The aldermen draw only $50 a year for council service, but as members of the board of health are entitled to one dollar a meeting. Perhaps this is the reason why a brief meeting of the board of health precedes each council meeting.

Mayor Vaughan was driving around with his new horse and buggy yesterday, happy and proud. He took a little spin about with Grand Master Granger, of the Masonic order, showing him the sights and improvements of the city. Mr. Granger expressed himself as highly pleased with the city, and declared that wherever he went he should always have a good word to say for Council Bluffs.

Jailor Mottaz has an eye to economy. Yesterday he told the quartet, who were Yesterday he told the quartet, who were at work on the stone pile, that as soon as they got all the rock broken up they should be released. In this county convention the city is entitled to 29 delegates-the first ward 5, second ward 9, third ward 6, fourth ward 9.

The last entertainment given at the opera house was an excellent one and drew a good audience, and many who would gladly have gone if they had known what kind of a show it was to be, are now grumbling. They say there have peen so many poor shows and they have been disappointed so many times that they had lost faith, and so this time were again disappointed at missing a good show. If more good shows and fewer poor ones were given here there would be less trouble in getting large crowds

Judge Aylesworth in giving his decision told what he knew about housekeeping. His observation was that no good housekeeper would sweep dirt from one room into another, but would gather it up into a dirt pan in the same room. If this rule had been followed there would have been no row, and he advised both parties to invest in dust pans and each take care of the dirt belongin to them. This throwing aside of the law and letting common sene rule at the head next day, and which district convention seemed to please the spectators if it did not the parties concerned. In view of the fact that Hoover is a sickly and poor man, and said to demented and irresponsible, the judge, though that finding him guilty of an assault, concluded not to announce any fine at present, probably concluding to wait until the the dust-pan experiment was tried.
