SCRANTON, Penn., May 25.—While a party of young people were enjoying a social hour last evening at Durr's restaurant, in this city, the conversation turned on the subject of matrimony, and Fred Martin, in a joking way, said that he would marry one of the young girls present named Miss Gaffga if Mr. Zimmerly would marry another young lady named Miss Shadt. Zimmerly said he was ready at a moment's notice, and, after a good deal of laughter, Alderman Roesler was called in from an adjoining room to the the nuption land. Up to that time Martin had had never spoken of marriage to Miss Gaffga, and when the good-natured justice appeared and announced that he was ready to perform the ceremosy then and there, few of those present regarded the affair as anything more than a joke; but Martin asserted that he was in sarnest, and declared that if Miss Gaffga would accept him he was ready to become her husband. His companions heartly applauded this sentiment, and the applause was reanged when Miss Gaffga blushing like The Free Will Baptists of southern Michigan will hold their annual meeting at Brownsville, Cass county, May 22-24. A race between a trout and a water snake was recently witnessed near Oswego, N. Y. The fish was in its spawning ground, and kept swimming about in a circle, a little in advance of its pursuer. The snake finally caught the fish by the tail, but the trout had the use of its fine, and kept its body well ahead of the snake. The snake then backed at the snake and district the snake then backed. up toward shore, and with one final effort drew the fish out of the water and swal-

The largest salmon of the season was re-ceived at Portland, Ore., a few days ago.
