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—12:45 a. m.—

The jail has been fired by the mob. The crowd on streets say they will cut the hose to prevent the fire department from extinguishing it. The mob seems to think a holocaust the only means of accomplishing their purpose.

BERNER THOUGHT TO BE LYNCHED. the station house to surrender myseir. Austing talked to me about Kirk being killed. I told him I had nothing to do with the murder, and I said the same thing to Colonel Reilly. Austing told me he was locking me up because I was not telling the truth.

THE DEVINE CONFESSION details how Berner and Palmer, having seen a large roll of bills in Kirk's possession, planned to dispose of him in order to get possession of it. Palmer, in the stable on the afternoon of December 24, declared that was their time, and struck Kirk over the head with a hammer from behind while Berner stood facing him. Palmer hit him again, and Berner dragged his body toward the back part of the store. Then Palmer and Berner both nit him over the head again with a club, and trying a rope around Painer and Berner both int him over the head again with a club, and tying a rope around his neck strangled him, one pulling at each end. They divided the money found on him after going to a vacant lot near by, and then procuring a wagon took the body out beyond camp Washington, where they dumped it beside the road.

Washington, March 28. — Senator Van Wyck's bill for the relief of settlers on lands on the Denver & St. Joe rail-road in Kansas and Nebraska, after a short discussion, passed the senate to-day. The land grant provided that

THE ADDRESS OF THE COUNSEL.

The counsel for the prosecution, at the time of the trial, first advised the jury that Berner had been jointly indicted with Palmer, and that the indictment contained five counts, the first for killing Kirk with a club; second, killing with a hammer; third, killing by strangling with a rope; fourth, killing in an attempt at robbery; fifth, killing in the PERPETRATION OF A ROBBERTY.

twenty minutes before 3 by Chas Haymen, at the Star stables, on Seventh street, near Central avenue; that he had secared some Christmas presents for his sister, Mrs. White, among which were two cups of jelly, which he placed in his overcoat pocket, which were found in the pocket when the coat was found in the stable upon the search, showing that Kirk had never left the stable after that Monday alive, as the Christmas presents were still in the coat pocket when it was found several days after Christmas; that Palmer and Berner were sent to come from the stables about 4 o'clock on Monday by John Neill; that they hired a wagon from Hayman to take goods to St. Bernard; that when the wagon was returned, at about 7:50 when the wagon was returned, at about 7:50 p. m., it had been washed, although p. m., it had been washed, although

BLOOD REMAINED ON THE TAIL-GAIT;
that Berner called at Bertrand's saloon, between 7:30 and 8 o'clock, and asked for a bucket and broom, after which the wagon was returned; that the proprietors of the livery returned; that the proprietors of the livery stable have identified both Berner and Palmer as the men who hired the wagon referred to: that they were seen separating from each other about 8 o'clock at the corner of Seventh and Central avenue; that the next seen of Berner was between 8 and 9 o'clock, when he called upon his sweetheart, Matilda Bauman, at her upen his sweetheart, Matilda Bauman, at her home in the rear of the building at John and Betts streets, and who had seen him when he entered the saloon to borrow the bucket and broom, at which time he carried a large whip in his hands; that he had not been in her house over twenty minutes or half an hour when he offered to loan, and did loan to a young man with whom he was there engaged in playing cards, the sum of 850, displaying a large roll of money at the time; that he after-

TOOK THE YOUNG LADY OUT purchased her a 87 necklace and a 87.50 and purcuased her a % necessace and a %.30 pair of bracelet, and upon the return gave the young lady's mother a %5 bill, with which to buy a Christmas present; that on Tuesday Berner presented Mrs. Bauman with a barrel of potatoes; that in the afternoon he went to Harris' museum, returned to the young lady's house for snpper, and that evening, in company with the young lady and others, went to Workmen's hall to attend an Odd Fellow's calabration this being Christmas night; that colebration, this being Christmas night; that they r mained there until a late hour, and from there went to a ball in progress at Wash-ington Park hall, on Race street, remaining until 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning, and returning from there to the young lady's house; that the next day he (Berner) called at the Baumans about noon and announced that he was going to Indiana; that he returned on Friday and was placed in Berner street. that he returned on Friday and was placed in Bremen street station, charged with this crime; that officers, under the direction of Berner, went to the stable in the alley, and under a pile of manure found the HAMMER AND ALSO THE CLUB, both of which were acknowledged by Berner both of which were acknowledged by Berner to be the instruments that caused the death of Wm Kirk; that when asked what had become of the money, he said it was at his home on Bremen street, claiming that it was so hidden that no one but himself could find it, even with directions from him; that he was then taken to his home in custody of officers, but at the door acknowledged that the money was not in the town but in his stocking. was not in the house, but in his stocking, from which he produced it. Upon these and other facts the state would rely for a convic-

The Mexican Excursion. CHICAGO, March 28. - The first through party from the city of a Mexico over the recently completed Mexican Central railway, arrived here from Kansas City this morning in special train over the Burlington road. The party was made up jointly of Americans who had been visiting the Mexican capitol, thirty students who left for Notre Dame university, in Indiana this morning and a few Mexican merchanta. The main body of travelers continued their journey eastward by the forenoon trains and the remainder of the contingent will stay for a time in this city. The run from the city of Mexico is made in five days. Divorce in Washington High Life. NEW YORK, March 28.-Roger M. Sherman, assistant U. S. district attorney, of this city, has brought suit in the supreme court against his wife, Florence B. Sherman, for a limited divorce, on the ground of abandonment. Mrs. Sherman is the daughter of the late Governor J. J. Bagley, of Michigan. The case was before the court to-day.

Buried With Bricks.

CINCINNATI, March 28 .- This morning a portion of the brick building on Central avenue which workmen were tearing down, fell, burrying five or six work men in the ruins. They were all sup-posed to be killed, but it is found four only are injured, and one missing, not thought any injured will die.

NEWS OF THE NATION.

OMAHA, NEB. SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 29, 1884.

of D. & St. Joe Settlers.

It Passes the Senate Yesterday, Returning $3.50 Per Acre.

The Foolish Fight for the Hennepin Canal Scheme.

The House Committee on Labor vs. Prison Contract Labor.

The Woman Suffrage Amendment Reported Favorably to the Senate.

Against McGarrahan's Claim.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

JUSTICE FOR D. AND ST. JO SETTLERS. pecial Dispatch to THE BEE.

Washington, March 28.-Van Wyck's bill, granting $3.50 per acre to settlers WASHINGTON, March 28. - Senator short discussion, passed the senate to-day. The land grant provided that when the road filed its maps with the interior department the secretary should take steps to withdraw the land from ettlement. The maps were filed in March, 1871, and the formal withdrawal of the lands took place some weeks later. Between the filing of the maps and the withdrawal of the lands a large number of actual settlers entered upon the lands. The point was raised that the filing of He said the state would prove the finding of Kirk's body by Adam Fisher, its appearance when found, and its identification by the sister, Mrs. White, and by Jehn Neil and Minnie Gray; that the last time Kirk was seen alive was by Strauss at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, at the corner of Seventh and Contral avenue, having also been seen about twenty minutes before 3 by Chas Haymen, at the Star stables, on Seventh street, near Central avenue; that he had second of the maps was a withdrawal of the lands, but the secretary of the interior decided in favor of the settlers, and issued patents for the lands. Ten years after the settlement, the supreme court decided against the settlers in a test case, and congress was appealed to for aid. The bill passed one house but failed to receive near Central avenue; that he had second or the lands. consideration in the other. The settlers became alarmed, and compromised the matter by the payment of $3 50 an acre. The appropriation of $250,000 made by this bill is to reimburse them for this outlay.

THE HENNEPIN HUMBUG.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE.
WASHINGTON, March 28.—The river and harbor commission to-day had up for consideration the proposition made by Murphy, of Iowa, and others of its memcan well carry in its legitimate river and harbor appropriation. They claim that the Hennepin canal measure properly belongs to the committee on railways and canals, and that a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for that canal reported from that committee and now on the calendar, will probably be defeated if inserted in the river and harbor bill. It is understood here that Phil Thompson will now press the bill revising the internal revenue laws, which permits all whisky to remain in bond until drawn out for consumption.

AGAINST PRISON CONTRACT LABOR,

Regular Press Dispatches.
Washington, March 28.—The house committee on labor has decided unanimously to report favorably the bill making it a misdemeanor for any state or United States officer to hire out under contract any prisoner confined for violation of the United States laws under a penalty of fine or imprisonment. The report accompanying the bill says the contract system is wholly adverse to reform; prisoners frequently being treated as dumb beasts.

STATES' WAR CLAIMS. The house committee on war claims will report favorably the bill authorizing the settlement of the claims of several states for interest on loans of money expended by states in defense of the union in the late war. The claims must be presented within one year after the passage of the act.

THE MACGARRAHAN CLAIM. The house judiciary committee will refavor will be presented, one the same as a state had a right to secede from the that agreed to by the private land claims committee of the last congress, the other had existed, but it had been irrevocably giving him title to the unpatented lands lost amid the clang of arms and the horscrip at the rate of $1.25 per acre for the must move with it. remainder. There are 17,000 acres in the tract.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION. The United States civil service com nission has decided to hold a series of examinations in the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado during the month of May. These examinations will be for applicants desiring to obtain clerkships or other positions in mittee. the government service in Washington. All applications for examination must be sent to the civil service at Washington, when blanks and full instructions will be sent all persons who apply. The examination will be held at the capitals of the states named, under the personal supervision of Professor John M. Gregory, of was laid over after discussion without the commission. The dates and places of all examinations will be announced in the future.

WATTERSON'S COPYRIGHT BILL.

The house judiciary committee to-day neard Henry Watterson in explanation and advocacy of the proposed eight-hour news copyright bill. There was a full attendance, and the members of the committee manifested much interest in the Watterson's presentation of the matter was substantially identical with his argument before the joint library committee on the 14th inst., with addi tional citations of English decisions of copyright character. AID FOR LOUISIANA.

The president has approved the joint resolution for the relief of sufferers from the overflow by the Mississippi river. THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

The joint resolution proposing amendment to the constitution, to ex- by yesterday's wind storm. About midtend the right of suffrage to women was night a portion of the rear wall of the reported favorably to the senate to day Lindell hotel, Westside, was blown in. from the committee on woman suffrage. The guests were previously warned of by Senator Palmer. If provides that the danger and escaped injury. The exlegislatures of the several states be asked to ratify the following srticle, which it A young man named David Wood, hav-

States, or by any state on account of sex.
Sec. 2. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article.

Circle road was blown from the trace near a suburban station; one passenge throughout the city will probably not exceed $1,500.

At Cheyenne the wind reached

THE DANVILLE INQUIRY. The Danville investigation was resumed this morning Twenty-five witnesses were sworn at once.

W. J. Dance, who occupied an office where former witnesses swore arms were stored by whites, denied the truth of the The House Judiciary to Report statements. He said all the negroes he saw, twenty-five or thirty, had pistols. The whites did not shoot after the negroes had run.

A PENSION ATTORNEY SWINDLER. Charles Koerner, a pension attorney of Alton, Ill., has been disbarred from practice before the interior department upon evidence that he exterted illegal fees in pension cases.

MEAT INSPECTION.

The house committee on commerce has agreed upon a bill providing the inspection of meats for exportation and proand purchasers on the Denver & St. Joe hibiting the importation of adulterated lands, passed the senate to-day unani-mously. articles, food or drink. The committee adopted that portion of the senate bill recently reported from the senate committee on foreign relations which referred to adultered food or drink. The clause proposing retaliation was disagreed to.

FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, March 28 .- Mr. Palmer rep., Mich.), from the committee on voman's suffrage, reported favorably a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution to extend the right of suffrage to women.

Mr. Cockrell (dem., Mo.) said this was the action of the majority of the committee, and that the minority would hereafter present their views.

Mr. Platt (rep., Conn.) from the committee on territories, reported favorably a bill to authorize the enumeration of the inhabitants of the territory of Idaho.

Mr. Plumb's (rep., Ks.) resolution, offered yesterday, calling on the secre-

Mr. Miller (rep., Cala.) called up and the senate passed the bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to issue a proclamation offering a reward of $25,000, to be paid private parties who shall discover, rescue or satisfactorily ascertain the fate of the Greeley expedition. The senate then took up the education

Mr. Lamar (dem., Miss.) spoke in favor of its passage, urging the encourage-ment it would give the Southern states. It would do more to solve the race ques-tion than the 13th and 14th and 15th amendments. He objected to the amendment putting the disbursement of the money in the hands of federal officers. Mr. Cullom (rep., Ill.) would not vote for the bill in its present shape, but thought it ought to be in some respects amended. So far as Illino's was concerned, ahe was perfectly able and will ing to educate all her children. He knew he spoke the sentiments of his people when he said Illinois neither asked or desired to receive a dollar for educational aid from the United tates government. He would like to see the appropriation confined to the southern begin with only about $6,000,000, with a rise every few years as the money could be profitably applied, and then diminish year by year as the states themselves became able to carry on the work. He would make the total appropriation $49,-000,000 instead of $105,000,000.

Mr. George (dem., Miss.) favored the bill. He said he had always opposed and would continue to oppose centralizaport adversely on the famous McGarra-tion, but he could not shut his eves to han claim. Two minority reports in its irrevocable facts. He had once believed union. He believed now that the right in the tract and ordering the issue of rors of war. The world moves, and we

After executive session, adjourned un til Monday.

In the house, Mr. Anderson (rep., Ks.) introduced a concurrent resolution for the final adjournment of congress at 1:20 o'clock on the 2d of June, 1884. Referred to the ways and means com-miscellaneous business, the house pro-ceeded to the consideration of private A number of private bills were passed One for the relief of certain soldiers in the late war from the charge of desertion

After the transaction of unimportant

O'Neill (rep., Pa.) presented a resolution from the convention of wool growers in favor of the restoration of the duty of 1867 on wool.

Recess was taken till 7:30, the evening session to be for the consideration of pri-

At the evening session the house passed twenty-two pension bills, among them for a pension of $50 a month to the widow of Major General James B. Steadman, and a bill granting a pension to Mrs. Sarah E. E. Suelye, who served as a soldier for three years under an assumed name (Franklin Thompson), and when sick and about to be sent to the hospital deserted to escape the detection of her sex. Adjourned to Monday.

The Storm at Denver. DENVER, Col., March 28.-Probably cars and killing torty sheep. No person an fifty buildings of all sorts were unroofed injured.

proposes as an amendment to the coning been struck by a falling wall on Twenty eighth and Curtis atreets, was Article—Section 1. The right of citi-zens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United seriously hurt. The damage throughout the city will probably not exceed $1,500. At Cheyenne the wind reached a velocity of 56 miles an hour, but no serious damage was done. The round house at Sterling on the Julesburg short line is reported blown down. No damage reported in the interior.

GREATNESS IN THE GUTTER.

some Chicago Vandals Hurl the Statues of Macaulay, Burns and Scott into the Street-Several Thousand Dollars Lost,

Special Dispatch to THE BEE. CHICAGO, March 28.-A singular act of vandalism was committed at an early hour this morning by some unknown persons, who for reasons known only to themselves undertook to damage the property of the liquor dealers, Hannah & Hogg. Three of the familiar stone figures which stood by the front doors of their saloons were hoisted from their pedestals and dashed on the sidewalk, smashing them to pieces and most effect-ually destroying them. Lord Macaulay was lying prostrate in the gutter, clutching in his hands his history of England.

At the saloon under Farwell hall poor Bobbie Burns presented a most wee-begone appearance. His head was clip-ped off, and he was minus one of his arms. At the saloon opposite McVicker's theatre Sir Walter Scott was in a condition no less disgraceful than his two eminent countrymen, Burns and Macaulay There is as yet no clew to the van-dals. The figures thus destroyed were really works of art. They were life size, done in Bedfort stone, and cost some $700 each. They were the work of Richards, the well-known sculptor.

THE STATE CAPITAL.

Woolworth's Defense in the Brighton Ranch Case—Some Mysterious B. & M. Movements.

tary of the treasury for information relating to the unpaid portion of the war tax of 1861, was agreed to.

A resolution, offered by Van Wyck (rep., Neb.), was agreed to follows:

Resolved, That the secretary of the interior be directed to furnish the senate copies of corespondence between the departments of justice and interior as to the present efficacy of the statute of March 3, 1807, empowering the president to direct marshals and employ such military force as may be necessary to remove tary force as may be necessary to remove certain persons and obstructions from the public domain.

Same time they regard it as a weak showing on the part of the ranching on the public domain.

Was his wife who struck the fatal plow; she was jealous of her. He excherated the officers from all blame in connection > the country followed. Chief Engineer McClure, of the Bur> lington system, was here to-day, returning by special car from a trip in the western part of the state. New develop ments in railway matters are expected from the B. & M. every day.

DAFT ON THE DIZZIES.

Couple of Milwaukee Boys, Sons of Prominent Citizens, Married to Variety Actresses.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE. MILWAUKEE, March 28 .- The fact has ust leaked out that a couple of boys, 17 or 18 years old, one the son of a wholesale grocer, and the other the son of a states exclusively, and so adjusted as to Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad official, followed the Ida Siddons female minstrels from this city to Chicago, and while there were married to two members of that "dizzy" organization. The boys say they quietly visited the office of a justice of the peace, where the marriage corrangy was performed. After remaintain the lower river, as has been his custom. He had rarely written. No uneasiness was felt on account of his absence. The finding of the body was the first intimation of his loss. The body had doubtless ceremony was performed After remaining several days, they returned home, and their brides went along with the company. The parents of the youngsters will probably take steps to have the marringe set aside.

A Train's Leap for Life.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE. CHICAGO, March 28 .- A remarkable story comes from Miles City. Near there of the Post-Dispatch, for abstracting ast night an engineer of a belated freight court records, were nolle prossed in the train, running very fast, in crossing a criminal court to-day. These indictments coolie saw that the bridge had been grew out of the publication in the Post-burned, but he was too near to stop the Dispatch of the investigation of the grand He at once put on full steam and jury last fall into the gambling ring, and led in jumping the burned bridge, caused a sensation at the time. train. succeeded in jumping the burned bridge, but the engine jumped the track and capsuzed. Tramps had burned the bridge. The engineer was slightly wounded.

Another Freight Pool.

Chicago, March 28. - The organization of the Middle and Western States freight association was effected here to-day. tepresentatives of twenty-five roads signed an agreement conditional on the oads not present following the lead. Hard wood and lumber rates were agreed upon, to take effect May 1st. The tariff to interior points was ordered made up under the direction of the secretary the association to be submitted at the next meeting for ratification. Adjournment was taken subject to the call of the Divorced From a Duke's Son. London, March 23 .- The jury rendered a verdice in favor of Lady Colin Campbell in the suit against her husband for divorce. Her husband is the youngest son of the Duke of Argyle.

A Stock Train Wrecked. PITTSBUBG, March 28 .- The second section of a stock train on the Ft. Wayne road, ran into the first section near Belle vue last evening, wrecking a number of THE TRACIC TRAP.

Quintette of Criminals Expiate the Bisbee Murders at Tombstone.

Riot Over a Platform Erected to View the Execution.

Gibbeting at San Bernardino of a Murderer and Seducer.

the Body of His Victim.

Affecting Leave of His Mother, a Rich Los Angeles Widow.

A Double Murderer Gibbeted at Placerville, Cal.

> THE ROPE RECORD. A QUINTUPLE GIBBETING.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., March 28 .- O. W. Sample, Dan. Dowd, Wm. Mullen, James Howard and Dan. Kelly were hanged at 11:15 this afternoon for the Bisbee murders. The five bandits marched up the steps of the scaffold without flinching. All declared their iunocence, and that Heath, who was lynched here February 22nd, was also innocent. They bade good bye to their friends, expressed faith in the Christian religion, and requested their bodies to be delivered to Father Gallagher. Nothing occurred to mar the sheriff's plans. The murderers were all dropped off together, and, excepting Dowd, died without a struggle. Over a thousand persons witnessed the execution. A large balcony had been erected outside, overlooking the jail yard. The builder intending to charge a dollar and a half admission, the mob became indignant and tore it down. In the row which followed, seven persons were injured; one man had his leg broken, another his arm. The balcony would have seated 500, with this exception everything passed off A FIEND'S FINISH.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., March 28.— William R. McDonald was hanged to-day for the murder of Maggie O'Brien on January 13, 1883. The crime committed things, that most of the enclosed with his late escape, gave instructions reland is held by right of pre emption; that garding the rope, and asked for a greater practically it is not closed, because there drop than had been provided for. His are nineteen gateways on the line of the neck was instantly broken and he died fence: that the land enclosed is not fit without a struggle. The parting scene for farming, and an able jury argument between the doomed man and his mother, in behalf of the great cattle interests of a wealthy widow of Los Angeles, was very affecting, moving strong men to

> A DOUBLE MURDERER DROPS. PLACERVILLE, Cal., March 28 .- Franvisco Perra was hanged to-day for the murder of William and Jacob Wirges.

> > A PILOT'S FATE.

Well-Known River Man of Dubuque Found Drowned in the Mississippi.

DUBUQUE, Ia., March 28 .- A body was found floating in the river yesterday at Sabula, forty miles below. To-day it was recognized as that of Daniel McLean, a well-known river pilot of this city, who was not known to have disappeared. It now transpires he left home last Novemtion of his loss. The body had doubtless been in the river all winter, but how he came to his death is not known, nor are any of the circumstances connected with it. It is thought it was probably acci-

News Enterprise Not Criminal. St. Louis, March 28,—The indict-ments against Henry W. Moore, manag-

The Rose Ambler Murder. NEW YORK, March 28 .- Rugg, the Long Island murderer, is believed to have been the murderer of Rose Ambler at Stamford, Conn.

- OOD'S SARSAPARILLA

Is a carefully prepared extract of the best remodies of the vegetable kingdom known to medical science as Alteratives, Blood Portices, Dimetics and Tonics, such as Sarsapartila, Yellow Dock, Stillingia, Dandelion, Juniper Berries, Mandrake, Wild Cherry Bark and other selected roots, barks and herbs. A medicine, like anything clse, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with satisfaction to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaperilla has entered for itself upon the hearts of thomands of people in New England who have personally or indirectly been relieved of terrible suffering which all other remedies failed to reach.

nce has spring, and what little she l hera good, and we must have it in t raiy, HOMER B, NASH, Fittaneld