Public Works.

At the meeting of the board of public works in the afternoon Lamoreaux Bros. were awarded the contract for grading Garlich and Orchard streets from Lowe avenue to Pleasant street, and Lowe avenue from Hamilton to Johnson. Their bid was 11 9-10 cents per cubic yard. Bids were then opened for the filling of certain lots declared a unisance by the city com-cil. Only one bid was itemized, the rest being blanket bids. Mr. Kierstead made a motion that action be deferred on this matter until next meeting. He urged that it would be a damage to some men to have their lots filled. Thus Byron Reed had a lot on Twenty-eighth and Farnam and Mr. Davis one on Twenty-eighth and Harney that were both being reserved for business purposes. If these were filled the dirt would have to be removed again some time. The

One of the Reasons Why Annexation is Retarded.

The South Omaha annexation committee has been on a still hunt and has, it thinks, bagged its game. At the meeting at the Paxton hotel Thursday all the packers and half a dozen of the leading merchants were represented. The deliberations lasted for wo or three hours and at the close of the ession the South Omaha men expressed themselves in favor of annexation and willing o support it.

The figures presented by the committee were of the most exhaustive and convincing character and mathematically demonstrated to the suburban visitors that the argument of taxation was overwhelmingly in favor of Omaha. This is considered by the committee great step towards the realization of their
