

THE DAILY BEE COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning, April 8.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier... $10.00 per year. By Mail... $10.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION.

Bernhard-Listemann concert April 11. Two Jakes, the barbers, 402 Broadway. The public drinking fountains are now to be opened up.

The shot tower is to be transformed into a paint manufactory. Max Mohr, of the Creston House, feels pretty proud of his fire escape.

The police, who sold their warrants yesterday, got $52.50 for their month's salary, which is nominally put at $70 a month.

A park for Streetsville is being urged by the residents of that part of the city, and the move seems to meet with favor among many of the taxpayers.

Conner and Wilson, who were arrested for burlesquing Cooper & McGee's hardware store, were yesterday bound over to the district court in the sum of $300 each.

The wrecking of a freight train on the C. M. & St. Paul yesterday obstructed the track so that the morning train was delayed, not arriving until 8 o'clock last evening.

The city council is to make a final settlement next Monday evening with Regan Bros & McGorick for the paving of Broadway and Main streets, the work being now completed.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the corner stone of St. Paul's Episcopal church will be laid, Bishop Perry officiating, and this evening there will be a confirmation of a class of about thirty.

The county board yesterday was considering road matters, making as usual one of the busiest days of the session, as a large number of witnesses, complainants and petitioners have to be heard.

The following have been elected vestrymen of St. Paul's church for the coming year: D. C. Bloomer, W. J. Hancock, A. W. Street, J. N. Baldwin, H. C. Corey, John T. Stewart, Thomas Bowman, M. Duquette, Horace Everett.

P. D. Booth, who was charged by his wife with having been too familiar with Pearl Shaw, appeared before Justice Hendricks yesterday for trial, but his wife did not appear to prosecute and he was discharged.

A large number of citizens of Silver Creek township are expected to appear in Justice Hendrick's court to-day to testify in the case of the Wickensham boys, who are charged with assaulting an old man named Bolton.

The auditor was busy yesterday issuing warrants in payment of the bills allowed the previous evening by the city council. There was only one purchaser present, and he was only paying 75 cents on the dollar. Some said at this figure.

A. J. Martin, Fred Hanson, and P. Sweeney were arrested yesterday for hauling dirt away from the bank of the creek, near the Tremont house, the dirt having been thrown up for the purpose of protecting from overflow. Their cases were continued until to-day.

The county board will probably let all small-pox bills go over to the meeting on May 14th. It is proposed to have a special half day devoted to hearing what each one of the claimants has to say, so that light may be thrown on all the bills, and then action taken at once.

The reporter's table and chairs at the council chamber have been so occupied by outsiders that the power of the press has been brought to bear upon the city fathers, who promise now to have the cause of the complaint removed, and give the the shovers of the pencil a chance to write up their dolings.

Capt. Phillip Loefel, one of the old and well-known cigar makers, as well as a valiant veteran, has entered the employ of M. S. Bonner, who has started a neat little cigar shop with a nice stock, at No. 346 Broadway, where the Eagle Chop House was.

Mr. Toller, of the merchant tailoring establishment of Smith & Toller, lost a fine overcoat at the dance at the rink Monday night, some one leaving a well worn one and old coat in its place. The difference in the garments thus exchanged strengthens the belief that it was a case of sneak-thieving.

The Bernhard Listemann concert company which is to appear here next Saturday evening will be a musical treat which none can afford to miss. The national reputation already won places the entertainment among the rare opportunities offered to Council Bluffs.

There is danger of the intersection of Bluff and Pierce streets being undermined by the digging away of the bluffs. The crumbling caused by the digging and carrying away of dirt has already begun to encroach on the street, and unless care is taken it will cut in still further.

doubtless soon be taken to raise the church or in some other way protect it. Ladies to consult their best interests will await the opening of the new millinery establishment of Mrs. O. A. Rogers, 341 Broadway.

The alarm of fire last evening was caused by the burning of a little old house on Pierce street in the rear of the Ogden house, loss about $100.

Those who circulated the petitions for the closing of the saloons say that they found many business men and property owners who expressed sympathy with the move but declined to sign because they had no confidence in the city administration doing anything about the matter.

Col. Daily has received an invitation to accompany a large number of other prominent and valiant veterans who will start from Washington May 4 for a visit to the old battle-field of Gettysburg.

Yesterday afternoon L. Williams filed an information before Justice Schurz, charging a neighbor named Roberts with assaulting him. The trouble seems to have arisen about a pet sheep which the Roberts had, and which Williams claimed had been running at large and had been damaging some of his nursery stock so that he appealed to the marshal to put the sheep in the pound.

Dr. Frisbie, of Des Moines, lectured in Masonic hall last evening. His description of the sights and experiences of his visit to Alaska was very vivid, and portions of the lecture were grand.

George Beniah and John G. O'Brien, strangers in the city, had a lively racket at Metcalf's saloon. It seems that they had a common fund, which they were spending in a twin spree, and a dispute arose as to who should carry the bag, and the treasurer, which resulted in their coming to bloody blows and getting arrested.

Artists' Materials at G. R. Beard's Wall Paper Store. Send for price list. An Evening at the Y. M. C. A. The weekly entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. last evening was an interesting one, the following being the programme as arranged:

MUSIC. Reading, by Willie Wallace. Talk—"Recorded Events of My Life," by "the boy."

INTERMISSION. Reading, by Miss Effie Moore. Song and guitar, by Messrs. Dye and Belknap.

Reading—"The Pan Bridget," "The Lightning Rod Man," by W. H. Cushman.

Facts worth remembering when you buy Wall Paper: 1st.—That Beard, next door to postoffice, has the largest stock to select from. 2d.—That his prices are as low as the lowest. 3d.—That he is a practical interior decorator and employs none but skillful workmen.

The Coming Jurors. Yesterday County Clerk Shea and Sheriff Galtzer drew the petit jury for the May term of the district court and the grand jury for the present year. The following are the names:

James Madden, Council Bluffs; W. L. Biggs, Council Bluffs; S. Reynolds, Edinburg township; W. S. Williams, Valley township; A. B. Nicholas, Council Bluffs; J. Aney, Norwalk; Henry Paschel, Council Bluffs; F. Lowe, Carson township; H. Shomeraker, Council Bluffs; J. H. Jenks, Knox township; John Dye, Meadonia township; W. O. Baue, James township; M. E. Pedicord, Pleasant township; A. Wheeler, Council Bluffs; Wm. Currie, Crescent township; D. J. Farrell, Neola; H. Gittens, sr., Bommer; Thos. Kearney, Belknap; E. Rosenman, Council Bluffs; Peter Eechle, Council Bluffs.

Demanding a Donation. When Mr. Dohoney was planning for the building of his new opera house, a large number of citizens, anxious to have such a building enterprise go forward, encouraged him by subscribing certain amounts to help him in the purchase of the grounds on which the opera house was to be located.

There is danger of the intersection of Bluff and Pierce streets being undermined by the digging away of the bluffs. The crumbling caused by the digging and carrying away of dirt has already begun to encroach on the street, and unless care is taken it will cut in still further.

The heavy rain of yesterday morning did some washing away of dirt, especially in the newly-filled part of the city. The water and mud is reported as having been washed somewhat into the basement of the Congregational church. That church is below grade, and its basement exposed to damage, now that the streets above it are raised. Some steps will

WANTS TO GET OUT. A Saloon Man in Harrison County Tired of Jail Life. A writ of habeas corpus was applied for in the superior court yesterday, the petition setting forth in substance that John C. Henry had been fined $500 under the prohibitory law, and committed to jail in Harrison county, for a term of 180 days unless the fine and costs were sooner paid.
