onto the Boyd game. Democratic Bulidozing.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 31 - Special Teleteram to Tun Bund-Cortain democrats in this city have attempted to force Tur Bux correspondent into making a decial of the exposure of McKeighan's record by the Adams' county alliance committee who returned Monday from Red Cloud. At the same time they have made the life of Hubbard, one of the alliance gentlemes who went to Red Gloud, a burden by buildozing him Into making a denial. Being a young and Ba ambitious candidate for supervisor, he consented to making a second statement which, as published, does not deny the savory record of McKeighan, but simply stat he (Hubbard) will not support either Mcighas or Harian. He could not vote for such a man as McKeighan, but would vote for the balance of the tie

The alliance man, Mr. Hattreal, stands by his first statement made Monday. The democrats are unable to buildoze him.

Rousing Rally at Seward. SEWARD, Neb., Oct. 31 .- Special to THE Ben | -A rousing republican rally took place here last night. At 7:30 the large opera house was filled to overflowing and many were compelled to leave for want of secting capacity. The speakers were Hon. George H. Hastings, candidate for attorney general, and Mr. Summers of Beatrice.

Mr. Summers discussed politics from a national standpoint and advanced many strong and practical reasons why Nebraska should hesitate before sending a democrat, under the guise of an independent, to congress. He viewed impartially the record McKeigan had made for himself and asked if that was the character the people of the Second district wished to represent them. He dwelt at length on the McKialey bill and contrasted it with the democratic measure the Mills bill, and demonstrated the justice of the one and the injustice of the other. He eulogized Richards and condemned. Boyd for pandering to the morst elements of society and showed that Powers was practically out

Mr. Hastings made a brilliant speech and beyond a doubt rescued many wavering votes back to their first love. He admitted that the time was during the campaign when doubt existed as to the outcome on next Tuesday, but claimed that all that doubt was now dispelled and the propie only waited the 4th of November to once more proclaim a grandr epublican victory. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and applause was frequent and very pronounced.

Bryan at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 31. - Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-This evening W. J. Bryan the democratic candidate for congress man, attempted to make a reply to the speech of John M. Thurston of last week, but really delivered an apologetic address for his mistakes during the campaign. An introductory speech was made by M. V. Gannon in his usual happy and eloquent manner. Mr. Bryan opened his address by saying, in imitation of Thurston, that he never was ashamed of the party he represented. declared that Thurston had said that the McKinley bill does not increase the price of the necessaries of life and at-tempted to refute it by reading an alleged clipping from Tax Ber and work-ing off his old story about the wife and the bear. Mr. Bryan then made a very lame defense of his fatal remark at Weeping Water, about his being "tired of bearing about laws made for the benefit of men who work in shops." He said that the reason he heard of a mechanic becoming a milli-He referred to Connell as the tail end of the He thought that the candidates of to shoulder all the work of the campaign, but that the voters ought to bear art of the burden. An Impecunious Stumper. BRAINARD, Neb., Oct. 31 .- [Special to THE Bee. - The honest farmers' alliance party has been sadly duped in this precinct by the Bohemian alliance speaker, Frank Janos of Atkinson, Neb. He came here two weeks ago, and when he struck the town informed prominent alliance men that he did not have enough money to pay his expenses in town or to buy his supper. A collection was at once taken up and a purse of $6 or $8 raised. As soon as he received this he slipped away from them and forwarded $40 to his wife. He displayed considerable money after the collection tion. Mr. Stirling at Risings. RIBINGS, Neb., Oct. 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The largest audience that ever assembled in this village turned out today to the anti-prohibition rally. The meeting was addressed by Hon. John H. Stirling of Omaha. His arguments were forcible and convincing and he was quently interrupted in the course of his speech by outbursts of applianse. It is esti-mated that nearly one thousand people were in town for the purpose of attending meeting, but owing to the inadequency about half of them were able to hear Mr. Stirling's address. The audience wa very enthusiastic.

A Democratic Trick. HEBBON, Neb., Oct. 31.—[Special Telegram to The Bes.]—Great excitement prevails in this city over the discovery of a piece of democratic chicanery. In printing the independent and democratic tickets only the clause against the proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liqnors as a beverage was used. The pros-pects are that the republican ticket will carry by a good majority in this county and that Dorsey will without doubt run consid-erably ahead of the ticket. The independents out no figure here.

Reed at Glenwood. GLENWOOD, Is., Oct. 31.—[Special to THE Brs.]—The republicans of this place were given a genuine treat last night in the peaches of Congressman Reed and M. D. O'Connelli. Judge Reed's effort was a masterly expesition of the silver and tariff legis-lation of the last congress. His record and his position gave the fullest satisfaction to all his republican hearers. He enthused all his old friends and made many new ones. Although the evening was rainy, the court house was filled with a very attentive audi-

Great D monstration at Falls City. FALLS CITY, Neb., Oct. 31. - Special Telegram to Tan Bug. |-The largest crowd seen during the campaign turned out tonight to welcome Richards and Lansing. A line was formed at 7 o'clock, headed by the Fails City band, composed of a torchilght brigade followed by flambeau and gun clubs. There was one continual blaze of fireworks for fully half an hour. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Richards viewed the procession and pronounced it the most enthusiastic demonstration he has witnessed. Richards made an eloquent address of half an hour, in which he reviewed the good work of the republican party in this state for the past twenty-three years. The inimitable Lausing followed Richards, speaking for about two hours and went after the democrats on the tariff question. He completely unullifiated the democratic harangues previously made here on the McKinley bill, and wound up by saying a worll for the state and congressional tickets. Republicans are at this time holding high carnival over the success of the piggest rally of the campaign and the feeling is to vote the ticket straight.

Rousing Meeting at Fairbury.

FARRURY, Neb., Oct. 31.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE, |-A rousing old-fashioned republican meeting was held tonight at Thompson, the stronghold of the alliance in this county. There was a large attendance. The meeting was addressed by J. C. Cramb, candidate for float representative, in a strong speech on the tariff and urging upon the republicans of the alliance their duty to sup port the entire republican ticket. He w followed by Colonel George E. Jenkins in strong appeal for Richards and the whole state ticket. Captain John Heasty made an eloquent address in behalf of Harlan and arreigning McKeighan in the strongest terms The meeting was a great success and made many votes.

Manderson at Grand Island.

Grand Island, Neb., Oct. 31,- Special Telegram to The Ber. 1-A rousing repubican meeting was held tonight and the opera house was packed to hear Senator Manderson. Owing to the lateness of the train, Congressman Dorsey and General O'Connor d Kearney did not arrive. Mr. Manderson's reference to the republican leaders was greeted with applause, and his remarks on the McKinley and silver bills were listened to with rapt attention. He declared himself opposed to the prohibition amendment, and was vociferously applauded.

Mr. Caldwell at Nelson.

NEISON, Neb., Oct. 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hon. J. S. Caldwell spoke here this afternoon to a good sized house on the tariff question, making the plainest and most logical speech delivered during the campaign. There was hearty enthusiasm and votes for republicans were doubtles; made, S. A. Searle introduced the speaker with a brief talk unmasking some of the most mis-leading statements of the opposition.

A Negro Assaults a Man With a Pick-Axe-Crashed to Death-A Brute at Large-Other State News.

FREWOXT, Neb., Oct. 31 .- [Special to THE BEE. |- The closing session of the Baptist state convention was heldthis forenoon. Rev. E. Hudson of Tekarnah opened with an daress upon churchedifice work. He stated that this line is being pushed vigorouly and that the new churches which have been built are rapidly lifting their debts.

Rev. A. W. Lamar of Omaha submitted the eport of the educational committee. This report was to the effect that the plan of the proposed new Baptist university, to be built at Grand Island, is under way. The building s to be creeted and finished ready for use by September 1, 1891. The gratifying news was given that J. F. Zechker and family of Grand island have donated to the university $50,000 as an endowment fund on condition that the lational Educational society add $10,000 to National Educational society and $10,000 this sum, which provision is most likely to be carried out. A committee consisting of A. W. Lamar, Omaha; Dr. Williams, Lincoln, and Rev. E. R. Curry, Fremont, was appointed to select a president for the university. Another part of the report was a recommendation that the work of the report was a recommendation that the work of the report was a recommendation that the work of the report was a recommendation that the work of the residual that the second control of the report was a recommendation that the work of the residual that the work of the residual that mendation that the work of furnishing ew new university dormitory be taken up by the young people's associations connected ith the churches of the state.

POPULATION OF THE COUNTRY. A Comparison Made With the Last Two Decades.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The population of the United States, as shown by the census bulletin issued today; is 63,380,540. The figures are exclusive of whites in the Indian territory and Indians on the reservation. In 1880 the population was 50,155,783. The in crease in the past ten years is 12,324,757, a percentage of 24.57. In 1870 the population was stated as 38,558,371. According to these figures the increase between 1870 and 1880 was 11,597,412 and the percentage 80.08. The buildin says: "If the figures were derived from correct data such a reduction in the rate of increase in the face of enormous immigra tion the past ten years would argue a great dimination in the fecundity of the population or a corresponding increase in the death rate. These figures are, however, easily explained when it is stated that the census of 1870 was grossly deficient in the southern states, much so as not only to give an exaggerate rate of increase of population between 1770 and 1880 in these states, but affect very materially the rate of increase in the country at large."

These omissions, the bulletin says, were not within the control of the census office The census of 1870 was taken under a law which Superintendent Walker characterized as "clumsy, antiquated and barbarous." The census office had no power over its enumera-tors. In referring to these omassions the uperintendent of the tenth census said in hi report in relation to South Carolina: "It fol-lows, as the conclusion of the highest authority, either that the census of 1870 was grossly defective in regard to the whole of the state or some considerable parts thereof, or else that the census of 1880 was fraud-ulent." Those, therefore, who believe in the accuracy and honesty of the tenth census and that was thoroughly established—mist accept the other alternative, namely, that the ninth census was "grossly defective." What was true of South Ca offina was also true, in a greater or less degree, of all the southern What tates. The omission in all probability amounted to not less than 1,500,000. Omitting from consideration those states in which th census of 1870 is known or presumed to have been faulty, he rate of increase between 1870 and 1880 in the remaining states has been very nearly maintained in the decade be-

THE SOUTH OMAHA LEAGUE. It is Addressed by Hon, John L.

Webster on Prohibition. The Bohemian band paraded the streets last night, followed by transparencies, before the grand anti-prohibition meeting in Rowley's hall. When President Jaskolek of the personal rights league called the meeting to order the immense hall was a sea of eager faces. The audience was plainly in sympathy with the movement.

Warren Switzler was the first speaker introduced. Mr. Switzler gave a vigorous and interesting discussion of the question, frequently eliciting hearty approval. Cheerafter cheer greeted Hoa. John L.

Webster, the eloquent Omaha lawyer, as he stepped to the front of the platform and said: "Prohibitionists tell us that they are tired Tronionists ten as that they are three of fearing that prohibition does not prohibit. Why are they treed of it! Because it is an unanswerable argument. The fact is that prohibition, as it is enforced, actually increases the crime of drunkenness. I know this fact from talking with men living in the prohibition states. I know it from an examination of the number of arrests for drunkenness from year to year in each and all the cities in the prohibition states. The prohibitionist is the foe of true temperance.

Well I had no definite knowledge about Sioux City Last Wednesday night I was in Sloux City With a newspaper friend I went out to se how prohibition prohibited up there. When I had gone one block from the hotel a barn was pointed out. You enter the front door, pass to the rear. There was a 'hole in the wall' where you could get all kinds of had whisky. Next I was shown a fivery stable. In the rear of that was a hole in the wall like the other. 'How many places like this are there in Sioux City?' Lasked. 'About two hundred, replied my companion. 'Have you any open saloons!' I inquired. 'Yes about fifty of them. I will show you some,' said my companion. We then some, said my companion. We then walked into one salcon after another until I had visited about a dozen, when I said I was ready to take his word about the bal-'Hold on,' he said, 'I want to show

"We next went into another saloon, and passed through swinging doors into a large gambling room, where about fifty men and boys were engaged in gambling. I had never gambled in my life, but that I might be able to testify to what I saw I invested a half dol lar in the game. I lost, just as every other man was doing.
"Next I was taken to another saloon with a

'I am willing to drink whisky,' I said. 'Have no whisky,' said the man. 'When did you self out!' I said. 'He answered, 'About two years ago.' I said, 'You seem to have forgotten to self your bar and your beer, wine and whisky glasses.' He smiled and we went out. My companion said be had bought liquor there companion said be had bought liquor there within a week past.

THE PRESENT UNION PACIFIC SITUATION.

Revived Rumors of a Real Transcontinental Line-The Baltimore & Ohio and Wisconsin Central Combination Discussed.

Caucago, Oct. 31. - [Special Telegram to The Bee, i-Charles Francis Adams, against whom charges of trying to wreck the Union Pacific railroad for speculative purposes have been made, arrived in Chicago this morning on his way home from a tour of inspection of that system, of which he is president. Speak ing of the charges and the general condition of the road, Mr. Adams said:

"The stories about my trying to wreck the Union Pacific are due solely to the imagination of certain ex-officials of the road who were discharged from its service and who are evincing more aptitude for filling newspaper than they ever showed for running a railroad They are too silly to deserve a denial. The Inion Pacific, for the past six weeks, has unquestionably been greatly overcrowded with traffic, and the local management, in its desire to take care of new business, has un-dertaken to do more than the facilities at command justified deing. Accordingly there has been a certain amount of disturbance in he movements of trains and a corresponding ocrosse in accidents and drings. This sowever, all been remedied, and during ast ten days the regular movement has been restored, accidents and disturbances have ceased and the whole machinery of the road s now moving with regularity. 55

"Under the contract between the Union Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern, entered into a year ago, the division of rates was to be rearranged in a way that would materially advance the interests of the Union Pacific Those revised rates are to take effect No vember 1. It is a matter simply between the Union Pacific and the Chicago & Northwestern. We are, however, ready to serve all other roads and exchange business with them, having no preference to the North western. We have made every arrangement with our eastern connections to amply ect our own traffic and the whole traffic o the business community. Who have no apprehension that other lines in the long run will decline to participate in thi traffic on these terms. If the existing rate are sustained no line will have any cause o complaint, but in any event, no matter what copts or rejects the new basis, we have made ample provision to take care of all the traffic which offers to or from any point we The difference about which so muc talk has been made is purely temporary and, in our judgments, by no means serious—in fact, we are inclined to believe that the whole thing was intended more for Wall street tha for the freight offices of the roads or shipper here. The only other point which it seems to me would interest the public is that the Union Pacific, in common with all the other roads of the country, has sustained a very great loss of traffic this year and a corresponding loss of income, from the fact that all eastern machine shops have been overcrowded with orders. I have just been over the lines of the Union Pacific. The gross earnings of the company for the current mouth of October will be probably some where between $400,000 and $500,000. Had we had the motive power and equipments which was ordered six months ago, and which under ordinary circumstances woul-have been delivered in August and Senten ber, we might just as well have earned for October rising of $500,000 instead of rising $400,000. The traffic has been there and we have simply been, from no fault of ours, unable to move it. I do not think I exaggerate by saying that today the traffic ready for us to handle and pressing upon us to be bandled is 30 per cent in excess of our capacity. This we very greatly deplore, and in fact we suffe. from it more than any one else: but it is not a fact which indicates either a lack of pros perity to the country or possibilities to the A Real Transcontinental Line. CHICAGO, Oct. 31,-|Special Telegram to

THE BEE.]-The rumor is again affoat that the Baltimore & Ohio and the Northern Pa cific Wisconsin Central system are to combine and form the first real transcontinental line. The story is an old one, but there are now many added reasons for believing it true. The Baltimore & Ohio formerly had a trackage contract with the Illinois Central. A short time ago this contract expired and the Illinois Central ordered the Baltimore & Onlo off its tracks. A trace was patched up, but the Illinois Central refused to extend the contract, and the Baltimore & Ohio today occupies its Chicago terminal by squatter's right alone The whole Illinois Central terminal is in litigation and it is by no means certain that it will not be ousted by the federal government and the city of Chicago. There is no question, consequently, that the Baltimore & Ohio must secure another Chicago terminal Unless it buys a new one outright—a preceeding which cost the Atchison $10,000,000 it can only come in at the Polk street or the Wisconsin Central depot. The former is now crowded; the latter is the largest and in every way the best depot in the world. It is near completed and, so far as known, will be use alone by the Wisconsin Central in connection with the Northern Pacific. It is impossible that these roads should have laid out million of dollars on their magnificent new depot is their own use. It is larger than they wi need fifty years from now. The Baltimore & Ohio has all along been mentioned as a ten ant of the new depot. This impression is in ensified by the fact that adjacent proper suitable for storehouses has been bought the Baltimore & Ohio. As further proof the consolidation story it may be mentione that the high officials of the Baltimore Ohio will finish tonight a trip over the North ern Pacific with the declared intention thoroughly inspecting that road. The c solidation would also be consistent with th often expressed wish of Henry Villard an the aggressive policy of the present Balti more & Ohio management. A conference be tween the high officials of both roads will b held in Chicago tomorrow.

Without the Slightest Foundation. BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 31. - The storprinted in Chicago today to the effect that nogotiations were in progress looking to as agreement between the Northern Pacific and Baltimore & Ohio roads which, if con summated, would amount to a practical con olidation of the two systems, thus forming great transcontinental route, which has ong been Henry Villard's hobby, is declared by Baltimore & Ohio magnates to be without the slightest foundation. They say it all grew out of the fact that President Mayer nd some of the directors of the Baltimore . Ohio accepted an invitation of the Northera Pacific while they were in Chicago to take an excursion up to St. Paul and Duluth.

The Live Hog Rate.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Absolutely nothing was accomplished today in the settlement of the live hog and dressed product rates. The Alton would not compromise on a 22 cent rate for both from Kansas City, insisting on making both rates is cents. The question was then referred to the Western freight association, which meets on November II. It is thought a compromise can be effected by which the Omaha rates will be 4 cents higher and the Sions City rate 5 or 6 cents higher than the 18 cent Kansas City rate.

Missouri Pacitic Promotions. Archisox, Kan., Oct. 31.- | Special to The BEE.]-E. B. Lane, traveling freight agent of the central branch division of the Missour Pacific, has been promoted to the position of contracting freight agent, to succeed J. C. Forester, commercial agent, who has been transferred to Kansas City. Mr Lane will enter upon his duties tomorrow and his territory will include Atchison, Leavenwor and St. Joseph, with his office at Atchison bree more bandits being executed today in proposition of other roads in the Western Freight association to establish a compromise rate on hogs and packing house products The matter went over until tomorrow. It is charged that the Alton is neling in the interest of Kansas City packers. The proposed reduction in the bog rate would not effect that point much, but would result to the scrious detriment of lowa and other Misouri river packing points.

DEBOCRATS IN A PLIGHT.

Chicago Bourbons Discouraged with Their Prospects.

Curcaso, Oct. 31 .- Special Telegram to THE BRE. | - The democrats are discouraged at the outlook in Chicago, and atthough General Palmer is speaking night and day in this city this week, he fails to arouse enthusiasm. A member of the democratic executive committee said:

"Our party is in a bad plight and no one realizes that fact better than the committee. There is absolutely no money in the treasury and how to pay expenses I cannot see. Law for was assessed for $12,500, but has not even contributed the $7,500 that he is said to have given. Kem the candidate for treasurer has stopped contributing and notified us that his private campaign headquarters is far more calcubic to him than ours is. Carl Haerting hasn't paid his assessment and would be taken of the ticket except for the bad effect it would have."

HEAVY CLOTHING PAILURE. Leopold Brothers & Co. of Chicago Go to the Wall. CHICAGO, Oct. 31 .- A sensation was caused in the clothing trade today by the fullure of the firm of Leopold Brothers & Co., famufacturers of and wholesale dealers in clothing one of the oldest in the city. Twenty-six confessions of Judgment were entered up against the firm in the saperior court for sums aggregating $149,000. The failure was foreseen only by the members of the firm and the collapse came like a thurderboll to the trade. None of the creditors are Chicago people. Many of the creditors are somparatively small trades med in other cities and all these have been provided for firm's solicitor says a member of the firm estimates the Habilities at $325,000, fully covered by assets.

Henry Leopold, the senior member of the firm, says the failure inductor the monetary stringency, dull trade and the carrying of too large a line of open accounts. The sherit has taken possession of the stock, but Lee pold thinks his creditors will consent arrangement for his resumption of business.

and Swept by the Floods into

New York, Oct. 31 .- | Special Telegram to Tan Ben.] - News has reached this city from the interior and the senboard cities of Mexico, of severe damage done by storms that have been ruging there for three weeks or more. In Senora beavy rains, accompanied by high winds and hall, blew down whole groves of trees in the public parks. Hall cut crops on plantations to pieces and caused unlimited damage. This will result in future hardship among the owners of small plantations and among the laboring classes.

It is estimated that it will take years to repair the damage to trees and shrubbery.

The city of Tereloapan fared even worse There the rain was so heavy as to wash away the stone pavements of streets, and under mine the foundations. One peculiar resul-of the storm was that a number of graves to the old Spanish cemetery, on the outslitts of the town, were washed partially open, and after the storm a number of human bures were found in nearly all the streets, where they had been left by the floods. A number of cellins which were near the surface were also exposed. Along the northern border of Mexico the Rio Grando river rose so rapidly that the people of the cities of Porticio Diaz and Villa de la Fuente had to lice from their homes without stopping for food or clothing. Many houses were swept into the river be-fore the occupants could escape and boats had to be used in rescuing some families. Distress in the storm-rayaged districts is a great that President Dischas appropriated money for the relief of the inhabitants, while subscription papers for the relief of those made homeless by the storm have be on opened it, all large cities.
