THE DAILY BEE --- MONDAY MAY 11, 1885

This madicine combines Iron with pure regetable conies, and is invaluable for Diseases poculiar to Women, and all who lead ectentary lives. It En-riches and Purifies the Blood, Stimulates the Appetite, Strengthens the Mascles and Nerves-in fact, throughly Invigorates. Olears the complexion, and makes the akin smooth. It does not blacken the teeth, cause beakacho, or produce constipation—oil other free medicines so. Mas. Rinzaperiz Barno, 74 Farwell Ave., Milwau-kee, Wis, asys, under date of Dec. Still. 1894: "Thave used Brown's fron Bitters, and it has been more than a dootor to me, having cured me of the veakness ladies have in life. Also cured me of Lav-er Complexit, and now my complexion is clear and good. Has been beneficial to my children." Genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Takke ne other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

ast Undisputed in the BROAD CLAIN ... wing the VERY BEST OPERATING.

case undertake SR, F. D. OLARKE, M. D.,

else in proportion, prices being based or RECOLLECTIONS. confederate currency ef course. One North Carolina "cracker" remarked, "Bread corn is powful skace down hyar this hyar year," and we believed him. On the 21st and 22d of March is fought Occupation of Savannah----The March Through Sonth Carolina.

Destruction of Columbia - High

Priced Flour-Arrival at Goldaboro.

NO. X.

Written for the Baz.

Sherman's last battle, at Bentonville, where the rebels under Joe E. Johnston seek to annthilate us. But there is not much annihilation; the left wing of our army, on which the attack is made, held their ground while the right moves forward on quick time and get in the rear of the enemy and it is only by skilfull manevering that Johnston makes his es-cape to Smithfield, to the northward, though he succeeded in inflicting consid-

By noon of December 21, 1864, we are By noon of Decomber 21, 1005, we are encamped in the suburbs of Savannah and a few days later are comfortably lodged in shantles built by the boys of material gathered up in the neighbor-hood. The citizens generally were very friendly and it was quite evident that erable loss upon Sherman's army. March flicted by cannonading. Here I received a lieutenant's commission and cheerfully this comment on affairs in Tennessee: returned to our Uncle Samuel the rifle which I had carried many weary miles as a matter of fact the miles were never January 28, 1865, we bid farewell to

to be free men and deserve to be slave forever:

January 28, 1865, we bid farewell to Savannah and start on our march THROUGH SOUTH CAROLINA, crossing the Savannah river at Sister's Ferry. It was in the midst of the rainy season, the country was low and swampy and many days were occupied with mak-ing "corduroy" roads with poles and rails in order to get our heavy wagon trains along. It was a dismal time, but finally we reached a section where an oc-casional hill was to be seen; the steady rain-pour ceased, the sun made his ap-pearance, sweet potatoes again became rain-pour ceased, the sun made his appearance, sweet potatoes again became our main article of focd and once more life became worth living. Occasionally Gen. Sherman (famillarly known to us as "Billy" Sherman), would pass us on the march, riding a chestnut horse, whose durance. We had come to the conclusion that we were invincible, and our slege and capture of Atlanta, the march through Georgia and capture of its chief city, certainly warranted such con-clusion. When our advance would be checked it would be but temporarily. Skirmishers would be thrown forward, the ranks closed up, and on we would go with a yell—wading swamps, across old fields, and through the woods. Meanwhile we were living on the fat of the land, and frequently in on the fat of the land, and frequently in should be no other man's.

PILES! PILES! PILES! A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST!

AN IRISH GHOST STORY.

In Which a Lord, a Corate and Two Lovers Figure.

A Little Jealously Injected to Spice the Tale-The Marriage of

I had difficully in preventing him from rushing to his lodgings and taking summary vengeance upon him. We proceeded at once to the house of Lord O'Grady, who was sill sitting up, anxiously waiting for my report. He added his yersussions to mine, and we induced the young man to remain there for the night, and to allow me to break to his mother and his bride the joyful the Ghost. When I first took orders, I went to serve a curacy of one of my friends in a wild and remote part of Donegal. The village was not far from the sea and the church stood half way between them church stood half way between them, in a dismal place, which even in summer was exceedingly dreary; but in winter it was bleak and deserted. worthy of even this priceless treasure.

Musgrave left the villiage some days before the marriage, to the great pleas-ure and comfort of the inhabitants.

Worse Than a Revolver.

In commenting on several cases in that d From a copy of a rebel paper I clipped this comment on affairs in Tennessee: The following is the test cath required by Andy Johnson and Lincoln, to be taken by the clizens of Tennessee be-fore they will be allowed to vote. They who will swallow such an oath are unfit to be free men, and denote the such as the carried on his of a superstitution of any supernatural agency. The rogue thought fit to call in the aid they were greatly relieved in having the place quietly abandoned by the confeder-ate army before any damage had been in-test wrapped in places of blanket. In commenting on several cases in that the enemy's country and for the last the men had hobbled along ragged and sore, with bleeding feet wrapped in places of blanket. been very safely made without the inter-vention of any supernatural agency. The rogue thought fit to call in the aid one that is harmless, and effective, is of a superstitious tradition, and for this purpose used to pass Allhallows' Eve alone in the church porch, where he alone in the church porch, where, he endorses it.

those who were doomed to die passing in welrd procession along the churchyard Bill Nye in Puck. Bill Nye's Carving.

My carving is like my dancing. It is not conventional. It is extremely orig-Among others, he declared he had seen the specter of a young man who inal, bold, and audacious. I try to inwas serving with his regiment in South Inal, bold, and audacious. I try to in troduce joints where rature did not intend to have them, and I seek to make and certain knowledge the young lieuten- short cuts across a fowl in a way that ant would die in the course of the year. productive only of chagrin, vexation, and This mischievous prediction was likely to fragments of hen. Man is a weak, fallhave very serious consequences. Lieutenant Nevill was betrothed to a to monkey with the anatomy of a fowl or beautiful and innocent girl who lived in the village, and they were to be married on his return. Eveleen Verschoyle was at this time about eigh-will trip over the celery glass and fill the teen years of age, lovely, accomplished and refined. She had borne up for a long time sgainst the apprehensions and anxieties which Musgrave's dreadful spirits of the company, therefore, I make march, riding a chestnut horse, whose reservation, so help me God, quick action, small clean head, bright "The evident design of this oath is to eyes and restless ears proved that, like prevent Tennessee from voting for Mo-blis master, he possessed pluck and en-durance. We had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. we had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. we had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. We had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. We had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. We had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union durance. We had come to the conclusion that a committee of prominent Union men visited Washington and requested the their terrible journey through the durance the solution that a committee of prominent Union make their terrible journey through the solution that a commit to prove the solution of the ban. This gives me an opportu-nity, occasionally, to gather up the sage, have the terrible journey through the solution the solution of the solution that a commit the solution that a commit the solution that a committee of provident and requested the solution that a committee of provident and requested the solution that a committee of my lap prophecies had aroused; but now her it a kind of business, as it were, to fill bread crumbs, and gizzards out of my lap The cause of her illness was well and return them to the platter without known. The matter was talked of exciting remark.

everywhere, and had spread a panic through the place, which had greatly A few weeks ago, on an occasion o this kind, a cousin of mine, a young lawvexed my friend, Lord O'Grady. He told me that Harold Musgrave enter-work of the state of the s young man of good parts, and whose tained for Eveleen Verschoyle a love as Lusiness it is to stand between the violent as it was hopeless, and he had Omaha road and substantial justice, been heard to swear that if not his, she at so much a year and traveling expen ses, was present. I had just said something smart to Lord O'Grady now visited me, to consult as to what could be done to put a keep the company good natured, while I asked a young lady at the other end of 617 St. Charles St., St. Louis, Mo. Argular graduate of two Medical Objects, has been lenged sugged in the special treatment of Genome, Swartet, there and Econo Diskass that any other expiteian in Bi. Louis ely papers also wand all old reductions to the stand Physical Weakness ; Mercurial and Other Mesc-tions of Throat, Skin or Bones, Blood Polasessay, old Sores and Ulcers, ero treated with suparalleled treases, on inter selectille erimeiples. Swart, Privatel. Xposure of Industry, erostatile with suparalleled treases, on inter selectille erimeiples. Swart, Privatel. Xposure of Industry, erostated with suparalleled treases Arising from Indiscretion, Excess, Exposure of Industry, pinples on the face physical decay, rendering Martinge improper or unhappy. All permanent/feured, Pamphel (36 pages) en the above, see a sealed evicing, face to any address. Consultation at all the of health of the Arabite of the set of the set of the face. The of mail free, and invited. Write for questions.

A Positive Written Guarantee a in all carable cases. Medicines sent every as, deaphiets, English or German, 64 pages, deaphiets, English or female, Film MARRIACE CUIDE! 60 pages, fine plates. Illustrated in sich and gilt binding de, money ar postage: anne, paper covers, 20c. This had contains all the curieus, denbillior ingquicities want by mov. A book of great internet to all Hadida Beauty Exotast at recursed by the adviso.

PLUC TOBACCO. "The Dime Cute" This brand is a happy combination of fine, young risp red, burly lovg filler, with a

DELICIOUS FLAVOR and it just meets the taste of a large number hewers. Orders for "Plowshare" are coming in rapidly Orders for "Plowshare" are coming in rapidly from all parts of the country, demonstrating how quickly the greats army of chewers strike a good combination of Tobacco, both as to quality and quantity. Messrs Lorillard & Co, have exercised ne little time and labor in endeavoring to reach the Acme of Perfection in Plowshare, and seem to have done it. Besides the THY CHY CUTS of Plowshare are Almost Double in Size

Which is a point not to be overlooked by dealer who will find it to their interest to order some and give their customers an opportunity to try it. near future.

Ask Your Dealer for Plowshare We have for sale the finest residence property in the north and 18th, 19th and 20th streets.

western parts of the city.

during the last few years is a matter o great astonishment to those who pay an occasional visit to this growing city. The development of the Story Yards—the necessity of the Belt Idns Road—the finely paved streets—the hundreds of new residences and costly business blocks, finely paved streets—the hundreds of new residences and costly business blocks, with the population of our city more than doubled in the last five years. All this is a great surprise to visitors and is the admiration of our citizens. This rapid growth, the business activity, and the many substantial improvements made a lively demand for Omaha real estate, and every investor has made a handsome every investor has made a handsome profit. Since the Wall Street panie May with the subsequent cry of hard times, there has been less demaud from specula-

GROWING

The remarkable growth of Omaha

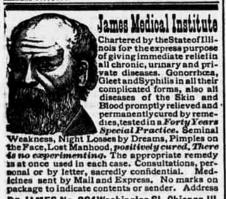

CITY

tors, but a fair demand from investors seeking homes. This latter class are taking advantage of low prices in building material and are securing their homes at much less cost than will be possible a year hence. Speculators, too, can buy real esta's cheaper now and ought to take advantage of present prices for future pro ta. The next few years promises greates dovelopments in Omaha than the past uvo years, which have been as good as we could reasonably desire. New man-ufacturing establishments and large job-bing houses are added almost weekly, and all add to the prosperity of Omaha.

There are many in Omaha and through-but the State, who have their money in the banks drawing a nominal rate of in-terest, which, if judiciously invested in Omaha real estate, would bring them much greater returns. We have many bargains which we are confident will bring the purchases large profits in the North we have fine lots at reasonable prices on Sherman avenue, 17th.

Imported

Best's

Greenhouse.

Suisehone No. 144.

Wine.

IN BOTTLES.

DOMESTIC.

Budweiser St. Louis.

Schlitz-Pilsner___.....Milwaukee.

Evergreens, Small Fruits, Extras with every order.

_____Milwaukee.

Bedding Plants,

W. S. SAWYER & CO., Lincola, Mebraska

St. Charles Hotel.

O STREET, BET 7th and 8th, . . LINCOLN, NEB

Newly and elegantity furnished, Good

Mrs. Eate Coakly, Proprietores.

THE BURNING OF COLUMBIA. February 16th we arrive in front of breaking camp in the morning enough provision would be left by a single regi-

Columbia, the beautiful capitol of South Carolina. But little opposition is met with and the night of the 17th finds our division and another camped in the city. Wade Hampton's cavalry was the last of the confederate forces to leave the place, and they had attempted to burn a long string of cotton bales which had been piled up in the center of a wide street for the purpose of being destroyed, but the citizens turned out in force and endeavto save it. As we marched down this ing pace with the rapid improvement street towards the new capital building in process of erection we could see that DR. JAMES, No. 204Washington St., Chicago, Ill. the cotton had been drenched and the street flooded with water, and, to all ap-bearances, the fire was entirely subdued. Since my last Men, women and children turned out to improvements. Beer see us enter the city, and as we marched past the crowded sidewalks whisky was dealt out by the bucketful to all Erlanger,..... Bavaria. who would drink, by those people, evi-dently with a view of propitiating them. Meanwhile a high wind arose Pilsner..... Bohemian. Kaiser Bremen.

numerous to mention. during the afternoon and the smouldering fire in the cotton bales was fanned into fiames unnoticed in the excitement ness houses lining the street. The liquor distributed to the soldiers has excited "a desire for more and the discovery of a is the latest venture. This is of itself a distillery near our camps results in scat-tering ten thousauand druken soldiers through the city, many of whom contri-Capitalists from the east are finding through the city, many of whom contri-buted to the destruction of the place. A Ale, Porter, Domestic and Rhine Wine. PD. MAURER, 1213 Farnam S are safe and profitable. Mr. L. C. Empkie, of Council Bluffs, detail of five thousand men is made by LINCOLN FLORAL CONSERVATOR) order of Sherman to aid the citizens in putting out the fire, but the five hand Iowa, was here a few days ago and pur-engines are entirely insufficient and it is chased 2,000 acres which he will improve Roses, Flowering Shrubbery, apparent that the fate of the city which at once.

. Hon. B. F. Clayton, state secretary passed the first ordinance of accessionthe capital of the one particular from Iowa, was here last week making investments.

have purchased twenty sections in the realed. It was a dreadful scene; hunsouthern part of the county which they dreds of houses were on fire at once: men propose to colonize. swore and women and children screamed A new furniture store is being erected and cried with terror; dranken soldiers ran about the streets with blazing torches; by R. H. M. Dow, of New York, which the fire engines were manfully worked; will be opened for business in a short soldiers and citizens heartily joined in time.

torily to all present.

The Ogallala brass band is the lates acquisition, and the sound of new horns is heard issuing from all points of the compass, to the infinite delight of the writing.

the effort to subdue the flames as long as there was any hope of success, and long lines of sentries did all in their power to restrain their reckles and desperate com-rades. A few years later I saw the city of Chicago, many times larger than Colum-bia, destroyed by fire but the scene did not equal, in horrible details that wit: not equal, in horrible details that wit-nessed in the fair southern city on the night of February 17th, 1865. We spend two days in

DESTROYING BAILROADS

in the vicinity of Columbia and then re sume our march to the northeast, crossing the North Carolina line on the 8th of March. About this time the smallpox drowsy inhabitants. made its appearance in the army and reluced the ranks somewhat. On this campaign no regard was paid to roads. The srmy was kept in as compact a form as possible and as we carried pontoon bridges streams too deep for fording could be crossed at almost any point. In fact the rebels burned all the Vioral Designs, Bouquets, Baskets, Etc., for Parties Weddings and Funerals a specialty, and sont to any part of the State. Sweet Potato and other vegetable plants in their peason. Illustrated Catalogue free.

being could be crossed at almost any point. In fact the rebels burned all the bridges across the large streams. I remember that on one occasion our center division of, perhaps, six thousand men, marched through a grist mill in operation, marched through a grist mill in operation, strengthen your digestion, regulated through a grist mill in operation, strengthen your digestion, regulated through a grist mill in operation, way goes the shadow from your nerves and then so suddenly that I arrived almost as soon commotion and woe. Clear your iters to ne your nerves and then so suddenly that I arrived almost as soon as a letter would have done." I was so overcome with surprise that for the yourg officer the reason of my strange is dy you are happy because you are well. Mrs. M. J. Alston, of Litileton, N. C., says, "I recommend Brown's Iron Bit ters to the nervous and debilitated. It greatly benefited me." ATTorms-$1.50 to $1 per day. Special rates give novio-1 m-me have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Wil-liam's Indian Ointment. For sale by all drug-giets and malled on receipt of price. 50c and $1. Sold at retail by Kuhn & Co. O. F. GOODMAN' Wholesale Acent ious great-coat, I walked rapidly towards the church.

path.

I took my seat in the porch of the anclent building, the appearance of which, in the moonlight, was at least as strange Wholesale Agent. as the times in which it was erected. The OGALLALA'S ONWARD MARCH. wind moaned and blew with mournful force from the sea across the flat high-Substantial Evidences of Growthlands which lay between. It shricked Capital and Settlers Coming In. through the old church tower with wild corners of the buildings with swift and OGALLALA, Neb., May 7 .- I have been hurrying blasts. so busy for the past few weeks in keep-by the keen wind, and I could no longer control a painful shudder which occasion-Since my last I will note a few of the ally ran through my overstrained nerves.

Town hall, 44x80 feet, nearly completed; Congregational church, 24x50 feet; one flour and feed store by Messrs, Cosack & McLane; large fine business turned instantly toward the place whence house, Wm. Lucker, and dwellings too the sound proceeded, and looking down I saw in the now clear moonlight a figure A block has been purchased for school advancing up the path that ran through house; the old building will be moved on the churchyard. same and a large addition made thereto

At this moment I must confess that terror got the better of reason, and that * * * * Rupture, pile tumors, fis my shivering increased with alarming vi- tulas, and all diseases (except cancer) of olence as I continued to gaze on the ap- the lower bowel radically cured. Book proaching object. I could imsgine no natural cause for which it was possible Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo that any one could be traversing that N.Y. out that investments in Keith county path at such an hour.

The figure suddenly stopped, and stood with its back towards me. I saw that it was dressed in a soldier's uniform. The scarlet clothes showed in the moonlight; the glittering buttons, and the sword hanging from the belt, all convinced me that the apparation wore the dress of an officer in the army. Musgrave's prediction rushed back to mind, and in the confusion of the moment I was almost inclined to admit its truth. It is true that I had never seen the young soldier who had been the subject of it, but the coincidence was so strong as to stagger me. Moonlight alstrong as to stagger me. Moonlight al-ways gives a strange paller to the human face, and this aided perhaps by my ex-cited fancy, gave to that of the silent is characterized by running sores, ab-figure before me a pallid, death-like appearance. I suddenly remember the duty which I had consented to perform, and, subduing with a strong effort the panic which had selzed me, I stepped forward and called out, "Who goes there?" "A friend," replied the figure, in a hoarse but certainly natural voice. "Why do you seek here at this hour of the night?" I asked. "Before I answer you," replied the apparition, "let me ask what right you have to question me?" "Iam," I said, "the curate of

The prospects for the B. & M. R. R. coming to this place are growing brighter every day. Yours once in a while, place. "Well, sir," it replied with a cheery laugh, "my name is Neville, and I am a lieutenant in the army. You are prob-ably acquainted with my mother who and why the children do not eat at the ing Sts. first table, and why there is a sound of Van Green Bros., N. W. Cor. Division and kicking against the door of an adjoining rocm, and the occasional wall of a hungry child as the meal progresses.

Educated and Experienced. Hood's Sarsaparllla is prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass., who have a thorough knowledge of pharmacy, and many years practical exand fitfal sounds, and rushed round the perience in the business. It is prepared with the greatest skill and care, under the direction of the men who originated it.

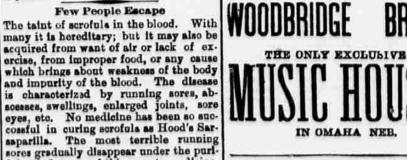

I had not sat there long before I began Hence Hood's Sarsaparilla may be deing pace with the rapid improvement to wish with an exceeding great desire pended upon as a thoroughly pure, hon-and development of this town and county that the hour of my lonely watch had that I have been somewhat derelict in expired. I was chilled to the very bone TOBONTO, May 9,-A cable dispatch to the Globe says the accounts published in the Lon-I at last dad only a few minutes to stay. den daily papers concerning the battle be-I began to pace quickly across the tween Col. Otter and the Indians under small porch, hoping to warm my shiver-ing frame, when I distinctly heard the creaking of the churchyard gate. I from the field of engagement. It has been suggested from an influential quarter that the imperial government act as mediator between the dominion government and the half-breeds, An official telegram issued to day allays exitement somewhat.

A Brute Blows His Head Off,

Sr. Louis, May 9.-Frank Kubechech living ten miles from Carlinville, Illinois quarrelled with his wife Thursday, and beat her with a club till she became insensible. Thinking he had killed her he took a shotgun, placed the muzzle under his chin and blew the top of his head off. The woman will probably die. The couple has been married 27 years.

Few People Escape

May Snow Showers, Jan. 9. 1885.

CLEVELAND, O., May 9 -- Snow has fallen at intervals throughout the forencom. DETROIT, May 9.—There has been several flurries of snow here to-day, but it melted as

We have used Swift's Specific in our family as an antidate for malarial poison for two or three years and have never known it to fail in a single instance. W. C. FURLOW, Sumpter county, Ga., Sept. 11, 1834. Ulcers.

For six or eight years I suffered with ulcers on mar-right ieg. I was treated with Iodide of Poinssiun and Mercury, and I became helpless. Six boltles of Swift's Specific make's a permanent cure. Feb. 28, 1885. M. D. Wilson, Gainceville, Ga.

Swift's Specific is entirely vegetable. Treatise lood and Skin Diseases mailed free. The Swiry Systemic Co., Drawer 3, Atlanta Ga.

scesses, swellings, enlarged joints, sore eyes, etc. No medicine has been so succossful in curing scrofuls as Hood's Sarsaparilla. The most terrible running sores gradually disappear under the puri-fying influences of this great medicine. If you are a sufferer from scrofula and desire more evidence as to the wonderful success of Hood's Sarseparilla, send to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., for a book containing many remarkable cures.

BRANTFORD, Ont., May 9,-Snowing hard here this morning.

fast as it fell.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria