NATURE MADE HER BLACK.

And Nature is Again Depriving Her of Her Color.

There came to this city Monday what might be described as a phenomenon of the most remarkable order. It was a colored woman, black as the ace of spades, whose skin is gradually turning to a snowy though by no means leprous-like whiteness.

She is a widow, thirty years old, with four small children, and is in almost destitute circumstances. Her name is Mrs. Annie Wilson. She is of very ordinary birth and appearance as a negro, though there is very little of the negro in her talk. She is ordinarily bright for a woman of her class, is peevish, and not very talkative.

Her husband, a colored man, consists in the fact that her hands and wrists, and a circle half an inch wide about each eye is as white and almost as fair as that of the best born white woman in the land.

She said that she was born in Missouri and that both of her parents were black as coal. The strange change began to show itself upon her body about six years ago and has been at work constantly ever since. She said that her parents as well as herself had always enjoyed the hardest of health and were not known for her excessive turning of her black skin white would never be known to her. As her skin whitens, it becomes a trifle smoother and less inclined to wrinkle. These last peculiarities are noticeable particularly on the back of her hands.

The whitening process as far as it has now progressed, does its work thoroughly as it goes along and leaves no flecks, spots or blotches of black behind.

Mrs. Wilson also said that her feet had turned color almost to the same extent as her hands, and that other portions of her body were being similarly affected.

No less than sixteen physicians of Missouri and Iowa, Mrs. Wilson said, had examined the change that is going on, and pronounced it the most remarkable thing they had ever witnessed.

It seems that woman's home is in Clarinda, Ia., and it was through her applying for aid to the board there that she became known in this city.

She does not relish her change of color as keenly as thousands of her black sisters probably do, and says she would prefer to be just as nature made her—a colored woman.

There is danger in impure blood. There is safety in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. 100 doses one dollar.

CONSIDERS IT A BAD THING.

The Mayor Will Ascertain What Davis Has to Do With Contracts.

Mayor Cushing returned at a late hour Monday night after an absence of two weeks, and was found at his office this morning.

"I have returned a whole week ahead of the time I expected to in order to be present at the special session of the legislature. It was only by chance that I happened to pick up a paper in Texas, where I have been, and learned that a special session had been called. I started back immediately. After getting as far as Kansas City I saw in another paper that the governor had revoked his call. Then I thought I might as well come on home after getting that far away from Texas and so on my way back."

"I haven't seen an Omaha paper or heard a thing about what has been going on here since I left, and so I will not attempt to do any talking whatever."

Being handed a copy of the Bee of this morning and showing the editorial headed "Mayor Cushing and the Combine," his honor glanced through it and said:

"Well, I must hear something more about this business before I do any talking—won't do a bit until I have looked the whole story over. I might tell you one thing, however, and that is that I've never approved any malfeasance in office as far as Kansas City is concerned. If I knew it, if Councilman Davis ever had a hand in a city contract of any kind it has escaped my notice. That sort of thing is bad enough, but I will not attempt to do anything about it until I have had a chance to do so."

The mayor added that he hadn't given the chairmanship of the board of public works matter a single thought during his absence.

A Dangerous Policy.

It is a dangerous policy to wait until taken sick before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy. Every family should be provided with some reliable remedy for bowel complaints, ready for immediate use, when required, during the summer months, and this remedy is unquestionably far superior to any other. It can always be depended upon, and is pleasant and safe to take. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent bottles.

DOG CATCHER AGAIN.

He Gets Into Trouble With a Bird Fancier.

The dog-catchers are in the police court again. This time Max Geisler, the bird dealer, is the complaining witness, Geisler is laid up in bed with an injured face and his partner tells the story.

They have some fancy bird dogs at the store. Monday evening one of the canines was playing about the door-step when the dog-catcher's wagon was passing. The animal was captured, and Mr. Geisler, who saw the transaction, ran out to remonstrate with the dog tag in his hands. The catchers paid no attention and drove off to the pound.

About an hour after, Mr. Geisler and his friend arrived at the pound and demanded the dog. Then there was trouble. One of the boys started for the friend with danger in his eye. Geisler interfered and received a blow in the face from an iron bar which incapacitated him for further argument. This is the story of the bird-dealer's Painsmaster Palaski has a different version, claiming that the dog was caught across the street, and that Geisler made the first assault.

Matthews, the assaulting dog catcher, was arrested charged with assault to commit murder.

The Preventive of a Terrible Disease. No disorders, excepting the most deadly forms of lung disease, involve such a tremendous destruction of organic tissues as those which fasten upon the kidneys. Such maladies, when they become chronic—and none are so liable to assume that phase—completely wreck the system. To prevent this terrible disease, recourse should be had, to the first manifestation of trouble, to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which experience has proved to be highly effective as a means of imparting tone and regularity to the organs of urination, as well as to the liver, stomach and bowels. Another beneficial result of this medicine, naturally consequent upon its diuretic action, is the elimination from the blood of impurities which breed rheumatism, neuralgia, acute dropsy and other maladies. By increasing the activity of the kidneys, it augments the depurative efficiency of these organs, and thus secures the most important outlets for escape of such impurities.

BURGARS STILL AROUND.

They Improve the Opportunity Finely During the Storm.

The storm was a bonanza for the burglars. William Fleming, the grocer at Fourteenth and Douglas, was the first victim. The thieves broke through a window on Fourteenth street and ransacked the store, scattering boxes and drawers and their contents over the floor. They secured only 40 pennies from the money drawer. This is the second burglary on this beat since Sunday, McShane being the first.

The office of Wilkes Ford, at 1607 Farnam, was entered in a similar way through a back window. The safe was open, but the strong box locked. This was broken open and $300 in money taken. The police are looking for the colored janitor, who is suspected.

The Mercury office at 311 South Sixteenth was entered through the front door. The safe which was used jointly by Taylor brothers and the Mercury, was opened by some one who knew the combination. The strong box was abstracted and taken into a rear room, where it was pried open, but contained nothing of value.

The meat market on Thirteenth street between Douglas and Dodge was also entered by means of the tram in the alley adjoining the Millard hotel. About $5 in cash was secured in the till.

Entitled to the Best. All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

EXTENDING TO THE ELKHORN.

The Conductors on That Line Now Regarding the consultation had Monday with a delegation of conductors and brakemen from his road, General Manager Burt of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley, says that the demand for a revision of their schedule has grown out of similar agitations on other roads. The passenger men are not in it. They receive the same wages as are paid by the B. & M. road. Conductors get $100 per month and run on an average of about four thousand miles. The Northwestern recently revised its schedule and feeling that they are earning as much as anybody else, the Elkhorn fellows also ask to be recognized.

Mr. Burt has taken the matter under advisement and will give the delegation a reply between now and next Saturday night.

Laid Out by the Storm.

Trains on the Northwestern road were laid out several hours yesterday morning at Loveland, a way station between Council Bluffs and Missouri Valley. During the storm Sunday night, a cloud burst over that vicinity and the water came down in regular torrents. It washed away a section of the track and did other serious damage. A large force of men was put to work repairing the road, so that the delayed west-bound trains arrived late yesterday afternoon.

Both the Union Pacific and the Burlington had some trouble during the night, but nothing of a serious nature. The Belt line was also left in bad condition in two or three places, but the Missouri Pacific passenger arrived on time.

Had to Postpone.

Grand Chief Conductor Clark and Grand Secretary Daniels went away Monday night but will return. They received word that neither Vice President Holcomb nor General Manager Dickenson could be here for several days therefore the proposed meeting with them had to be postponed. Further conference with Dickenson alone would not result in anything more than has already been offered. Some time ago he said, "I have conceded all in my judgment to be needed to force. If they succeed in getting additional allowances it will have to come from a higher authority." For that reason the conference with Vice President Holcomb is desired.

The Question of the Day. "Are you provided with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as a safeguard against an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months?" No family can afford to risk being without this invaluable medicine during the hot weather. It is almost certain to be needed, and is a friend indeed when required, as it never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.

Catarrh

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by number physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A new bottle was used, and the cure was effected. My system was completely restored to health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons who had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River St., Lowell, Mass.

Mr. Burt has taken the matter under advisement and will give the delegation a reply between now and next Saturday night.
