ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At Boyd's opera house on this and Wednesday nights and at the Wednesday matinee there will be given that strong attraction, Daniel Frohman's production of "The Prince and the Pauper." The play is a dramatization by Mrs. Abby Sage Richardson of Mark Twain's popular story, and Mrs. Richardson has retained the most telling touches of Twain's genius and introduced several intensely dramatic situations of her own creation. Elsie Leslie is without doubt the most brilliant in the galaxy of child geniuses in which "Little Lord Fountleroy" has given rise. She was chosen by Mrs. Francis Hodgson Burnett for the original presentation of "Fauntieroy" because 2 the good work she had done as Ediths in "Editha's Burglar." Her new play affords ample opportunity for the exercise of her ability; indeed, she has been said to be the whole play. It raises her above the plane of child actresses, for the demands made upon her call for such an exercise of art as to leave her call for such an exercise of art as to leave her an actress—an artist among them all. The production will be under the direction of Daniel Frohmen and Al Hayman.

HITCHCOCK'S REVOLVER.

It Riddles a Basket and Narrowly Escapes a Servant Girl.

Excitement ran high in the vicinity of the high school at an early hour yesterday. A telephone call sent the patrol wagon filled with policemen to the corner of Nineteenth and Douglas, where it was reported that burglars were going through the house. A servant girl had set an alarm clock, and the result was a series of yells of "burglars,"

"fire," etc.
Quiet had hardly been restored when G. M. Hitchcock, who lives at the corner of Twentieth and Dodgestreets, created another sensation.

He appeared at a window and with a full grown revolver, began shooting big heles in the darkness. He had heard a suspicious sound and was trying to attract the attention of a policeman. He succeeded in calling up every officer in the central part of the city. He thought some one was stealing his chickens. County Atterney Mahoney and City Attorney Poppleton finally succeeded in meeting at the mayor's office yesterday in relation to the question as to who should appoint the judges and clerks of the coming election and designate the posling places—the mayor and city council or the county commissioners. It required but a brief consultation for the two legal gentlemen to decide as follows: The mayor and city council shall provide for the registration under the act of 1889, and the county commissioners shall designate the polling places and the judges and clerks of election, under the general election law. It was decided that the act of 1887 does not apply in either case.

Are nature's efforts to eliminate poisen from the blood. This result may be accomplished much more effectually, as well as agreeably, through the proper exerctory channels, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"For several years I was troubled with boils and carbuneles. Incasting about for a remedy, it occurred to me that Ayer's Sarsa-parilla had been used in my father's family, with excellent success, and I thought that what was good for the father would also be good for the son. Three or four bettles of this medicine entirely cured me, and I have not since - in more than two years - had a boil, pimple, or any other eruptive trouble I can conscientiously speak in the highest terms of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and many years' experience in the drug business enables me to speak intelligently."-C. FALL OVERCOATS.

This coming week we will make a specialty in Fall Overcoats. We have an immense variety and no larger or finer assortment can be found anywhere than at our store. If we had room enough to display them properly they would fill more than half of one of our large floor; as it is, we have to crowd them into pretty high piles. We scarcely know which of the many beautiful styles to mention particularly. We have all the latest shades in fine Meltons, a large variety in popular Black Cheviot, also Clay Worsteds and others, many silk lined, and of elegant make. In short, the most dressy garments which the market affords, and what is most attractive about our Fall Overcoats is the prices—these are positively the lowest ever heard of

As our special offering we place on sale,

A lot of nice Melton Overcoats handsome shades, with full silk facing and well gotten up at $5.50. We challenge any retail house in the country to show a like bargain. A lot of excellent all wool Cassimere Overcoats, in fine Diagonal and a beautiful shade ofgray with good serge lining, at $7.00, worth $10.50. A lot of very fine Meltons in a new shade, silk faced and satin sleeve lining, at $9.501

Any otherhouse would charge $15.00 for this coat.

All the aboveare well cut and made and perfect fitting garments, which no one need bo ashamed to wear. They have some style about them which is generally not found in garments sold at such prices. Our finest grades of overcoats are marked $12.75, $14.50 and up to $17.50 These cannot be excelled for quality of material, workmanship and fit by any tailor made gar.
