it to-morrow morning. Mr. Crofts is a very popular preacher, and is highly esteemed socially by the Sandwich people. He meets here Dr. R. Ries, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, and other friends whom he has known in Illinois.

Yesterday afternoon the mayor received word that there was a crowd of men damming up the creek at Tenth street, and with visions of mobs and riots the little mayor jumped into a carriage, called his valiant police force about him, and went hurrying off to the scene.

He found that the men were working under the city engineer's instructions, damming the creek, so that the bed below that point could be dug out. The dam may cause a temporary flooding of some adjacent property, but a watch was set last night, and to-day a large force of men will be put on to do the needed work as quickly as possible, so as to remove the dam at the earliest possible moment.

I AM THE WESTERN AGENT FOR THE

"RICHMOND SKATE."

NO. 2. This is what some of the skate manufacturers call a "Club," but we call it "our Half Clamp Skate." It has protruding steel bottom corrugated soles.

It is full of holes, and the bottom is made of iron clamp and light leather or rubber. The holes are perforated to hold clamp in feet and give extra strength to the skate when protruding soles are in contact with the ice.

It has four rollers, two on each side, which with brass bushings, turn 2 1/2 inches in diameter and cover wheel perfectly. It is made in a separate size, sizes 11 to 12. I also carry a full line of skate blades, wood bottoms and a full line of all extra, small and large brass blades.

Write for prices. Terms: cash on delivery. Accompanying order; balance C. O. D. H. L. MILLER, Western Agent, 199, Fourth Avenue Council Bluffs, Iowa.
