A New Motor Shaft.

Motor line service was somewhat demoralized yesterday. None of the trains carried trailers and but ten trains left the car house on Ames avenue on the South Omaha line The trains ran far apart and the single car of each train was crowded to its utmost. Great delay to clerks who left their homes at the usual time was occasioned, and many of them got to their desks half an hour late. The cause of this was the placing of a new shaft in the Twenty-second street power house, re-sulting in reduced power. The old shaft has given indifferent service and an opportunity to place the new shaft has been long looked for and was accomplished only at 11 o'clock Tammany Has Unborsed Warrior Birkhauser-A Change of Base.

A reporter who happened to be in the Frenzer block Wednesday afternoon accidentally (and under protest) overheard a conversation which was not blocked out for BER

"I wonder why it is that every time us fel ters meet in secret consultation," said one of the men, "a BEE man is sure to rise up as if out of the floor to haunt us."

"Darnfino," replied the other, a gray-baired pioneer who just now happens to be in the ring. "We must find another place to meet. Con's office is teo public, you know, and I heard him say that our meetings in his private office would queer him with the department in Washington, and I reckon he's right. Of course we have done nothing wrong (a groan), but that blankety blank Rosewater is liable to come out and charge that the government officials are trying to run local and state politics, and that the base of operations is in Gallagher's official quarters."

"No," spoke up the third man, who knows more about mitre-wheels than he does about city gas bills, "it won't do; we must move, it seems as if Rosewater's reporters are floating in the air. He'll make a public scandal out of this yet. You know he got Vandervoort fired out of the postal service years ago for monkeying with politics, and Van is too valuable just now for us where he is, I move that we meet hereafter in the New York Life building and keep watch of all intruders.

"But after all Tog Bee man didn't get onto what we man delin't get onto pioneer who just now happens to be in the watch of all intruders.

"But after all Tog Bee man didn't get onto what we were doing," said Van exultantly, as he stepped up to join his fellows. "No; Rosewater thinks he has it down fine and that Birkhauser will be chairman of the board! Ha! ha! We'll fool him. When he discovers that Morrissey is our man he'll begin to think that that big fat reporter of his is lying to him. Now, boys, be careful and keep mum until we have pulled Frank through. He is pretty smooth. If our fellows through. He is pretty smooth. If our fellows scatter he can get enough support in the council to make himself a dead winner anyhow."

Just at this juncture the reporter opened a hall door near the men and quietly floated down the stairway into Fifteenth street.

Since then other advices have reached The Ber that leave no doubt that Birkhauser has been dropped and Morrissey's name is to be sent in. This was the object of the meeting in Postmaster Gallagher's office, already re-ported, at which gathering G. M. Hitchcook was brought over to the support of Morrissey.

Although the entire combine has not yet ratified the new arrangement Morrissey feels confident of getting Ford, Lowrey and Kaspar to make his calling and election sure.

NO MORE BAD MILK.

All Dealers in the Fluid Must Now Take Out Licenses.

The council has passed an ordinance regulating the graduation and sale of milk. It repeals section 5 of chapter 41 of the revised ordinances. In substance this new ordinance provides hat no person shall have in his possession or offer for sale any unwholesome or adulterated milk. The removal of cream, the addition of water, foreign fats or coloring matter are considered as adulteration, and any milk which shall be shown upon analysis to con-tain less than 12 per cent of milk solids and ess than 3 per cent of fats will be declared dulterated.

The ordinance also says that any person who sells milk must have a license, for which $1 will be charged for each wagon. Al at with oe charged for each wagon. All dairies, farms, barns, etc., will be subject to inspection by the beard of health. Any violation of the provisions of the ordi-nance will be a misdemeanor subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100, and the license of such person shall be subject to revocation by the board of health. The ordinance is now in effect, could not be obtained.

The enforcement of this ordinance will of course require officers and these will be provided for in other ordinances which are soon to be framed.

The effect of these enactments will have a discouraging effect upon the unscrupulous people who have been unloading watered, skimmed, sour, adulterated and unwholesome milk upon the community for years past,

It will be held forth at Boyd's opera house on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of nextweek, presenting Gilbert & Sullivan's latest opera at all three performances. As the elements that give color to the rose are conveyed in the sap that circulates through the capillaries of the shrub on which it grows, so does the blood convey the elements that paint the cheek of beauty with the ruddy glow of health-"The bloom of opening flowers." But in order that this beautifying process of nature may be in the highest degree successful, it is important that the sanguinary fluid be kept in that pure and wholesome condition so surely and so easily attainable through the use of S. I take pleasure in submitting the following statement of facts that you may know the great benefit that has resulted from the use of your Specific in the case of my little daughter, now ten years of age. The child, when two years of age, had a severe attack of scarlet fever, which left her with a shattered constitution. Among other evidences of impaired nutrition, was what the doctors called softening of the bones. In her fifth year she happened to a slight accident which resulted in the dislocation of the hip joint, and, from the iritation thus set up, terrible abscesses of the hip ensued. The abcesses, despite the best medical treatment that could be obtained, remained for three years, discharging continuously. At this time, through the influence of friends, I put her on your S.S.S.

When this treatment was commenced the abcess was very large, having six perforations, puss discharging through them all. During this treatment several spiculae of bone came out, and by discharging through them all.

We offer today about six thousand Men's and Youths' fine suits at fully one-half what you would have to pay for the same goods elsewhere. We promised something big in the way of a suit sale and you know we never do things by halves. Today and throughout the follow. ing week you can expect one dollar to do the work of two dollars with. out fear of disappointment. This is not a petty sale of a few styles for the purpose of making a noise. Its a grand showing of entirely new and this season's goods--every garment made for the finest retail trade.

The few samples in our windows give only a poor idea of the value of these goods, the prices on them do not tell one-half how cheap they are sold. You must go inside the store and examine the goods. Every coat is finished open at the bottom, you can see what the quality is, examine the linings, trimmings and the general get up of the garments, see how they fit, then you will have an idea what bargains you are getting.

It would be useless to enumerate any particular style or styles in this sale. As we said there are about six thousand suits and one is as big a bargain as another. The prices range from $4.90 for a good All Wool Cheviot Suit, up to $15.00 for tailor-made extra fine Fancy Worsteds.* There are all styles, light and dark colors, sacks and frocks, also fine Corkscrew Prince Alberts, silk faced, at $9.50 for the coat and vest.

Don't hesitate to come inside if you see a big crowd on the first floor, we have a second and third floor, all full of goods, and plenty of salesmen on each floor to wait on you.

MAIL ORDERS --- In order to give our outside patrons an opportunity to secure some of these bargains, we have, of the larger lots in this sale, a limited quantity of samples. We will send them with rules for measuring, but cannot guarantee the filling of the order, as the goods are likely to go fast. However, you can try. We send goods C. O. D., with privilege of exam, ining and trying on. If they are not in every way satisfactory you need not take them.
