

GATTLE KINGS' COUNCIL.

The Cheyenne Convention of Stock Growers Meets Next Monday.

More than One Hundred Million Dollars Worth of Long Horns and Short Horns to be Considered. While Divers Other "Hot" will be Discussed.

Private advice from Wyoming go to show that the meeting of stock growers next Monday at Cheyenne, will be a very important, perhaps exciting one.

The great importance of the cattle-growing industry and the tremendous money-influence it can bring to bear upon occasions, renders this convention one of peculiar significance at this time.

Wyoming is the cattleman's paradise, and has been such for years, and the great resources it possesses, such as mines and coal, precious metals, and building material have been subordinated so far to this rapidly growing industry.

Such are the ideas gained by a Bee reporter in a short conversation had within a day or two, with one of the most prominent stock-growers of the plains.

ABOUT THE DEPOT.

Scenes and Incidents that Greet a Reporter in His Wanderings Every Day.--No Fancies, But Hard Facts.

Among the multitudes who pass through the depot are many persons from the backwoods, so to speak. The alarm or caution gongs are objects of curiosity and wonder to these people and they are often heard to timidly say to some bystander, "For goodness sake, Mr., how many times a day do folks eat here?"

"You need not shake hands, madam, for that little attention, I did it because it is my duty to see ladies on the train when they are traveling alone."

"Still, sir, I want to shake your hand, and to thank you for what you did for that young lady. You will be rewarded hereafter, sir, believe me, you will."

"Ah! that's well enough, madam, I take pleasure in such things, but as to the reward, I get that here, which is I think better than hereafter, don't you?"

"I don't know more than that she is going to Frisco, and was in the waiting room this morning with a little occurrence. The occurrence was what the reporter wished to know, and finally he secured it as follows: "Early this morning I went into the ladies' waiting room and found a pretty girl about seventeen years old almost in despair. She said she was lost and a stranger and only knew that she wished to get to Courtland, Mo., on the O. & N. Y. railroad line. That she had purchased a ticket for that place and left (Wednesday) at midnight found herself at Beatrice in a waiting room without a dollar and not near where she wanted to go. The young thing looked so forlorn that I was at once right in the center and took up a collection among the persons in the room, nearly all of whom were young men, and quickly raised a sum sufficient not only to take her to Courtland, but to provide her with comforts here and along the way, but come inside, I'll tell her who you are and you can talk to her yourself."

At the Metropolitan, E. Henley and wife, Creter, M. A. Anderson, Mrs. M. White, Chas. Chas. Lincoln, Frank J. Victor, Columbus G. Southam, Grand Island, A. K. Marsh, Sutton, C. D. Clapp, Emerson, J. Lansing, Fairchild, and Jas. M. Ray of North Platte, Neb.

At the Paxton, Wm. Wolfe, Neligh; E. R. Watson, John E. Crocker, Kearney; Jas. S. Vander, Louisville; Frank Galbraith, Loren Clark and P. T. Anderson, Albion; A. H. Gamet, Valentine; S. Shinn, Jr., Miss Luma Peters, and James Ferguson and wife, Fort Omaha; A. T. Brown, Paul Schminke, Nebraska City; A. A. Sweet, Hastings.

At a Key West fish market recently a colored man bought a conch and upon cracking the shell was surprised to find a hidden treasure in the shape of a handsome pearl the size of a bean.

During the progress of a trial at Cincinnati last week, it was discovered incidentally that all spirits sent from this country to Versailles, France, are watered and "doctored" up and sent in bottles to Africa where the stuff has a large sale.

for him in one day, is good enough. It beats Moody and Sankey all to thunder.

Last evening another lady with the plumpest, cleanest looking little baby-child one sees in a month's travel, was at the depot looking for her husband, who had telegraphed her to come on here. She was the second one in one day looking for a husband who said he was employed at the stock yards. Surely, there are more things in heaven and earth than one dreams of in some people's philosophy.

POLICE COURT.

A Female Thief--Meyer's Case Continued--Other Business.

In the police court yesterday morning, Rosy Lewis, a wanton fairy, was arraigned before Judge Benke on a charge of stealing $30 from Hans Hendrickson. The theft, so Hans says, occurred about 2 o'clock yesterday morning in a Tenth street disorderly house.

During the progress of the trial, the girl, who was very much agitated and weakened, burst into tears, and fainted. Judge Benke has suspended sentence until she shall be in a condition to receive it. It is not probable that she will be confined very long, as a Des Moines official is now in this city, with a requisition for her as witness in a murder case in which she is concerned.

Henry Meyers, the boy accused of stealing seventy-five pounds of brass from Schneider's hardware store, was arraigned. He pleaded not guilty, and his being set for trial next Saturday, he was taken back to jail.

Larry Casey, the tough notorious, was again before the tribunal on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was fined and sent walking over the hill to the county jail.

M. E. Shoarer and Charles Kelley were fined $5 and costs for disturbance of the peace--for having imbibed too freely of coffee and milk.

The State vs. Kyle (the Gaven case): a jury will be struck at 11 a. m. to-day and the case be called for trial promptly at 2 p. m. Saturday.

"CATCHING CONS."

A Man Robbed of $1,000 Check, $200 Cash, and a Number of Railroad Tickets.

How the Confidence Men Worked a Train Between Council Bluffs and Omaha Yesterday.

On going to the jail at an early hour this morning to make the "last round-up" the Bee reporter read on the entry book in modest letters "R. Roberts." But thereby hung a tale, which will be told so far as possible at this writing.

On the passenger train going west yesterday evening were a large number of travelers, many of whom were coming west for work and others to settle. Among the latter was a gentleman (whose name at this writing it has been impossible to correctly learn) with several members of his family going west to look and settle on some land. Aboard the train were several confidence men and thieves who were playing the almost thread-bare game of pretending to hire men, get them to stop at a depot, pretend to be going to trial next night, and then being set for trial next Saturday, he was taken back to jail.

Larry Casey, the tough notorious, was again before the tribunal on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was fined and sent walking over the hill to the county jail.

M. E. Shoarer and Charles Kelley were fined $5 and costs for disturbance of the peace--for having imbibed too freely of coffee and milk.
