The First Round in the Contest For Judge of the District Court,

The contest for the position of judge of the district court for this judicial circuit has fairly opened. The care came up a DesMoines Monday. Judge Loof sourow and Judge Aylesworth were both present. The latter had for his attorney Mr. Fred Lebman while Measrs, Thos. Wright, J. J. Russell, and Smith McPherson made arguments in behalf of Judg Loefbourow The court was compass dot Judge to Henry, G bb n, and Can r. The points raised wer, on the juri-diction and the notice of the contest The court decided that they had juried otion, and that the service was short. It was ag end to give hearing February 20. At that time there will probably be an at seer nies by Jud . Leater orrow, and then probably a c mmissioner will be appointed to take evidonce, which will require a m : inc, and then the ev desce will be presented the court and the arguments , made, so that the end is still for oft.

At the opening of the meeting it was stated that no criticism would be were heratofore sold by him at ten cents allowed, and that every person might straight. Everything was to be informal and slimust be brief. Brevity we insist upon in this as well as in our regular meetings. Al seemed so well plees id with the first effort that it was decided to hild one more. That night we had several exercises similar to the week before with an additional talk upon the "stove"—seven or eight saying something about it All wanted another, and from the night it has been regarded as permanent. The ladies helped us first with the music and later with the geteral exercises.

the Arrest of Two Young Men For Going Through Casper

McGee's Store.

The arrest of the two young men for burglarizing Casper McGee's store was briefly noted in yesterday's BEE It seems that they are surely the thieves who did the business. The stolen revolvers and pocket knives were found upon them, and it will be difficult for them to explain their peasession satisfactorily. At Nels n they traded a revolver to Mr. Shea, brother of the county c'erk, for two tickets to Avics, and Officer O'Brien hearing of this telephoned down the line and the fellows were arrested and brought back to this city by Marshal els, of Avoca. They were nice y dressee, fine appearing young men, and gave their names as C. Wilson and C Connor. On over to find the test mixing region. He being brought before Jos ice Frainey the returned and reported on Pe n ylvon a bonds were fixed at $6.0 each, and not being able to resure tham, the two pris overs were placed in the county jail. They are to have a hearing Friday.
