The annual firing of city council resolutions at the Union Pacific railway compapy has begun and will probably close. as in previous years, by the council forgetting all about what they were trying to do. The passage of resolutions threatening the Union Pacific unless the company does so and so is getting ridiculous, and these resclutions naturally have no more effect on the company than water on a duck's back.

The Barrios party arrived over the Union Pacific yesterday morning, there being about thirty in the party, and they being provided with a Wagner sleeper and a Central Pacific special car. They left over the Chicago & Northwestern road for Chicago. J. H. Mountain, of the Northwestern, went to Sidney to meet the party, and came in from there with them. He remained at his home here instead of going further east with the party. The party left San Francisco last Friday.
