Bixty-Five Laborers Fall Victims to an Unscrupulous Contractor.

THE QUESTION OF A FELON'S IDENTITY.

Trouble Over a Saloon - Who Was Wood's Agent?-Dates Arranged for Republican Orators -Lincoln Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 17 .- | Special to THE BEE. ] Sixty-five disconsolate laborers, all Italions, have lingered about the depot today, all painfully realizing that the ways of the labor contractor are sometimes dark and The fellows had been engaged at Pittsburg, Pa., by one F. G. Christian to go to Illinois to engage in the work of constructing a railroad. On arriving in Galena, Ill., Christian told them that they would have to go on to Lincoln, Neb., the western terminus of the proposed line. To this they agreed and turned over to him the checks to their trunks and other baggage. Last night the company of laborers arrived in Lincoln and the contractor told them that he would have to take them to New Castle, Wyo. This caused the fellows to believe that they were being imposed on and they rose masse and refused to go.

Christian, however, cunningly caused all their baggage to be shipped to New Castle, as he held their checks for the same. The laborers learned of this too late, but going to Christian demanded the checks for their baggage. These he refused to give up. They then called on two policemen and stated their case to them. The coppers expostulated, with the fellow, but in vain. About a dozen of them then repaired to Judge Cochran's court and asked if they could not get justice in this city, but the judge scrrowfully informed them that he could not do anything for them. At latest accounts the democrats were endeavoring to rovide for their maintenance until after election day. A QUESTION OF IDENTITY.

Police Magistrate Houston has been sitting In judgment today upon the case of John W. Hafer, and the diametrically opposite testimony of the witnesses for and against the prisoner is taxing the judge's powers. Hafer is charged with being the tellow who, under the alias of J. L. Lambertson, secured $225 from Dr. J. W. Bowman by giving a bogus mortgage on property he didn't own. Hafer acts, talks and looks like Lambertson, and the fact that the right hand of each individual is missing makes the identification seen complete. Both Dr. Bowman and H. S. Mullen, who negotiated the loan, swear positively that Hafer and Lambertson are one and the same person. The money was loaned October 34, 1882, and yet the father of Hafer swears that on that date his son John was at home on the farm near Shenandosh, In., helping him in his fall work, and that he was there for several weeks before and after that date. A fellow named Cary, who lives in the same neighborhood and who is a blacksmith by day and a local preacher by night, swears to the same effect. He declares that he was conducting a series of religious meetingt at that time and that Hafer was there every night. Of course Hafer's testimony agrees with that of two witnesses he brought so far. Notwith-standing this Hafer was held to the district

STILL AFTER TOMMY. Western investment company is still The Western investment company is still after Tommy Noonan, the saloonkeeper. Tommy had bought some lots from that company, and believing that he had paid too much for them and never could sell them for the price paid, he stopped making payments. Instead of foreclosing the mortgage the members of the company were resolved not to let such a good bargain slip. Accordingly they got a debelorer independent praints him and are got a deficiency judgment against him and an attachment was issued against Noonan's saloon. Yesterday Tommy replevined the stock and attended to the wants of the thirsty the same as usual. This afternoon the com-pany caused the issuance of an execution

BOTH CLAIMED TO BE AGENTS.

Pierson & Mulvihill were in Justice Coch-ran's court today telling how one W. E. Fields had gotten $50 out of them. Pierson says that he and his partner had rented a vacant lot on North Twenty-seventh street near the street car barn for the purpose of sub-renting the same for show purposes. They paid the rent for the same to C. E. They paid the rent for the same to C. E. Loomis, the agent for Thomas Woods, the owner. On June 25 Pierson & Mulvihili rented the grounds to Sells Brothers, the circus men, to give their exhibition. W. E. Fields then appeared on the scene and claiming to be the agent for Woods demanded $200 rental for the use of the ground. It was of course refused and Fields sued Sells Brothers for that amount. To avoid the delay of litigation the showmen To avoid the delay of litigation the showmen paid Fields $50 and deducted that amount from the money due Pierson & Mulvihill from them. Now Pierson & Mulvihill sue to recover this $50 from Fields.

The will of the late J. C. Ayer, the millionaire manufacturer of patent medicines at Lowell, Mass., was filed today in the county court of Lancaster country for probate. The reason for this is that the deceased owned realty in Lincoln. The will shows a liberal scattering of wealth among all the relatives, not only the wife and children being left plendid fortunes, but also his brother Frederick and half brother William A. Parke are remembered. Frederick receiving 1900 (no. Frederick receiving $100,000 remembered, Fre and Parke $50,000.

EFFECTS OF PROHIBITION. Mr. O. A. Wolcott, Candidate for Commissioner, Speaks Upon Them. Mr. O. A. Wolcott of Elk City, republican candidate for county commissioner in the Fifth district, came into town yesterday and was met by a number of farmers from his district who congratulated him upon his nomination and pledged him their hearty support. More than that, they promised to "take off their coats" and stand at the polls and work for him on the day of election. For the purpose of silencing the tongue of an enemy of Mr. Wal-cott, who has been charging that the latter is a prohibitionist, a Bee reporter asked the gentleman for an expression of his opinion on that important question. The reply was as "I feel that the engrafting of the prohibition amendment into the constitution of our young state with so many of our foreign-born citi-zens as also so many of our native Americans opposed to it, would be very deleterious. I think it would amount to exactly the same thing as local option and, where the sentiment of the people was opposed to it, the law would be a dead letter, and it would result in a great amount of useless lawing in the courts.

"I am positively and tetotally opposed to this prohibition amendment. I have been a resiprohibition amendment. I have been a resident of this state for the last twenty-five years, and I believe that in everything relating to the prosperity of the state I am the peer of any citizen in it. I came here in a prairie schooner with a stove and two babies. My wealth consisted in a span of horses, a lumber wagon and a head full of enthusiasm for the west. I settled in Douglas county and have resided here ever since. I am the owner of 650 acres of land which is well stocked with cattle, horses and hogs. If prohibition should obtain I should which is well stocked with cattle, horses and hogs. If prohibition should obtain I should feel that that property would seriously be depreciated and that the greater part of my life work would have gone almost for nothing, simply to satisfy a misdirected sentiment.

"I am a temperance man in the sense that I do not like drinking to excess and take a drink myself whenever I feel like it as my neighbors may and will cheerfully bear witness. I despise drunkenness, but I know of no better means to regulate it than know of no better means to regulate it than the high license law now in force in this state, which is not only supported by the best and most interested citizens, but has also been adopted by several other states in the mice."
