ARRESTED AGAIN.

A Model Young Man of Council Bluffs In Jail for Forgery.

Robert J. Skiles, the young man arrested four or five weeks ago for forgery, was taken in again last night, on comlaint of William Storrs, a stock man from Antelope county. While out through that part of the state last Docember, as travelling agent, soliciting business for the Home Fire insurance company, Skiles lorged and Nebraska will hear with sorrow that his two orders, or notes, of $50 each, on Mr. Storrs, and sent them to the office of the company here. At the same time he also forged notes on two other men, Keller and Bill, of Antelope, the entire two weeks longer, closing up the details of amount of his crooked transactions covering about $300. These notes were also duties at Fort Snelling. sent to the office here, and in commissions for his work the company paid him $60. Yesterday Mr. Storrs arrived in court at Chicago, was an Omaha visitor Sun-Omaha, and went directly to the office of the Home company. While there, and Hall. He has purchased property at Kearthe notes, he talking about saw Skiles passing along on the opposite side of the street. Immediately Storra went to Justice Andrew's office and awere out a warrant for his Cedar Rapids; Geo. R. Hammond, North arrest. It was placed in Officer Whalan's Platte; D. C. Corley, Aurora, Ill.; W. F. hands, who captured the young man Webster, Rochester, N. Y.; Cid Hill, St. about 10 o'clock last night and gave him Paul, Minn; J. B. Grant, Denver; J. While getting the warrant for his arrest last evening a man was sent to watch him. He went directly to General Howard's house and made a call there. On the way he met McCott, Dawson; W. F. Wiley, C. D. Besthe Rev. Savage, and the watchman heard him say that he expected to join the church at Council Bluffs soon; also heard him invite the minister to come over next Sunday and enjoy communion services with him. He was not aware that an officer was then on his track to arrest him for forgery.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Monsignor Capel's Second Lecture in Omaha,

Moneignor Capel, the distinguished divine and orator, lectured again last night, but this time at the catholic cathedral, his subject being, "Marriage and Divorce." The attendance was only fair, not what it ought to have been, because in in the subject chosen. Monsignor Capel is an elequent and pleasing speaker. That the mar-riage ceremony is of divine origin, the speaker quoted that passage of scripture which says, "It is not good for man to be alone," as an example by which to prove the assertion He held that the creator could have, had He so chosen, created every man sepsrately but He preferred to delegate that power unto man, therefore incentive should be a means of making doubly sacred the marriage tie. The first idea of marriage is a union of two persons, and to effect that union it is necessary that there be mutual consent on the part of the contracting parties. The speaker dwelt at considerable length on the propriety and adaptability of making life contracts and showed that too many unfortunate marriages are be ing made either on account of persons beauty or wealth. His remarks on di verce, and the law which permits a separation of husband and wife, were listene to with a great deal of attention and in-

FIXING FOR A FAIR.

Preliminary Steps Taken at a Meet ing Held Last Night,

The Omaha Fair and Exposition association held a meeting last night at the Board of Trade rooms, with Joseph Garneau, Jr., as presiding officer, and George E. Gibson, secretary. The attendance for such an enterprise, in which Omaha is certainly interested, was rather small, but those who were present manifested a firm determination to proceed with the work of getting up a fair.

As an encouraging inducement it was stated that fully $600 has already been ubscribed towards a fair or exposition, nd $500 more promised. The question f making such an undertaking success ul, in opposition to a state fair, was aised, but there seemed to be an almost unanimous opinion that, with $50,000 capital stock as a basis to work on, and selection of dates that will not conflict with the state fair, there can be no question of success. After discussing the matter at some length, Mr. James McShane moved that a committee of three men be appointed to confer with the owners of the fair grounds and ascertain at what figures they can either be bought or leased. committee be instructed to solicit subscriptions to the stock and raise the amount from $25,000, at which it stands increased to five members. They were State vs. Pat Gibson, two cases. First Frank Colpetzer.

The meeting then adjourned
