THE PEST HOUSE.

It has at Last Been Prepared For Occupancy.

The Small Pox Patient Removed from St. Joseph's Hospital.

There seems to have been some misunderstanding in regard to the removal of the smallpox patient from St. Joseph's hospital to the pest house.

The matter was brought up in the council yesterday morning and several of the aldermen made short speeches in regard to the matter.

Mayor Murphy said that Mr. Honck had been engaged to attend to the patient and a horse had been purchased for him, but he could not remove the man and attend to him alone.

During the last sedge of smallpox in this city a telephone was put in at the pest house and it was burned up as soon as the house was vacated.

Mr. Ford said that it would be murder in the first degree for one man to undertake to move the smallpox patient from St. Joseph's hospital to the pest house.

After considerable talk the council unanimously agreed to leave it all to the mayor, and instructed that gentleman to use his own judgment in the matter and incur whatever expense he thought necessary.

Yesterday a man was found to assist Mr. Honck in removing and caring for the smallpox patient, and the patient was removed to the pest house at 2 o'clock.

There was a telegram received offered by the city physician against moving the patient in day-time, but it was done just the same.

THE GREAT EVENT.

A Few Notes in Regard to the Charity Ball.

As the time draws near it is apparent that the Charity ball to be given at Boyd's opera house Wednesday evening, January 14th, will be the greatest social event which has ever taken place in the city of Omaha.

The magnitude of this affair will be beyond the power of pen to describe and the most sanguine expectations will be laid away back in the shade. It is intimated that five hundred couples will be in attendance, but it is safe to predict that these figures will not begin to tell the story.

The committee in charge have issued the following circular: In order to correct a misapprehension which seems to exist in regard to admissions to the opera house on the night of charity ball, the committee desire to give notice that no gentleman can possibly be admitted without a ticket, price $3, and no lady unaccompanied by a gentleman can be admitted at all.

Contributions however small will be thankfully received and the donor duly credited therefor, and may be sent to any member of the canvassing committee or direct to Mr. Frank Murphy, treasurer. The committee also request those who have flags, to loan them for decorative purposes. They may be sent to the opera house any time after Monday morning next. The owners name should be attached, and the committee will be responsible for their safe return.

COURT NOTES.

Two Divorce Suits were Filed in the District Court Yesterday.

One of them was filed by the attorney of Catherine Caszmond for a divorce from her husband, Andrew Caszmond. The paper alleges that since the marriage in 1868, her husband has treated her with extreme cruelty, beating and maltreating her in every possible way, and that furthermore, on last Saturday night she was driven out of the house by him, without clothing. The petition also includes a clause asking for alimony from the husband.

In the second case the wife, Francesca Iahadontis, alleges that she has been continually abused by her husband, Mathias Iahadontis. She also claims that he was in the habit of calling her ugly names, and has falsely accused her of criminal intimacy with a young man, George Barie.

Second Lieutenant John B. Bellinger, Fifth cavalry, is detained as judge advocate of the general court martial convened at Fort McKinney, Wyo., by paragraph 7, special orders No. 36, series 1884, from these headquarters.

On the recommendation of his company and post commanders, the unexpired portion of the sentence in the case of Private Alexander McPeak, company B, Sixth infantry, published in general court martial orders No. 35, series 1884, from these headquarters, is remitted.

Captain William C. Shannon, assistant surgeon, U. S. A., is relieved from duty as a member of the general court-martial appointed to convene at Fort Bridger, Wyo., by paragraph 8, special orders No. 117, series 1884, from these headquarters and First Lieutenant William C. Borden, assistant surgeon, U. S. A., detailed in his stead.

By virtue of authority from the war department under date of December 23, 1884, Assistant Surgeon William C. Shannon, U. S. A., is relieved from duty at Fort Bridger, Wyo., and assigned as attending surgeon at these headquarters. He will report in person accordingly.

The travel directed is necessary for the public service. By order of Brigadier General Howard.

An Unsavory Gang. One of the sights which might have been seen in this city last night was that of a half dressed young woman, without hat or shoes, being dragged between two police officers through the streets. The damsel was none other than the "Wicked Irish Beauty," the notorious Jennie Green. She was screaming most vociferously and using the foulest language imaginable. Her cries and screams might have been heard for blocks distant.

The girl had been fighting in the notorious drive of Tom King on South Tenth street. Officer Donovan went out to arrest, and was attacked by every inmate of the house. He managed to secure the Green woman, and she was dragged unwillingly into the street, where with the assistance of Officer Nations, she was taken to the police station. The other inmates of the house, three notorious women, were also landed in jail, arrested on the charge of resisting an officer.

Trotting Horse Breeders of Nebraska. Trotting horse breeders and fanciers throughout the state are requested to convene at Lincoln, Neb., on Tuesday, January 20th, 1885, for the purpose of organizing a State Trotting Horse Breeders' association, the object of which will be to encourage the breeding of the American trotting horse in a systematic and intelligent manner. That such an organization would be a great acquisition to the breeding interest of the state there can be no doubt. It is earnestly hoped that breeders throughout the state will give this subject the attention which it merits and will be present at this meeting for organizing.

A Card. OMAHA, Neb., January 7th 1885. We the undersigned hereby certify we are acquainted with H. W. Pettit that he was a policeman in this city on the 28th of December, 1883; that he was on duty said day on his beat on Cumings street in said city that the charge brought against him to-wit, not being on duty on that day is false. Signed: James Hyland, Frank Faust, Chas. Hellwig, Christian Jansen, Henry Rutter, G. W. Thomas, D. E. Euler, Geo. A. Hill, J. H. L. Williams, Nela. Linston.

Dagos on the War Path. Yesterday afternoon officers McBride and Matz were called to the Italian rookery on the corner of Thirtieth and Leavenworth streets, where a crowd of the Dagos were indulging in a free fight. Knives and revolvers were drawn, and for a time bloodshed seemed imminent. Upon the appearance of the officers, however, the Italians fled precipitately. No arrests were made.

The Board of Equalization. The board of equalization, of the council, was sitting yesterday and will hold a session to-day, on the equalization of the taxes on public improvements, paving, curbing and guttering. Very few complaints are reported.
