COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

A Discussion on the Question of Appointing a Druggist. The question of appointing a county drug ist to succeed F. P. Zimmer occupies the ttention of the county commissioners yester day afternoon. Applications for appointment to the position were received from J. P

Eckers, George Roeder and T. W. Spaford. Mr. O'Keeffe inquired who was to pay the truggist. He said Mr. Zimmer had been ap pointed by the city as a druggist at $25 per neuth, and the county had paid him $33 as a lerk. He was not in favor of hiring a clera The matter was referred to the committee

THE THEATERS.

Joseph Haworth and his company of players will appear at Boyd's on Thursday and Friday of the coming week. Mr. Haworth will be seen for the first time here in Steele Mackaye's remantic drama, "Paul Kauvar." If all reports be true, it is one of the strongest dramas yet written by an American dramatist. In the leading role Mr. Haworth does superb work. His great success had much to do with the great run of 300 nights which the drama had in New York, Haworth is said to possess all the qualifications of a great actor. He is young, handsome, posesses a rich, powerful voice and is gifted in ther ways. It is seldom indeed that one finds so many peculiar gifts possessed by one man.

In Paul Kauvar Mr. Haworth has made the distinct success of his career. For over two hundred nights he played the part at the Standard theater in New York City with the record of having never missed a performance.
At present, he is, on his way to New York At present he is on his way to New York after a most prosperous season in the west. When Mr. Haworth appeared at the Bush When Mr. Haworth appeared at the Bush street theatre in San Francisco it was impossible for two weeks to obtain even standing room in the theatre five minutes before the rise of the curtain. This has been the rule everywhere. The past week at the Taber Grand in Denver has been the largest week in the history of the theater. The play will receive a handsome mounting here. The dream of a handsome mounting here. The dream anarchy and the great mob-scene cannot af-ford to be missed. They are described as being two of the most remarkable scenes ever being two of the most remarkable scenes ever presented to the stage. Mr. Haworth will have the support of a fine company of play-ers. They include Miss Rachelle, Miss White, Miss Timberman, three famous stage beauties; Mark Lynch, a fine young actor; Joseph Ransome, George Conway, M. J. Pen-ton and others. The engagement is for two nights only and scats should be secured well includes.

The coming week closes the season at the Eden musee and the management of the popular family resort under William Lawler. That Mr. Lawler's management has been successful every one knows, and as a fitting close to a long list of pure entertainments Mr. Lawler presents this week the most interesting show of the entire season.
