BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

A. C. Graham, W. C. James and J. J. Brown as Park Commissioners.

Picnic for Patton.

The democratic city convention met in the council chamber yesterday afternoon. Mr. G. H. Jackson moved that Mr. Robert Percival be the temporary chairman. Carried. Mr. Percival in taking the chair expressed the feeling that there was a great deal of dissatisfaction among the people, with the present council, and the convention should nominate an A, the convention should nominate an A, thirty-one years ministry you have been No. 1 man for alderman at large, if they the mild instructor of the young, by your expected to elect him.

Mr. J. C. DeHaren was chosen temporary secretary.

Wm. Patton moved that a committee on credentials be appointed, and named them in the motion. This was amended by having the delegates from each ward name their own member on this committee. The committee as thus selected had The democrats indulged in a protracted rather a stormy time making up a report, one of the causes being the election of tle religion in it. Their convention lasted one more delegate in the Second ward than the ward was entitled to. The

Patton nominated J. G. Tipton. Mayor Vaughn named Judge Jones. The names of J. J. Brown, J. P. Weaver, M. F. Rohrer, A. C. Graham and W. S. Patton were also presented. Patton presented the name of J. A. Murphy and withdrew the name of W. S. Pettibone. Mr. Murphy declined to have his name

Mr. Rohrer declined also. Patton again moved that the ballot be formal. Carried.

The ballot resulted: Graham 26, Brown 14, Rohrer 12, Pettibone 12, Weaver 12, James 10, Tipton 9, Murphy 3. The nomination of A. C. Graham was made unanimous on motion of Mr. Myn-The names of Mr. Weaver and Mr. Pettibone were then withdrawn.

A second ballot was taken for the selection of the two others. Patton retired from his arduous labors for a brief period, and Wm. Lacy took his

The next ballot resulted in the nomination of J. J. Brown and W. C. James as park commissioners, the ballot being: Brown 24, James 7, Rohrer 9, Tipton 8, Pettibone 4, Weaver 2.

Before proceeding to another formal ballot for alderman at large, Mr. Rohrer withdrew the name of Thomas Bowman.
This, the fifteenth ballot, resulted in the nomination of Mr. Murphy, he receiving 18 votes, Weaver 10, Pettibone 5. Patton moved to make it unanimous. Carried.

George A. Holmes was chosen chairman of the city committee.

On motion of Patton the convention djourned.

THE CATHOLIC KNIGHTS.

Their Address on Rev. Father Mc Menomy's Anniversary.

On Tuesday evening the Catholic Knights called upon Rev. Father Mc-Menomy, it being the thirty-first anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, and through Rev. Father Haley presented

Rev. and Dear Father Mac:-Gladly Residents of the Hub, claims a Boston man, are nervous because of a peculiarity love and respect on this, the thir v-first anniversary of your ordination, and with #### sincere hearts wish you very many happy returns of the same.

In you, Reverend Father, we have learned to see all that goes to make the true man-the man according to God's own heart-the just man fearing the Lord. In you the poor man has ever had a friend. Often and often have the tears of the afflicted widew and orphan been wiped away by your cheerful sym-pathy and generous assistance. When and cheery. The aged of your care look-ed up to you; they have been witness of your manly efforts in the past for God and your fellow man; they have seen those efforts crowned with success, and to-day, after years of toll and well spent zeal whilst admiring you they promise to stand by you in a material way in God's glory and their salvation. If your qualities of heart have been noble your qualities of head have not been less remarkable. During your persuasive eloquence you have shown forth to those in darkness the light of God's truths and they embraced them. Convents and schools for the education of the young have been erected under your supervision, and by your untiring labour many churches have been built, the fruit of your earnest zeal, is to day the name of Father Mac throughout western Iowa is familiar in almost every Catholic household.

your future efforts for the furtherance of

We read in the works of the Father that the priest is another Christ, "Sacredos altar Christus," the life of Christ is the beau-ideal of what the life of the priest should be as it is the model question as to whether Wm. Lacy or of every good Christian life. Father Mac, clothed with the priesthood, has been a power during his thirty one years ministry. Many a wanderer has he brought back to the fold of Christ, Many a time has he gone between ar angry God and an erring people, and by prayer and sacrifice stayed the hand o the Omnipotent raised to strike. With priestly solicitude he has guided the young and the old in the path of perfection—the way that leads to God. With Jackson's motion, which was carried, and the beauty of virtue and the hideousness of vice. Our congregation and many others are the fruit of his labors, and of vice. God grant, dear Knights that they and we may hereafter be his crown.

Therefore, Reverend and Dear Father pression upon your brow, rest assured that you slways have had and ever will have the heartfelt fealty and loving devo-

It is declared that Vaughan is determined to have such democrats elected as aldermen as will support his administration, or in plain words, will do his will.

and fall in with his schemes. It is said that when the name of W. B. Reed was brought to the front as alderman for the Fourth, the undaunted little mayor informed Reed that he would help him get elected; would supply him with $200 to meet campaign expenses, etc., but if he was going to be hostile to the present administration, he would, to elected, put him on such places in committees that he could not do anything If he would work harmoniously with Vaughan, he would have no difficulty in getting everything done that was de manded by the constituency, especially the residents of the river bottoms, who had felt so aggrieved. It is understood that Reed was neither terrified by the threats, nor tempted by the promises, but proposed to go it alone, and represent the people rather than any clique of officials. In yesterday's convention Vaughan and his little flock were determined to nominate W. S. Pettibone as aldermanat-large. They failed, and Mr. Murphy lacking but one or two votes of getting the nomination, just before the deciding ballot Vaughan slipped over to Murphy, held a whispered conversation, and enough votes were given Murphy on that ballot to nominate him. It is understood that Vaughan told Murphy that if he would not be hostile to the administration the needed vetes would be given

It seems that Vaughan is determined of possible to hold the reins and have a council who will let him do the driving. If it is the mayor who is to have the choosing of the aldermen, why not change the charter and let him appoint his own aldermen, and de away with a city election altogether?

Mr. Murphy, who was renominated yesterday, is in many respects a man well-fitted for a place in the council. He is a large contractor, and some of his relationships in that respect are against him. He is not as free from railroad influences as could be desired, and if he accepts the nomination, feeling that he s under obligations to Vaughan, Patton, Frainey and Galvin for it, it will cost him many votes.
